Mr. McMILLEN. Mr. Speaker, in regard to that, I would say I would be somewhat in the same position if I were taken before a squire for a motor violation. I might be unjustly accused and I might have an unjust charge against me; and if I were certain that it was an unjust charge, I would certainly not hesitate to go ahead and try to find some way to clear myself and get into court to have a just hearing. I think if a man is accused of chiseling on relief, and he can prove that he has not been chiseling, it will be of enough importance for him to go on with the case.

Mr. PAUL F. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe that I can agree with the gentleman in the analogy which he draws between a relief client and a person who owns an automobile and is guilty of a motor violation. We are dealing here essentially with people, whom I take it are on relief because of no fault necessarily of their own, and we will have to agree on the premise that they are there because they cannot help themselves.

Mr. McMILLEN. Mr. Speaker, I will never agree with that statement entirely. I have a letter right here on my desk now from a citizen in the western part of Pennsylvania explaining the whole relief situation where the people have an automobile and just a day or two ago bought themselves a television set.

I can take you into my own community and show you people on relief who have television sets, automobiles. However, the fact that a man owns an automobile does not say that he cannot get assistance.

Suppose I am over taxed on federal taxes and I have paid too much and I want to get the money back that I feel is coming to me, cannot I appeal to a court? Do I not have the right to go in on that? It is the same situation. You are giving everyone an even break here.

Mr. PAUL F. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I do not know how relief is administered in Mr. McMillen's county, but I can say to you from personal experience that a person in Allegheny County who is able to maintain an automobile and owns one, is able to maintain and own real estate, if they can satisfy our requirements over there for relief, they will have to get rid of that personal property before they can go on our relief rolls. I say the fault is not so much the question he raises as to the individual, it is a question of administration. Perhaps he needs some corrections and may be the fault in the Board in his particular county charged with the administration of relief. But I repeat to you in Allegheny County—the Board over there is composed largely of Republicans—we have had an impartial and fair administration of relief. We have had no scandals, and personally I call on this House not to disrupt the system because we are doing all right.

Mr. McMILLEN. Mr. Speaker, I would just like to quote from an article here—I picked it out of the paper one day last week—to show that people who are chiseling on this relief are not always destitute. They have resources not only of a personal nature but in many instances they have the resource of physical strength to go out and earn their own living.

Here is a man who goes to the hospital in Philadelphia with an infected foot. When they got in the hospital and started to list his personal effects in his clothing, they found he had $466 in cash right on him. When he left the hospital he took all the $466 with him and said, send the bill to Public Assistance I am on relief." Here is the article if anyone wants to read it.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I rise again to take the time of this House because I feel this matter is of grave importance otherwise I would not be up here.

The gentleman from Indiana has mentioned a few isolated instances and, of course, without having all the facts we might easily be misled.

I know of a particular instance last week where a relief recipient had a television set in his house. I also know that the dealer who put the set in the house repossessed it last week because the man did not make the down payment except by giving a bad check. So it is entirely possible for someone on relief to have a television set in his house and not own it.

I know of one case where it did happen. The down payment was made with a bad check, he never made any payments and the dealer took it back after about three months. That did not indicate that he owned the set.

But the point I am trying to impress upon the Members of the House is not that we want to keep chiselers on the relief rolls. I do not believe that the gentleman from Allegheny County wants that either. We want to take them off the relief rolls, but we want to do it in an orderly manner, keeping insofar as we can all those procedures in law that have been tested by years of time, time and time again.

We have a number of Justice of Peace in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania—quite a few of them—and if we were to give all these justices unlimited power in this sort of case, we have no way of checking up on what happens to the various cases.

The Common Pleas Court has a bureau. They have the clerk of courts. They have the Probation Bureau. They set up in a particular agency someone who is supposed to look after the collection of these restitution amounts. They have someone there who would keep a record of it.

You can go into the courthouse and you can find there exactly what so and so was supposed to return and how much he actually did return. Where and how could we arrive at any system like that among the justices of the peace? What system would we have to check on to find out whether or not a convicted recipient is making restitution or whether he is not making restitution? We have no follow up on it. It certainly is a wrong procedure.

I believe that the chiselers on the relief rolls should be punished. Restitution should be made, but it should be done in such a manner that we know all the time how much restitution is being ordered and how much is actually being paid back. We should not allow it to be vested in the hands of people who in a great many instances are not qualified—not qualified to be judges of the facts.

I do not mean that all justices of the peace are illiterate. They are splendid people, but as a general rule they are elected from the rank and file and in a great many instances they are not able to keep proper bookkeeping records and they need a lot of supervision and I think it is wrong to extend the power under this bill as we have proposed right now.

I think the bill should be amended. We should allow a limited jurisdiction to the justices of the peace if the amount involved is, say, less than $100; let him have jurisdiction in order not to clutter up the courts. But if it is a large amount there should be some record in a public courthouse showing what amounts have been ordered to be paid and what amounts actually have been paid.

Mr. PAUL F. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I beg the indulgence of the House to make this one final statement.

It is my humble opinion that it is a question of administration. The local boards of assistance are charged with that responsibility.

It is further my humble opinion that if we have lax administration in any county, in all of the 67 throughout the Commonwealth, the authority over those Boards in the final analysis rests in the hands of the Governor. They can be removed at will and I think that that is the crux of the whole question. We are seeking to deter people who are chiseling on the relief rolls, and the responsibility rests squarely on the shoulders of the Board. The Governor has the power to prevent that situation.

The next point I wish to make finally is that in my county the courts have not hesitated where chiselers have been involved—even if it involved the mother of children, they have taken those children from them and placed them in the juvenile detention home and sent those parents to jail. With that type of administration and with that type of enforcement from the courts, we are going to get rid of chiselers. I submit to you in all fairness that that is what we are seeking to do and within the framework of the present legislation on the books of this Commonwealth we can deal with this problem.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

A verification of the roll was requested by Messrs. Schmidt, Rovanske and Lopresti.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 609, as follows:

An Act to further amend Sections 10 and 15 of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-three (P. L. 207) entitled "An act providing when how upon what property and to what extent liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements for the removal of nuisances and for water rents or rates sewer rates and lighting rates for the procedure upon claims filed therefor the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims the effect of judicial sales of the properties lien the distribution of the proceeds of such sales and the redemption of the property therefrom for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisance removed within six months before the passage of this act and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly" by providing that tax and municipal claims and the revivals thereof in counties of the second class must be signed by or have stamped thereon a facsimile signature of the county controller

Section 1 Section 10 of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-three (P. L. 207) entitled "An act providing when how upon what property and to what extent liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements for the removal of nuisances and for water rents or rates sewer rates and lighting rates for the procedure upon claims filed therefor the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims the effect of judicial sales of the properties lien the distribution of the proceeds of such sales and the redemption of the property therefrom for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed within six months before the passage of this act and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of assembly" as last amended by the act approved the fourteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 470) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 10 Said claim shall set forth

1 The name of the municipality by which filed

2 The name of the owner of the property against which it is filed

3 A description of the property against which it is filed

4 The authority under or by virtue of which the tax was levied or the work was done

5 The time for which the tax was levied or the date on which the work was completed in front of the particular property against which the claim is filed or the date of completion of the improvement where the assessment is made after completion or the date of confirmation by the court where confirmation is required done

6 If filed to the use of a contractor the date of and parties to the contract for doing said work and

7 In other than tax claims the kind and character of the work done for which the claim is filed and if the work be such as to require previous notice to the owner to do it when and how such notice was given

Said claim shall be signed by or have stamped thereon a facsimile signature of the solicitor or chief executive officer of the claimant or the chief of its delinquent tax bureau except that in counties of the second class said claim or claims for county taxes levies or assessments shall be signed by or have stamped thereon a facsimile signature of the county controller and in the case of a use-plaintiff must be accompanied by an affidavit that the facts therein set forth are true to the best of his knowledge information and belief

Section 2 Section 15 of said act as last amended by the act approved the fourteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 470) and by the act approved the twentieth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1494) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 15 Such tax municipal or other claim if filed within the period aforesaid shall remain a lien upon said properties until fully paid and satisfied Provided That either a suggestion of nonpayment and an averment of default in the form hereinafter provided be filed in cases of tax claims either before or after judgment on the scire facias and in cases of other than tax claims after judgment on the scire facias or else a writ of scire facias in the form herein provided be issued to revive the same within each period of five years following (a) the date on which said claim was filed (b) the date on which a writ of scire facias was issued thereon (c) the date on which any judgment was entered thereon (d) the date on which a previous suggestion of nonpayment and default was filed thereon or (a) the date on which a judgment of revival was obtained thereon

The suggestion and averment shall be in the following form under the caption of the claim

And now .....the claimant by..... [his] its solicitor or by the chief of its delinquent tax bureau or in counties of the second class by the county controller suggests of record that the above claim is still due and owing to the claimant and avers that the owner is still in default for nonpayment thereof The prothonotary is hereby directed to enter this suggestion and averment on the municipal lien or the proper docket of the claim and also to index it upon the judgment index and on the locality index of the court for the purpose of continuing the lien of the claim

Such suggestion and averment shall be signed by or have stamped thereon a facsimile signature of the solicitor or chief executive office of the claimant or the chief of its delinquent tax bureau except in counties of the second class in which case it shall be signed by or have stamped thereon a facsimile signature of the county controller. The prothonotary shall docket and index the suggestion and averments directed therein and for such services in all counties of the fifth class and the political subdivisions in such counties shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar and in all other classes of counties and the political subdivisions thereof he shall receive the following fee to be taxed and collected as other costs in the claim.

Where suggestion and averment is for taxes or municipal claims for one year and is directed to be indexed in one name only .....one dollars ($1)
Each additional year included .....one dollar ($1)
Each additional name included .....twenty-five cents ($.25)

The filing and indexing of such suggestion and averment within five years of filing the claims or the issuing of any writ of scire facias thereon or of any judgment thereon or of the filing of any prior suggestion and averment of default shall have the same force and effect for the purposes of continuing and preserving the lien of the claim as though a writ of scire facias had been issued or a judgment or judgment of revival had been obtained within such period. Provided That no writ of levavi facias shall be issued upon a claim for the purpose of exposing the property lien to sheriff's sale except after a judgment shall have been duly obtained upon the claim as provided in this section and such judgment must have been obtained within five years of the issuance of the levavi facias. Whenever the lien of a claim has been revived and continued by the filing and indexing of a suggestion and averment of default the claimant may at any time within five years therefrom issue a writ of scire facias thereon reciting all suggestion and averment of default filed since the filing of the claim and shall proceed thereon in the manner herein provided subject in the right of the owner to raise any defense arising since the last judgment.

If a claim be not filed within the time aforesaid or if it be not prosecuted in the manner and at the time aforesaid its lien on real estate shall be wholly lost.

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 188, as follows:

An Act to amend Section 1 and the fourth paragraph of Section 2 of the act approved the twelfth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 711) entitled "An act establishing a court for the county of Philadelphia prescribing its jurisdiction and powers providing for the service of its writs process or warrants by the proper officers of the county or city of Philadelphia regulating the procedure therein and appeals therefrom and providing for the expenses thereof" by increasing the number of judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia

Section 1 Section 1 of the act approved the twelfth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 711) entitled "An act establishing a court for the county of Philadelphia prescribing its jurisdiction and powers providing for the service of its writs process or warrants by the proper officers of the county or city of Philadelphia regulating the procedure therein and appeals therefrom and providing for the expenses thereof" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted &c That in the county of Philadelphia there shall be and hereby is created a court of record to be known as the Municipal Court of Philadelphia It shall consist of a president judge and [one associate judge for each two hundred thousand of population or fractional part thereof in excess of one hundred thousand in such county such population to be determined from time to time by the latest census of the United States] thirteen associate judges

Section 2 The fourth paragraph of Section 2 of said act as amended by the act approved the twenty-fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 1161) is hereby further amended to read as follows

In the event of a vacancy in the office of judge [or when by reason of a New United States census more judges are to be chosen] the Governor shall appoint judges to hold office until the first Monday of January succeeding the next municipal election at which election the vacancies shall be filled [and the additional judges caused by such increase in population shall be elected to the full term of ten years from the first Monday of January next following such election]

Section 3 The Governor shall appoint three persons learned in the law and otherwise legally qualified and commission them as associate judges of Municipal Court of Philadelphia to serve until the first Monday of January of the year following the next municipal election the primary for which occurs at least sixty days after the effective date of this act at which election successors to the judges so appointed shall be elected by the duly qualified electors of Philadelphia County

Section 4 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. TOLL asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to amendments to be introduced by him.

Messrs. TOLL, GUARNIERI and ROSE asked unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 1, page two, line fourteen, by deleting

the word 'thirteen' and substituting the word 'twelve' therefor.

Amend Section 3, page three, line eighteen, by deleting the word 'three' and substituting the word 'two' therefor.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, in connection with the amendments which I have offered, I call your attention to Senate Bill 188, which on page 2, line 11, deletes four of the lines which relate to the method of increasing Judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia which have been in the law since 1913. When the Municipal Court was created in Philadelphia in 1913 the method of increasing the number of Judges was specified in the law. Now for the first time this method is deleted.

The old method of increasing the Judges of the Municipal Court was—as referred to in the bill—that there shall be one Municipal Court Judge for every two hundred thousand population. This is now being deleted and, without justifying the number of Judges in relation to the population of Philadelphia, the bill merely increased the number of Judges from the present number of eleven to originally fourteen, and then in Committee it was reduced to thirteen. My amendments propose to reduce the number of Judges to twelve.

I call your attention to the fact that the population has not increased sufficiently in Philadelphia to justify three additional Judges in the Municipal Court.

I want to read to you an editorial published by the Evening Bulletin in connection with this population problem. By the way, the population method of increasing Judges in the various counties has been set forth in the Constitution, as for instance earlier in the session you increased the Judges of Beaver County by adding an Orphans Court Judge when Beaver County arrived at a population of one hundred and seventy-five thousand.

This editorial was published in the Evening Bulletin on June 19th. It is entitled "More and More Judges." The 1910 census gave Philadelphia a million and a half inhabitants. At that time the City had fifteen Common Pleas Judges.

In 1913 to relieve the burden on the Common Pleas Judges, the Legislature set up a Municipal Court, with a President Judge and eight associate Judges. Later two more associates were added to the Municipal Court, and two new Courts of Common Pleas were established, each with three Judges.

Now there is a proposal in the Legislature to add, at that time, four more Associate Judges to Municipal Court.

Which have been cut down in committee to three.

With a little elementary arithmetic you can figure out that between 1910 and 1950 the city's population increased by about a third, but if the pending Municipal Court Bill is enacted the number of Common Pleas and Municipal Court Judges will be increased from 15 to 36.

Of course by cutting it down in the Committee to three, it will be from fifteen to thirty-five. In that same period of time there was an increase of twenty Judges.

You can't measure the number of Judges needed by the size of the population; but an increase of 140 percent in the Judges while the population goes up only thirty-three and one-third certainly puts the burden of proof on those who want to increase the number of Judges.

President Judge Boyle of the Municipal Court is questioning the need for four additional Judges and he will also question the need for three additional Judges. He surely knows more about the Court's needs than those who are advocating the increase.

This measure was the subject of a public hearing or rather a semi-public hearing—or let me put it this way, of a partial hearing before the Committee and several of the officials of Philadelphia including Judge Boyle were called before the Committee, as a result of which the President Judge wrote a letter to the Chairman of the Judiciary Committee. I have a copy of that letter dated August 17th and I want to read it to you.

To the Honorable John H. McKinney.

Dear Mr. McKinney:

You were quoted in the daily press this week as having stated that you favored a middle ground between the four Judges proposed in the Senate Bill introduced by Senator John R. Meade (Republican, Philadelphia), and the two which the writer as President Judge of the Municipal Court insisted are all that are necessary.

I respectfully reiterate my position as stated in the Committee meeting, that two Judges are all that are necessary.

I take the liberty of reminding you that the Philadelphia Bar Association Committee which made a painstaking study of the needs of the Court, submitted its report to you stating that two Judges are all that are needed.

This question is not one that should be determined upon the basis of compromise but upon the basis of ascertained facts such as presented to you by the President Judge (who is aware of the full needs of the Court), and by the Philadelphia Bar Association.

I submit that any legislation providing for the appointment of more than two Judges would not be in the interest of the taxpaying public of Philadelphia and Pennsylvania.

Yours very truly,

John A. Boyle, President Judge.

Now, any member of the Philadelphia Bar Association, which is not a body that is devoted to the problem of drang—a bar association is a lawyer's group, formerly called the Law Association of Philadelphia. There are twenty-five attorneys in this House, and I believe all of them are members of one Bar Association or another. The Bar Associations are lawyers who practice before the courts. They know what the duties of the Courts are, and they know whether the courts are overcrowded or not, and about how many Judges would make a fair situation as far as the Courts are concerned.

I have here a copy of the Bar Association report which is fifteen pages long. I am not going to read all fifteen pages to you but I have extracted ten paragraphs which I would like to read to you showing the opinion of the judges and the lawyers of Philadelphia regarding the need for two or three judges as far as the Municipal Court is concerned. The conclusion is that only two are needed.

Now, let me state that this is addressed to the Chancellor and the Board of Governors of the Philadelphia Bar Association.

At the request of the President Judge of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia the Chancellor appointed the undersigned committee to conduct an inquiry as to the need, if any, for additional Judges in the Municipal Court of Philadelphia County, and if so, the number which in the opinion of the committee would be required, and directed the committee to make a report and recommendation.

The request of the President Judge was contained in a letter to the Chancellor, which stated that Senate Bill 188, providing for the appointment of four additional judges to the Bench of the Municipal Court, (since amended to three) has been referred to the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives at Harrisburg; that in the judgment of the President Judge an increase of four judges was unnecessary (as a matter of fact he objects to three judges) but that the business of the Court had greatly increased and that a study should be made by a committee appointed by the Chancellor from the membership of the Philadelphia Bar Association to determine the needs of the Court in this respect.

The committee conferred with the President Judge of the Municipal Court on a number of occasions and examined voluminous records and data furnished by him; extended to the Associate Judges of the Court an opportunity to express their individual views on the merits of the bill and its related problems; conferred with Senator John R. Meade and Edward W. Furia, Clerk of the Court, and with other persons who, over a period of years, have had considerable experience in observing the functioning of the court.

We requested Honorable John H. McKinney, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, House of Representatives, in view of the appointment of this committee and the study which it has undertaken, to retain the bill pending in the legislature in committee and not to report it out until such times as this committee is able to complete its study and present its report.

Now bear this in mind; this next paragraph refers to the effort that the committee made to get an expression of opinion from the Associate Judges.

As heretofore stated, the Associate Judges of the Court were afforded an opportunity to express their individual views on the merits of the bill pending in the State Legislature. One Judge advised us that he is aware of the material increase of business in the Court in recent years; that additional judges are required, but that he is not prepared to state the number of additional judges that are needed in view of the fact that he has not made a study of the statistics of the Court, being continually engaged in the duties assigned him by the President Judge. Another Judge likewise does not express an opinion but referred the committee to data appearing in the published reports of the Court. Two Judges stated that the President Judge is in a better position than anyone else to determine the judicial needs of the court. We are aware that one Judge believes that a minimum of four additional judges is required. The newest member of the Court, because of his recent elevation to the Bench and continuous service in the juvenile division, does not feel that he can express an opinion concerning the merits of the pending bill.

The President Judge of the Court and its administrative head, with over-all supervision of its business and with a complete perspective, is of the opinion that two additional judges are required. The views of the Associate Judges who communicated with us have been hereinbefore commented upon. The author of the bill in the Senate, Senator John R. Meade, believes that five or six additional judges are required. Mr. Furia, the Clerk of the Court, while convinced of the need for additional judges, is not prepared to state the number required.

The business of the Court in the four year period appears to present an increase of about 15%. In view of this, there would not appear to be a need for an increase in the judicial personnel of approximately 40% as proposed by the bill pending in the legislature. An increase in the judicial personnel would require a large increase in the general personnel. We have made inquiry and are informed that at the present time sufficient space is not available in City Hall or in the separate building of the Municipal Court to house such an increase.

The need for additional judges in a court of record is dependent not only on the volume and nature of its business but generally also on the speed, efficiency and competency of its judges and personnel. While we recognize the latter factors are important and should be considered in an appraisal of a court's needs, we must also recognize that Judges in this Court, as everywhere, are composed of men of varying temperaments and abilities and of varying funds of knowledge.

The scope of our duties clearly does not include an evaluation of the Court; it is rather our duty to determine whether the Court as it now functions, and without additional personnel, is able to deal adequately with the volume of work presently coming before it. We must give considerable weight to the conclusion of the President Judge that the Court requires two additional judges in order to perform its functions without undue delay. It is very clear to us that there is no need for four additional judges. We believe that the present volume of business in the Court could be handled with expedition and dispatch by the appointment of two additional judges.

We therefore recommend that two additional judges be appointed to the Bench of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia.

Respectfully Submitted,

Abraham L. Freedman,
Earl G. Harrison,
Bryan A. Hermes, Chairman.

Now let me add this final word. The Judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia are paid by State funds. If you increase the Judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia from two to three you are putting yourself in a position where you are asking your constituents in your towns and your boroughs to pay for a Judge for the next ten years, to pay his salary with your taxpayers money for a city that does not need three Judges and does not want three Judges.

Let me repeat, in case there are any here that have not heard this. Those of you who will vote for this bill as constituted for three Judges are asking the people in your borough and in your town to pay for a Judge for Philadelphia who is not wanted and not needed, to pay his salary for a period of ten years, when the City of Philadelphia does not want the Judge and does not need the Judge, and is not entitled to it according to the provisions of the old bill, and does not want it in accordance with the recommendations of the lawyers of the City.

In addition to that the City taxpayers of Philadelphia have to pay for new quarters, tipstaves, secretaries, stenographers and the equipment which goes into a Court room to house such a Judge.

The budget of Philadelphia for the present Municipal Court is nearly a million and a half. If you add three more Judges you are adding twenty-five percent to the amount of the bill, which is another $350 thousand. Just think what you are doing to the City when you saddle it with an expense of that nature. Suppose that happened in your county. Suppose that happened in your city. I respectfully submit that before you saddle your taxpayers with the burden of paying for an extra Philadelphia Judge, not wanted, you should think very carefully. I hope you will vote for the amendments giving us two Judges instead of three.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, this bill in its original form was based upon a population basis to determine the number of Judges. However, as we have it before us it changes the bill from a population basis to a work basis. We believe the work basis is the fair basis upon which to determine such an issue as we now have before us.

In that connection I want to call the attention of the Members to certain information on this matter. When this issue was up, Judge Boyle was before the Judiciary Committee and at that time he was recommending two. One of the members of his own Court was there and he said that not even four Judges were enough to handle the work that was before the Court.

Referring to the same Bar Association report that the gentleman from Philadelphia has mentioned, I want to call your attention to this fact. In 1947 the Municipal Court of Philadelphia handled 49,917 cases. In 1950, the latest figures available, they handled 57,684 cases, an increase of about 8,000 cases. Of these 8,000 additional cases they handled during the year of 1950, over the year 1947, 28,807 of them were hearings in court.

Let us break some of this information down. There are approximately 60,000 cases that the Municipal Court of Philadelphia handles annually. That means on a basis of ten Judges which are now in there, each Judge is assigned on an average of 6,000 cases a year to handle. Do you think any one man can properly handle 6,000 cases in one year and handle them properly and handle them judiciously?

Let me read from correspondence of certain of the members of that particular Court.

The volume of work in the Municipal Court has increased from year to year, since long before I became a judge of this Court, but the judges have remained the same in number. I have been able to observe the effect of this during the nine years that I have been a judge of the court. I have examined all of my personal lists in this court during that time and I can assure you that these lists disclose a continual increase in the volume of work assigned to me, and I know that other judges of our court have had the same experience. I conscientiously believe that we need judicial help in the court and I assure you that the volume of work and the responsibilities would warrant an increase in the number of judges. Many of us are kept busy continuously with the court's work with little opportunity for rest or relaxation.

Another of the Judges of that same Court states:

Personally, I have been working every day in Juvenile Court and the other Judges are working every day in their respective assignment. It is my understanding that the Municipal Court takes no vacation whatsoever in the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Divisions.

I am in agreement with the other members of this Court that there should be an increase in the number of Judges so that at least some of them can do office work in the way of writing opinions and actually trying cases.

Another Judge gives this information:

Domestic Relations & Custody Hearings	6847
Civil Court Trials	503
Criminal Court Trials	2557
Adoptions	2125
Motions and Rules and Compromises	532
Juvenile Court Hearings	6534
Preliminary Hearings in Bastardy Cases	2179
Attachment Hearings in Bastardy Cases	1334
County Commissioner Lists (Dependency cases)	1261
Misdemeanors Hearings (Morals Court)	509

In this list are not included appeals to the Superior Court, pre-trial conferences, preliminary adoption conferences, hearings and motions for new trials, and conferences preliminary to the allowance of motions and rules. This brief resume does not include cases on which I have worked in collaboration with other judges; and I am not including those because I am submitting to you in this resume only those official obligations which were exclusively mine alone.

That is a fair cross section of the opinion of the members of that particular Court. In speaking of the issue which the gentleman last raised, let me point this out to you.

The report of the Bar Association states that through its physical facilities and manpower organizations from 1914 to 1947, they only cover up to that point, the Court had dealt with 1,635,245 cases of various kinds. During the same period the Court has collected over fifty-six millions of dollars of support orders which otherwise would have been a burden upon your relief rolls, had they not been taken care of.

I submit to you that the expenses of additional Judges come nowhere near that amount which has been saved by the work of that Court.

I wish to point this out to you. The increase in the amount of the work of the Court from 1947 to 1950 was 60 per cent. But shortly after the present President Judge became President Judge on October 23, 1949, he himself makes this statement which is taken from the Philadelphia Bulletin of October 23, 1949. This is a statement by Judge Boyle.

Three more judges are needed to handle the business of Municipal Court because of the great increase in its functions, President Judge John A. Boyle said yesterday.

The present staff of 11 is hardly sufficient to take care of the court's needs and it is becoming increasingly necessary that its bench be enlarged as soon as possible," Judge Boyle added.

"All of our judges have been working overtime," he said, "particularly in the social service division. However he pointed out that "nothing can be done at the present time to increase our staff.

Judge Boyle said that the number of jurists assigned to Municipal Court is regulated by the Legislature on the basis of population. He promised, however, that he would ask for three additional judges at the next legislative session if the population increase here does not warrant that number.

Judge Boyle at the same time released a report of the court's activities during the past year.

The report showed that all of its six divisions had handled a much larger volume of cases than in the pre year.

The domestic relations division had contact with approximately 16,000 families with 13,213 cases resulting in court hearings.

"Compared with the average of the war years, the number of support orders in 1948 shows an increase of 48 percent," the report said.

A total of $3,355,799 was received and disbursed by this division in support orders, an alltime high since the creation of the court in 1914.

The court showed a more strict policy in such cases by imposing jail sentences on 1,087 persons for non-payment. By comparison, there were only 237 commitments in 1946.

The juvenile division disposed of 16,494 cases compared with 15,707 the previous year.

The criminal division disposed of 1851 bills of indictment while the civil division handled 10,746 suits.

I finally want to call your attention to this: The Municipal Court in Philadelphia at the present time is five to eight months behind on its juvenile domestic relation list. It is fifteen to eighteen months behind on its civil list and it is five to six months behind on its criminal list.

We say to you Members of the ouse, that three additional Judges are required to handle the work in the City of Philadelphia and the result of the three additional Judges will reflect itself in collections far, far greater than the amount it will cost us to maintain three additional Judges.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, it is unfair to delay the Members of the House and try to discuss and debate at this time of the day, at this time of the year, when hearts are more cheery and merry, thinking of Christmas.

There's one thing I want to say in regard to the amendments proposed by Mr. Toll in which I concur of course as the joint sponsor. The purpose of the amendments is to limit the number of judges, additional judges, to two, instead of three as proposed in the bill which is now before us for consideration.

I will say this. There is no magic number; numbers don't mean much to us on the floor of the House, nor do the statistics which have been read to us by the various Members here. If there is need for legislation, we ask what need is there to satisfy? And let's look at the evidence. I say to every man and lady here that the best piece of evidence we have on which to base legislation at this time is the report made by an impartial body, the Philadelphia Bar Association, which recommends two judges. I don't know how many judges are required. My opinion may be one thing, the opinion of another many may be another thing. The various members of the court differ as to how many additional judges may be needed.

However, the Bar Association Committee made a study impartially and said: "We believe that two additional justices are required".

That is the only bit of disinterested impartial evidence that we have before us. What a judge may have said at one time or what Mr. Tompkins, my colleague on the other side, may have quoted another judge as having said that we need more additional judges is not important. I am sure that the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Meade, with due deference to the gentleman's integrity and intelligence, perhaps himself hasn't made such a study as to know what numbers are required.

And so my learned colleague on the other side of the House himself has not made a study. To every Member here there is one piece of disinterested evidence, the Philadelphia Bar Association, and that body impartially is the best evidence of what is needed in Philadelphia, and we are going on that basis alone. Therefore, I ask you to concur in the amendments that Mr. Toll and I have proposed.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER declared the nays appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, 58 Members voting in the affirmative and 108 in the negative the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

A verification of the roll was requested by Messrs. Toll, Guarnieri and Robert K. Hamilton.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1731, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1198) entitled "An act relating to employes and organizations thereof defining labor disputes prescribing the procedure by which and the conditions under which injunctions may be granted in such disputes and the scope thereof declaring certain undertaking and promises between employers and employes contrary to public policy and void prescribing the nature of proof necessary in actions arising out of labor disputes against persons or associations prescribing the terms and conditions for bonds to be furnished prior to the issuance of injunctions prescribing the procedure in case of appeal from granting injunctions limiting the duration of temporary and permanent injunctions in case of labor disputes and providing for the payment of costs and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith" providing further conditions upon the issuance of injunctions in labor disputes

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 16, page 7, line 12, by deleting the words "ninety (90)" and inserting instead the words "thirty (30)".

Amend Section 16, page 7, line 18, by deleting the words "ninety (90)" and inserting instead the words "thirty (30)".

Amend Section 16, page 7, line 19, by deleting the words "ninety (90)" and inserting instead the words "thirty (30)".

Amend Section 16, page 8, line 6, by deleting the words "one hundred eighty (180)" and inserting instead the words "sixty (60)".

Amend Section 16, page 8, lines 8 and 9, by deleting the words "one hundred eighty (180)" and inserting instead the words "sixty (60)".

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman please submit to us a copy of the amendments?

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I am very sorry. I assumed that I had given the gentleman a copy of the amendments approximately three months ago, at which time the bill first appeared on the calendar. But evidently he has forgotten them, I suppose.

However, Mr. Speaker, I am in accord with the principles behind the bill as sponsored by my good friend, Mr. Kent. However, incorporated within the amendment to the particular act we are working on, on temporary injunctions and temporary restraining orders, the gentleman has fixed a time not to exceed ninety days from the date of the issue of the temporary injunction or temporary restraining order upon which this order may be acted upon by the courts.

The amendments which I have offered merely break the time element down to one-third of the time allotted in this particular bill, or thirty days, and further allowing thirty days in the event that the case is not terminated in its due process by the courts.

It further amends on page 8, line 6, by striking out 180 days on the permanent injunction, or whatever is issued on the findings of facts on the subsequent hearing, a 180 day permanent injunction that can be extended another 180 days.

We agree with setting up a time in the matter of temporary restraining orders and temporary injunctions. However, we feel that we should legislate into the statutes a shorter amount of time in which cases should be disposed of by the courts, rather than having them drawn out into such a period of time which would in effect amount to a six month period under the provisions of the gentleman's bill, whereby we could cut that down to a two month period. Then the participating parties in an injunction would in two months know just where they stood on the issue at hand.

Further, may I say that we are in agreement with the thought behind the bill but we feel that the time element ought to be cut down. And in cutting down this time element, possibly it will be a good way for many of these judges to get to work on these cases and will not necessitate additional fights before the House here is asking for additional judges in various counties throughout the Commonwealth.

However, I should say we in the Legislature should not hold the Judges as being remiss upon this matter of delay in handling cases in court, because here we are, Christmas time and still in session.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I am glad to know that the gentleman agrees with the thought behind the bill. However, having had some experience with the courts and how they operate and the business which they have to transact, if these amendments were adopted the whole purpose behind this bill would be completely lost because, in my opinion—and I think I know—the great percentage of courts in this state would not be able to meet the requirements of the bill as amended. They simply could not act upon the injunction proceeding and enter a final order and opinion within thirty days for which this bill provides. It is not unusual to give the courts ninety days to hear the issues involved in any kind of dispute, including labor disputes.

I, therefore, ask the House to vote down these amendments.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Sec. 1, page 3, line 3, by striking out "procedure" and inserting in lieu thereof "procedure".

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 4), page 4, line 2, by striking out "violation" and inserting in lieu thereof "violation".

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 4) page 4, line 10, by striking out "employes" and inserting in lieu thereof "employees".

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 4), page 5, line 3, by striking out "aggrieved" and inserting in lieu thereof "aggrieved".

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 16), page 7, line 2, by striking out "or" where it appears the second time and inserting in lieu thereof "of".

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 16), page 8, line 5, by inserting after the word "case" the following "involving or".

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? It there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 765, as follows:

An Act to further amend the act approved the fifth day of December one thousand nine hundred thirty-six (1937 P. L. 2897) entitled "An act establishing a system of unemployment compensation to be administered by the Department of Labor and Industry and its existing and newly created agencies with personnel (with certain exceptions) selected on a civil service basis requiring employers to keep records and make reports and certain employers to pay contributions based on payrolls to provide moneys for the payment of compensation to certain unemployed persons providing procedure and administrative details for the determination payment and collection of such contributions and the payment of such compensation providing for co-operation with the Federal Government and its agencies creating certain special funds in the custody of the State Treasurer and prescribing penalties" by changing the definition of wages as to the rights and obligations of employers and employees where a successor-in-interest has acquired assets of a predecessor

ALLEGHENY COUNTY JUDGES WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome to the House Judge Samuel Weiss, a former Member of the House and Judge Henry X. O'Brien, of the Allegheny County courts.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. MORAN and obtained unanimous consent to address House.

Mr. Speaker, it is very important that I call your attention to the fact we have a Milk Control Board here in Pennsylvania which at the present only has the name of being a Milk Control Board. They have ceased to operate for the benefit of the citizens as a whole.

I would like to make a brief statement and I want to quote from an article I have here from one of the newspapers which points out my views very adequately, that all the Milk Control Board members' terms have run out.

Since May of this year, the price of milk in Pennsylvania has been determined by a commission of three men whose terms of office have expired.

None of the State Milk Control Commission members has been reappointed by Governor Fine or confirmed by the 1951 session of the Senate.

One commission member, John K. Snyder of Camp Hill, has been serving without appointment by a governor or confirmation by a Senate for 10 years.

Another commissioner, Charles J. O'Loughlin of Beaver, saw his term expire last May.

The Chairman of the commission, H. N. Cobb of Towanda, has been serving without confirmation since 1949. He listed the commission's service without record with the comment "We're just hanging on."

In addition, Cobb says the members have not been given a salary increase passed by the 1949 Legislature, which should have boosted their annual salaries by $4000 apiece.

The law called for the chairman to receive $10,500 instead of $6500 and the commission members $10,000 instead of $6000. Cobb says they aren't receiving the larger amounts, but declined to tell the reporter just what the salary figures are.

Some technicality arose and we are not getting those amounts and that's all I care to say about it," Cobb added.

He said the Attorney General's office had held up the salary increases, granted in the 1949 Legislative session, "in some respect." "What it was I's not quite sure of right now," he added.

Attorney General Robert E. Woodside was unavailable for comment immediately on the situation.

Cobb hinted that they were still receiving the original amounts despite the law enabling them to receive more money.

One top lawyer for the milk industry interests, who declined quotation by name, said he "doubted if any legal action could be taken to have the commission's orders rescinded since their terms of office have expired."

The Governor, by not appointing someone else to take their place, has given them de facto (in fact) recognition," he added. "Of course a court might decide differently, but I don't think there will be a test case on it."

Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a resolution at this time.

RESOLUTION

Mr. MORAN offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for it to be read for the information of the House.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 17, 1951.

Whereas, The members of the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission are all hold-overs, the terms of office for which they were originally appointed having expired; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the offices of chairman and members of the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission are hereby declared to be vacant.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk.

INTERROGATION

Mr. SCHMIDT asked and obtained unanimous consent to interrogate Mr. Smith the Majority Leader.

Mr. Speaker, the House concurred in a conference report on House Bill No. 1698, Printer's No. 1116. There has been a question raised as to whether or not this bill would affect municipal or political subdivisions of the Commonwealth and authorities created by virtue of an act of Assembly.

I would like to inquire from the Majority Leader whether or not it was the Legislative intent that this bill should apply to the Commonwealth and to its political subdivisions or to authorities created by virtue of an act of Assembly.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I understand that a political subdivision in the Commonwealth is not affected by this bill and the intent has been not to tax them because they are a sovereign body in and of themselves. I think that may answer the gentleman's question.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, would that also extend to authorities created by virtue of acts of Assembly.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I will say that the intent is not to tax them either.

Mr. SCMDIT. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. MORAN (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 87.

In the House of Representatives, December 17, 1951.

Whereas, The members of the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission are all hold-overs, the terms of office for which they were originally appointed having expired; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the offices of chairman and members of the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission are hereby declared to be vacant.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATE

TUESDAY, December 18, 1951

The Senate met at 5:15 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

By Appointment of the PRESIDENT pro tempore:

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Fred P. Hare) in the Chair.

PRAYER

In the absence of the Chaplain, the gentleman from Berks, DOCTOR RUTH, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for the privilege of meeting again and ask that as the pure snow from Heaven covers many of the blemishes of earth, so the spirit of cooperation and clear thinking erases many of the mistakes of man.

We pray for guidance through Thy Holy Spirit that this spirit of cooperation and clear thinking may be ever with us, so that when the final appraisal is made of our work, Thou canst say, "It is well done." We ask it in Thy Holy Name, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDING OFFICER. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. WATSON, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

(b) The amendments or supplement to be framed by said commission shall be only such as may be necessary to transfer merge or distribute functions and duties heretofore performed by all former county officers in accordance with the purposes and intent of article fourteen section eight of the Constitution of Pennsylvania and shall provide for the manner of selection whether appointed or elected and if appointed by whom and for the terms if any of officers designated for the performance of such former county officers of Philadelphia or their offices shall not apply to the Board of Revision of Taxes and the Registration Commission of Philadelphia.

(c) The commission created under the provisions of this section shall organize hold meetings and carry out its functions in the same manner as the Philadelphia Charter Commission appointed under the provisions of the First Class City Home Rule Act

(d) The amendments or the supplement when prepared by the commission shall be submitted to the City Council which shall cause said proposals together with the form of the proper question or questions to be printed for distribution and shall provide for the submission of such proposed amendments or supplement to the qualified electors of the city for their approval or disapproval at a special election on a day fixed and designated by ordinance in the same manner as provided for in sections nine and ten of the First Class City Home Rule Act

(e) Any of said amendments or any such supplement to the charter which are approved by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon shall become the organic law of the city at such time as may be fixed therein

(f) All officers including those elected at the one thousand nine hundred fifty-one municipal election and replacing former county officers shall continue to perform their duties and be elected appointed compensated and organized in such manner as may be provided by the provisions of the Constitution and the laws of the Commonwealth until the provisions of the supplement or amendments to the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter authorized hereby become effective

(g) No amendments or changes shall be framed by the commission or submitted to the vote of the electors under the provisions of this section which shall be in conflict or inconsistent with other provisions of this act

Section 3 Former County employees who are transferred to any City department or other agency shall retain all rights to retirement with pension which shall have accrued or would thereafter accrue to them and their services shall be deemed to have been continuous as if the transfer had not been made

Section 4 (a) All petitions hearings and other proceedings pending before any former County officer board or commission and all prosecutions legal or other proceedings and investigations begun by any such officer board or commission and not completed at the time of the taking effect of any amendments or supplements to the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter adopted pursuant to this act shall continue and remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the adoption of such amendments or supplements and may be completed before or by the officer department board or commission which succeeds to the rights powers duties and obligations of such officer board or commission All questions arising under this section shall be determined by the City Solicitor

(b) All orders rules and regulations made by any former County officer board or commission shall remain in full force and effect until revoked or modified by the officer department board or commission succeeding to the rights powers duties and obligations of such former officer board or commission

(c) All existing contracts and obligations of the former County officers boards and commissions shall remain in full force and effect and shall be performed by the officers departments boards and commissions to which the rights powers duties and obligations of such former officers boards or commissions are transferred

(d) Whenever reports or notices were formerly required or given or papers or documents furnished or served by any person to or upon any former County officer board or commission or deputy assistant agent or other subordinate or employe thereof the same shall be made given furnished or served in the same manner to or upon the office department board or commission upon which are now conferred or imposed by any amendments or supplements to the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter adopted pursuant to this act the rights powers and duties formerly exercised or discharged by such officer board commission or deputy assistant agent or other subordinate or employe thereof and every penalty for failure to do so shall continue in effect

Section 5 All of the provisions of the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter not inconsistent with this act shall be applicable and in full force and effect

Section 6 The members of the Registration Commission and the Board of Revision of Taxes shall continue to be appointed and compensated as provided by law and they shall receive such compensation as they now receive The Registration Commission and the Board of Revision of Taxes shall continue to appoint such assistants and employes as provided by law

Section 7 It is the intention of the General Assembly that if this act cannot take effect in its entirety because of the judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction holding invalid any part or parts hereof the remaining provisions of this act shall be given full force and effect as if the part or parts held invalid had not been included herein

Section 8 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment except that all former County officers now in office shall be permitted to complete their terms and that any provisions hereof which cannot become effective until the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter becomes effective shall take effect on the first Monday of January on thousand nine hundred fifty-two The County officers elected at the 1951 municipal election shall assume office as officers of the City pursuant to the provisions of this act

Section 9 All acts and parts of acts general local and special inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

Section 401 of said act, as amended by the act, approved the twelfth day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-one (Pamphlet Laws 125), is hereby further amended to read as follows: Section 401. The term "employer", when used in this article, shall mean the employer as defined in article one of this act, or duly authorized agent, or his insurer if such insurer has assumed the employer's liability, or the State Workmen's Insurance Fund of this Commonwealth if the employer be insured therein. The department shall be deemed a "party in interest" in any proceeding under this article before a referee, the board or any court involving any claim for compensation, a part of which is payable by the Commonwealth under the provisions of this act. [The term "medical board" shall mean a medical board constituted as provided in section four hundred and two.] Section 4. Sections 402 and 420 of said act are hereby repealed. Section 5. Sections 421, 422 and 423 of said act are hereby amended to read as follows: Section 421. All hearings before the board or one or more members thereof [or before the medical board] or before a referee shall be public. Section 422. The board, its members and the referees, [and the medical board] shall not be bound by the technical rules of evidence in conducting hearings and investigations, but all findings of fact shall be based only upon sufficient competent evidence to justify them. If any party or witness resides outside of the Commonwealth, or through illness or other cause is unable to testify before the board, or a referee, [or the medical board] his or her testimony or deposition may be taken, within or without this Commonwealth, in such manner and in such form as the board may, by special order or general rule, prescribe. The records, kept by a hospital of the medical or surgical treatment given to an employee in such hospital shall be admissible as evidence of the medical and surgical matters stated therein, but shall not be conclusive proof of such matters. Section 423. Any party in interest may, within twenty days after notice of a referee's award or disallowance of compensation shall have been served upon him, take an appeal to the board on the ground (1) that the award or disallowance of compensation is not in conformity with the terms of this act, or that the referee committed any other error of law; (2) that the findings of fact and award or disallowance of compensation was unwarranted by sufficient, competent evidence, or was procured by fraud, coercion, or other improper conduct of any party in interest. The board may, upon cause shown, extend the time provided in this article for taking such appeal or for the filing of an answer or other pleading. In any such appeal the board may disregard the findings of fact of the referee and may examine the testimony taken before such referee, and if it deem proper may hear other evidence, and may substitute for the findings of the referee such findings of fact as the evidence taken before the referee and the board, as hereinbefore provided, may, in the judgment of the board, require, and may make such disallowance or award of compensation or other order as the facts so founded by it may require [but the board shall accept as conclusive upon it, the findings and conclusions of the medical board.]

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. KESSLER. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. BLASS. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Clerk will call the roll.

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred:)

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Wood.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Wood, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOOD. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, in order to place the information before the gentlemen of the Senate, as I understand it, the amendments now under consideration deal with the medical board only.

Mr. WOOD. That is correct, Mr. President, the amendments offered pertain to the elimination of the medical board.

Mr. WALKER. And that is the only thing the amendments do?

Mr. WOOD. That is my understanding, Mr. President.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. FESSLER and Mr. BLASS, and were as follows, viz:

The President pro tempore (M. Harvey Taylor) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Fred P. Hare) in the Chair.

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

CARE OF WORLD WAR II ROSTER IN CAPITOL ROTUNDA

In the Senate, December 12, 1951.

It is fitting that provision be made for the permanent care of the World War II roster, now displayed in the Capitol rotunda, in order that this record of war history may be properly preserved.

In as much as the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission by Act No. 340 of the 1949 Session of the General Assembly is empowered, in cooperation with the Department of Military Affairs to establish and maintain an extension museum of war history at Indiantown Gap, and in view of its other excellent facilities and experience in caring for historical records, it is proper that this Commonwealth agency be entrusted with the permanent care of this valuable war record; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the permanent care of World War II service roster now in the Capitol rotunda be entrusted and turned over to the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission for display and preservation in accordance with its powers and facilities.

HOUSE BILL FOR CONCURRENCE

He also presented for concurrence bills of the House, as follows:

House Bill No. 1731, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1198), entitled "Labor Anti-Injunction Act," providing further conditions upon the issuance of injunctions in labor disputes.

Which was committed to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

HOUSE ADOPTS REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1404

He also informed the Senate that the House has adopted the report of Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1404, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the tenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30) entitled "Public School Code of 1949," by providing for the addition to the tax duplicates of school districts of the third and fourth class, of properties occupied during the fiscal year of the school district, in certain cases.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Report of the Committee of Conference will appear on the Calendar.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. STEVENSON, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1718, entitled:

An Act to amend Section twenty-one of the Act approved the twentieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred nineteen (P. L. 521), entitled, as amended "Transfer Inheritance Tax Law," as amended by modifying the rates of commission which may be retained by registers of wills for their own use, for collection of inheritance taxes as agents of the Commonwealth.

He also, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as amended, House Bill No. 609, entitled:

An Act to further amend Sections 10 and 15 of the act, approved the sixteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-three (P. L. 207), entitled "Municipal Claim and Tax Lien Law," by providing that tax and municipal claims and the revivals thereof in counties of the second class must be signed by or have stamped thereon a facsimile signature of the county controller.

RECESS

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes, to permit a meeting the Committee on Law and Order.

Mr. DIEHM. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. WOLFE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WOLFE, from the Committee on Law and Order, reported as committed, House Bill No. 241, entitled:

An Act to amend section six hundred forty-six of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 872), entitled "The Penal Code," by increasing the age range of children prohibited admittance to moving picture theatres during school hours.

INTERROGATION

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I would like the privilege of interrogating the Majority Floor Leader.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, the House has concurred in the Conference Report on House Bill No. 1698, Printer's No. 1116. There has been a question raised as to whether or not this bill would affect municipal or political subdivisions of the Commonwealth and authorities created by virtue of the Act of the General Assembly.

I would like to inquire from the Majority Leader whether or not it was the legislative intent that this bill apply to the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions or to authorities created by virtue of the Act of the General Assembly.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, in answer to the gentleman from Allegheny, House Bill No. 1698 is the bill which imposes a State tax on certain documents and which has been referred to in the Senate as a real estate tax. I believe that is the bill to which the gentleman is referring.

Mr. President, from the understanding and knowledge that I have of the bill, I would say that the political subdivisions in the Commonwealth are not affected by the bill, and certainly the intent of the Legislature is not to tax them by this bill.

Mr. McGINNIS. Does that also extend to authorities created by Act of the Assembly?

Mr. WALKER. Well, Mr. President, I apologize to the gentleman from Allegheny for my somewhat curbstone opinion on that. I would say, yes, in my opinion it would. I feel very confident about the political subdivisions, Senator. I am backing up just a little on the authorities that are contained in the second part of your question, but I would say, yes, they would.

RECESS

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes, to permit a meeting of the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. KESSLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. BLASS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BLASS, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1658, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article eight, section eighteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by further providing for absentee voting by qualified war veterans.

SENATE BILL No. 871 CALLED UP

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I call up from the Third Reading Calendar Senate Bill No. 871, which went over in its order, temporarily. I call the bill up for consideration at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

All other acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, the bill now before the Senate for passage is the Congressional Reapportionment Bill.

The Consitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania makes it imperative for the General Assembly to reapportion the Congressional Districts following each decennial census by the Federal Government. In 1950, there was a Federal census, and following that census the Congress of the United States passed a Congressional Reapportionment directive under which Congressmen were assigned to the various forty-eight States of the Union. Under the terms of that bill it became necessary for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in reapportioning this State, to drop three Congressmen.

For the first time in the history of the Republic, a State is obliged to drop three Congressmen.

When the Legislature convened in January of 1951, realizing the necessity and the problem confronting the Members of the General Assembly, the President pro tempore of the Senate appointed an additional committee chairman, our very distinguished colleague from Lancaster, Senator Diehm, who kindly consented to act as Chairman of the Senate Committee on Reapportionment. We waited for quite some time for the official reapportionment figures, because we were advised, and probably rightly so, that we could not reapportion Pennsylvania until the official census figures had been placed at our disposal. Waiting for these figures was a long and sometimes boring task, and, during the interval, Senator Diehm worked out or tried to work out combinations of various counties and various districts. He was hoping that somewhere he would be able to find a key that would enable the State to be logically reapportioned and the people of Pennsylvania would have as fine a representation as it was possible for the General Assembly to give them.

Mr. President, I want to say at this time that I think the Members of the Senate owe Senator Diehm a sincere vote of appreciation for his very careful and his very sincere approach to this problem, and for the very long hours he has spent trying to work it out. Reapportionment is not an easy task, and reapportionment in the short time that he had to do the tremendous task that was thrust upon him was almost impossible. Everybody is in favor of reapportionment, providing his particular district is not touched, and everybody responded, I might say, in almost that way when reapportionment was first placed before us for action.

I think it was late in September that Senator Diehm finally received from the Federal Government the official census figures upon which definite action could be taken, and upon which the reapportionment could be predicated to meet the Congressional requirements.

Now, there is before us Senate Bill No. 871, which at this point represents the best thinking that the Senate of Pennsylvania can do on a very difficult subject. I view this bill, Mr. President, with a great deal of sadness in my heart. I am not enthusiastic about it, if I can put it that mildly. In 1945, I had the privilege of speaking on the floor of the Senate with regard to a Congressional Reapportionment Bill which just affected the county of Allegheny. At that time, in the county of Allegheny we had five Congressmen and all five of them were members of the Democratic Party. In 1945, when the bill was before us for action, I stood on the floor of this Senate and stated that if my bill were passed and we would reapportion Allegheny county, we would have two Republican Congressmen, two Democratic Congressmen and the fifth one would be a tossup. Well, Mr. President, I think that that was a true prophecy because we did have two Republican Congressmen, two Democratic Congressmen and the fifth one, which was the district that is represented by our good friend, Congressman James Fulton, is Republican. because of the terrific ability of Congresssman Fulton to campaign his district. He has that marvelous knack of being able to campaign twenty-four hours a day, three hundred sixty-five days out of the year, and for that reason that district has been Republican.

This bill reduces the number of Congressmen in Allegheny County from five to four. In trying to set up Allegheny County so that it would give the people of the county as honest and as intelligent a representation as it was possible, it was necessary to take those five big districts and cut them into four. Anybody coming from Allegheny County, Mr. President, was very reluctant to see this done. I do not think a representative of either political party wants to see Allegheny County lose a Congressman. We have been proud of Allegheny County in the last decade. We are proud of it because of the things that it has accomplished in the last few years, both from a civic standpoint, from an educational standpoint and from an industrial standpoint. We have read in nationally circulated newspapers newspapers, magazines and periodicals story after story showing that Allegheny County is on the march. I do not think there is a comparable geographic area anywhere in the United States of America that can show as much progress, as much civic pride and as much advancement in making any area a better place in which to live than the grand old "State of Allegheny." We are proud of the things that the people have done in Allegheny County, we are proud of our industries, we are proud of our labor unions and we are proud of the public officials back there. One of the finest things that has happened to the people of Allegheny County has been the very splendid cooperation between Federal, State, County and City officials in working out the best things for the most people in the shortest period of time. Regardless of political affiliation, there has been a grand, unselfish, high-minded spirit of cooperation that has made this county one of the outstanding counties in the United States.

We are proud of Allegheny County, too, Mr. President, because of the tremendous contribution that Allegheny County makes to the Republic. We are one of the largest taxpaying areas that the Federal Government has. We have more industry confined within the geographic boundary lines of that county that you will find anywhere else in the world, and that industry, Mr. President, is dependent a great deal upon very close, very active and very constant communication with the Federal Government at Washington. Because of the encroachment that the Federal Government has made and the restrictions that have been built around business and industry by the Federal Government, the five Congressmen from Allegheny County have worked constantly and unceasingly representing this great industrial empire in the Federal Halls of Congress and in the various bureaus of Federal Government in Washington.

Tonight, Mr. President, that work is going to be greatly increased because, instead of having five gentlemen representing this great industrial empire, there will be only four. There will be only four because of the thing that we must do in order to keep Congressmen from being elected at large. Mr. President, nobody in the General Assembly wants to elect Congressmen at large. We all know how foolish that would be if we were to shunt the responsibility that the Constitution has placed upon us. We are sorry that it has to be done in the dying days of this Session, and I say to the gentlemen of the Senate, it has not been because of any dereliction of duty on the part of any of the Members of the General Assembly. It has been unfortunate because of all of the trying things that have plagued us all year long, culminating in the fact that the census figures were impossible to obtain until such a late date.

Mr. President, personally I am grieved about this bill because my own Congressional District is affected. When it came time to reapportion Allegheny County, and they cut it into four, the gentleman who had charge of that, in my opinion, did as sincere a job as they could possibly do under the circumstances. Those of you who are familiar with the political history and the political background of Allegheny County will notice that in this bill, one Congressional District is overwhelmingly Republican, one Congressional District is Republican and the other two districts are overwhelmingly Democratic. The fifth Congressman, my own Congressman, Harmar Denny, who represents my home town, his district is joined with Congressman Eberharter's district. I think it is safe to surmise that when you take the first fifteen wards of the city of Pittsburgh and put them into a Congressional District, the brave men who accepts the Republican nomination in a district like that will get nothing but the exercise for his political endeavors.

Mr. President, I do not want to pass a reapportionment bill that puts Harmer Denny out of Congress. I do not want to pass a bill that put anybody out of Congress, but we find ourselves in this position tonight. We are running out of time which now is the most valuable asset we have in the General Assembly. We are trying desperately to adjourn sine die by the end of this week. If any group of men have earned the right to go home for Christmas, it is the two hundred fifty-eight men who have labored down here for twelve long months, trying to resolve the affairs of the Commonwealth during this trying period.

I wish it would be possible to have a reapportionment bill that did not drop any Congressmen. I wish we did not have to take one out of Allegheny County. We have tried all sorts of plans. We tried plans to put a piece of Allegheny County into Westmoreland County. That only upset more people than other plans which we tried. We tried putting a piece of into Washington County. We even experimented with taking Armstrong County and bringing it down into Allegheny County to see if we mould resolve the matter that way. No matter which way we turned, we always marched back to the lesser of the evils presented to us, which was to take Allegheny County, keep it within the geographical confines of the county itself and try to divide it into four Congressional districts and, with that division, be fair and decent and honest with the people of the county.

I feel confident that the men who had charge of the mechanical work in doing this were sincere in their endeavors to do the very thing that I have just described. In presenting this bill to the Senate, my personal feeling, of course, is one of sorrow because of the fact that my good friend, Harmar Denny, is practically eliminated from Congress. I know I am not alone in this. I know that a lot of folks in Allegheny County feel just as bad about it as I do.

If I might take the liberty and refer to a Congressional District which I think could be aptly described as "old twenty-three," I think the gentleman from Somerset, Senator Hare, who is presiding, is in the same sad predicament in which I find myself. Here is a bill which also eliminates his Congressman. I know that the gentleman from Somerset feels pretty bad about losing his Republican Congressman. We know how proud they are when they talk about the roof garden of Pennsylvania and God's footstool and that old quotation, "Take off your shoes because the ground upon which you stand is holy ground." We have always appreciated Somerset County. At least once a year when we get Somerset maple syrup, we appreciate it very much more. I know that the gentleman from Somerset is just as deeply grieved about losing that very fine Congressman of his as I am about losing Harmar Denny. I know that the gentleman from Somerset and Congressman Sitler are good friends. I know that they have been political associates through the years, and I know how sad it is going to be for him to turn his face westward when this Senate adjourns sine die and go back home and tell those folks in those counties on the southern border of this great Commonwealth that he had to stand idly by and, in spite of all of the things that we tried to work out, he had to sacrifice his Congressman for the good of the order.

Mr. President, I am going to vote for this bill and I am going to vote for it with an apology in my heart to Harmar Denny and to the Congressmen that are eliminated, whether they are in Allegheny County or whether they are in the Somerset district or in any other district which is affected by this bill. I am going to vote for it because I am convinced that even this plan would be better than electing Congressmen at large. Writers of political history tell us that those who occupy public office occasionally must make a slight sacrifice for the good of the order. If it is personal sacrifice, Mr. President, it is a lot easier to make than when you are sacrificing somebody else. It is with the hope that the people of Pennsylvania will accept this bill in the very sincere spirit in which it is presented. We appreciate that, perhaps, somewhere some one could take the sixty-seven counties of Pennsylvania, and divide them into thirty Congressional districts and, perhaps, do just a little better job than we have done here, but up to this point this is the best that we have been able to do with the tools that we have.

Now, I want to say to say to the Members of the Senate, there are probably one or two things in this bill that must be amended in the House. For example, in the county of Allegheny the third class city of Clairton is inadvertently omitted from the bill, and the Borough of Whitehall is also by error omitted from the bill. These mechanical deviations from perfection must be remedied in the House. Now, some may think, "Well, let's fix them here so that we can turn a perfect bill over to the House." I might say to the Senate that the reason we are turning these mechanical defects over to the House for correction is because of the time element. If we can send this bill over to the House tonight, it can be reported out of committee tomorrow with these mechanical amendments in it, and be before the House for its consideration. I know that the Members of the House are anxious to also adorn sine die. Mr. President, that sums up, as far as I can see it, the problem that is confronting us in this bill.

Again, I say, the million and one-half people in Allegheny County are very sorry to lose a Congressman. Regardless of political persuasion, most of them are sorry to lose Harmar Denny, a veteran of two world wars, a scholar and a gentleman, a distinguished member of the Allegheny County Bar, a past Director of Public Safety of the city of Pittsburgh, a man who has contributed much through all these years to the civic improvement of the City, and County, the Commonwealth and the Nation; a man who has a great political background which goes back through the years to the founding of the city of Pittsburgh, because, if memory serves me rightly, Harmar Denny's ancestor was the first Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh. I know that the present Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh, who is with us this evening, certainly appreciates and certainly reacts the same as I do as to the necessity for doing the thing that this bill does.

Mr. LEADER. Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 871 creates a very ironical situation for the people in York County. Some years ago York and Adams Counties were joined with Cumberland County to form a Congressional District. At that time Cumberland County was not so strongly Republican and Adams County was known to go Democratic occasionally. As a result of that, the district tended to be rather consistently Democratic in Congressional elections. This not being entirely satisfactory to some of the powers which existed at that time, York and Adams Counties were detached from Cumberland County and joined with Franklin County in establishing a new Congressional District. This district tended to be a good safe district for quite a time, but as a result of shifts in registration, the district came closer and closer and began to swing back and forth, and occasionally we did have a Democratic Congressman.

Now, Mr. President, in recent years, particularly due to the housing shortage, I believe in Dauphin County, quite a number of State employees have settled in Cumberland County and it has become quite a Republican stronghold. As a result of that, I suppose we are going back to the old plan of Congressional Districting for our area, and we are joining together again Cumberland, York and Adams Counties.

We have small districts in Pennsylvania, Mr. President, we have areas which have not increased in population, in fact, some of them have shown a substantial decrease. York, Adams and Franklin Counties are in that category. We have had a good healthy growth, and I might say, as the gentleman from Allegheny has said of his county, we have a fine industrial community and it has had a very splendid growth over the last ten year period. We are only slightly under the norm for a Congressional District under the new plan. The combined counties have a population of approximately 323,000. We do not believe that we should be penalized because some districts have not grown or, perhaps, were too small to begin with when they were originally created into Congressional Districts, and we do not believe that we should be penalized so that these districts can continue without change or with varying insignificant changes.

A few weeks ago, Mr. President, I introduced a bill on Congressional Reapportionment for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, based on a study made by the League of Women Voters. The Senate of Pennsylvania, or at least a member of the Committee on Reapportionment, was not interested in a good bill, or a fair bill or a just bill. A bill had to be worked out to please individual Senators, their likes and dislikes, and their personal prejudices. Some of these personal feelings apparently required that Cumberland County should be detached from Dauphin and Lebanon. That was another reason for changing two Congressional Districts which did not figure directly in the elimination of three Congressional seats in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We of York County do not like these constant changes in our district, and we do not believe the people of Cumberland County like this constant shifting around. As an expression of my protest against these shifts, I will be compelled to vote against this bill.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I listened to the splendid oration which was delivered by our distinguished Majority Leader, and I say to you the county of Allegheny should be proud of a man of his stature.

Mr. President, I might also say that here in Pennsylvania there was a reapportionment outside of Allegheny County. It so happens that my own Congressional District is also affected by this legislation. Prior to the compilation of this act, the old 24th Congressional District consisted of Washington and Green Counties, but, lo and behold, we are now forced to take a part of the Presiding Officer's district. We now have Washington, Greene and Fayette Counties; Washington County with a population of 209,000, Fayette County with a population of 189,000 and Greene County with a population of 45,000, which gives us a total population in our new Congressional District of approximately 443,000.

Mr. President, I say to you that, I, for one, am not objecting. I talked with our distinguished Congressman, Doctor Thomas E. Morgan, today over the telephone, and he said if our taking Fayette County would help out and help to settle this; muddle he was willing to do so, but I do want to point out this fact, that over in western Pennsylvania, west of the Alleghenies, in the great county of Washington and in the great county of Greene, which I think are two great counties, we are saddled with a terrifically large Congressional District. I, too, feel sorry that we have to eliminate three Congressmen; whether they be Republicans or whether they be Democrats, they are still elected public officials.

Mr. President, I do want to call to the attention of the people of Pennsylvania that in this reapportionment not only Allegheny County is reapportioned, and also Philadelphia, and also the rural areas, the so-called country areas, and now we have this large district, and I feel sorry for our Congressman. He is going to be like that distinguished Congressman in Allegheny County, he is going to have to work his Congressional District in order to cover it, in all probability, three hundred sixty-five days a year.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, these speeches tonight remind me of the poem, "Casey at the Bat." "There'll be no joy in Mudville tonight," but there will be in the State of California, where they picked up our three Congressmen.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, December 18, 1951

The House met at 11:00 a. m.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend William Hugh Fryer, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, who hast filled the world with beauty; Open, we beseech Thee our eyes to behold Thy gracious hand in all Thy works; that rejoicing in Thy whole creation, we may learn to serve Thee with gladness. Drive far from us all wrong desires, incline our hearts to keep Thy law, and guide our feet into the way of peace; that having done Thy will with cheerfulness while it is day, we may, when it is night, rejoice to give Thee thanks; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. Are there any corrections to the Journal of Monday, December 17, 1951? If not, and without objection, the Journal is approved.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, these days when we are approaching the end of the session, I think everything we can do to facilitate action should be done.

When we meet in caucus, Democratic Caucus, there are always some of our Members who through curiosity, or a sense of statesmanship, or a devotion to their duty, rise and ask what this bill does.

Of course, that is a great strain on the mentality of the Caucus Chairman or the Floor Leader, particularly if they do not have any idea what the bill does themselves. So I am suggesting as we take up the second reading calendar, and I am particularly making the suggestion to the members of the minority group in the House, that as we take up these second reading bills, if they have any questions as to what the bill does, let them rise and interrogate—well, interrogate the Majority Leader, who sees all, knows all and is generally effective. If he cannot tell them what the bill does, he probably has second and third rate assistants who will come to his rescue. I am not suggesting that the bills be made a matter of controversy at the second reading stage, but that they ask what the bill does if they have any questions in their minds.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 877, entitled:

An Act fixing the fees and mileage of the coroner in counties of the fourth class

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I have tried to read Senate Bill 877. I wonder if anyone who represents fourth class county in this House can tell us anything about it?

Mr. VAN SANT. Mr. Speaker, under a recent bill passed here in the Legislature and signed by the Governor, the salary increase bill raises the salary of the coroners in the counties of Pennsylvania.

It has been the situation in Lehigh County, and undoubtedly in other fourth class counties whereby the fees do not cover the amount of money needed to pay the coroner his annual salary. This would increase the fees in order to at least bring the total amount of money to the amount paid the coroner, an increase in fees to compensate for the increase in salary as voted by the Legislature of Pennsylvania.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman who just explained this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Van Sant permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. VAN SANT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. The gentleman said that the fees did not yield enough to pay the mandated salary of the coroner. Who pays the fees? In the case of a dead body, who pays the fee?

Mr. VAN SANT. As I understand it, the fees are paid by the people represented.

Mr. ANDREWS. Are any of these paid by the county?

Mr. VAN SANT. Some of them are, yes.

Mr. ANDREWS. In that event you are just taking money out of one pocket and putting it in the other. Would you not?

Mr. VAN SANT. Mr. Andrews, in the case of a murder it is the estate of the man that did the killing that would pay the fee.

Mr. ANDREWS. Very frequently the man that did the killing is never found; they are looking for him yet, and in other cases they do not have any estate.

Mr. VAN SANT. Well then, in the jargon of the service it is TS, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I wish to interrogate the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Van Sant.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Van Sant, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. VAN SANT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Is the coroner's office one of those offices which must necessarily earn enough in fees before coroners are paid their salary?

Mr. VAN SANT. It is a fee office, sir.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Fee office. Then the county is not permitted to pay the salary unless the fees taken in by the office are sufficient to cover the salary, is that correct?

Mr. VAN SANT. That is correct, sir.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Would not this then be a matter largely of bookkeeping?

Mr. VAN SANT. That may be true, sir.

Mr. LOPRESTI. In other words, to build enough credit in the coroner's office so that he can receive his salary, otherwise he would not get the salary increase.

Mr. VAN SANT. That is correct. If he falls short on the fees for the year, in other words he would fall short of the salary that has been voted him by the Legislature.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second section and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 881, entitled:

An Act to further amend section two of the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 1172) entitled "An act establishing certain streets in boroughs and incorporated towns as State highways and providing for their construction and maintenance at the expense of the Commonwealth" by adding a new route in Bucks County

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 882, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 594) entitled "An act establishing certain township roads as State highways authorizing their construction maintenance and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways and local authorities persons associations and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act" by adding a new route in Bucks County

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 899, entitled:

An Act to add Section 516.1 to the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" by authorizing attendance of school directors at meetings of educational or financial advantages to the district and providing for the payment of their expenses

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

L. 533) entitled "An act relating to mental health including mental illness mental defect epilepsy and inebriety and amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" by further providing for refusal to issue and revocation of licenses

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. GUARNIERI. I would like to have some information as to the nature of the contents of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman from Centre, Mr. Frost, Chairman of the Committee of Public Health and Sanitation, familiar with the provisions of Senate Bill 937, Printer's No. 694?

Mr. FROST. Mr. Speaker, for the information of the gentleman, I do not know too much about it, I have not read over the bill, but possibly I can answer his question; I will try to do so.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I have no question on the bill. I just want to know what the nature of the bill is, what does it do; it is an amendment, I see. What is the nature of the bill?

Mr. FROST. Mr. Speaker, as I understand the bill, it is to clarify the procedure in revoking licenses of certain private institutions, I believe, mental institutions. I might say that the bill was requested by the Attorney General's office.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I might inform the gentleman from Philadelphia in a general way concerning the purpose of the bill.

In one of its provisions it would provide that applicants for license must be notified of the decision of the department if the latter decides to refuse the license. The existing provision for appeal from department decisions to revoke licenses under the terms of the administrative agency would be supplemented by a provision for an appeal to the Dauphin County Court. The jurisdiction of the later would be limited to the consideration of whether or not the department abused its discretion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second section and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1731, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1198) entitled "An act relating to employes and organizations thereof defining labor disputes prescribing the procedure by which and the conditions under which injunctions may be granted in such disputes and the scope thereof declaring certain undertakings and promises between employers and employes contrary to public policy and void prescribing the nature of proof necessary in actions arising out of labor disputes against persons or associations prescribing the terms and conditions for bonds to be furnished prior to the issuance of injunctions prescribing the procedure in case of appeal from granting injunctions limiting the duration of temporary and permanent injunctions in case of labor disputes and providing for the payment of costs and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith" providing further conditions upon the issuance of injunctions in labor disputes

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, even though the amendments we offered to this measure yesterday failed to receive a majority vote, we want to go along with it, because we believe it slightly corrects an injustice as it is now upon the statute books.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I want to state that I do not agree with my colleague. I cannot support this bill.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I wish to interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Petrosky.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Petrosky, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PETROSKY. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Petrosky, would the gentleman explain to the membership generally, and especially to the membership on this side, in what manner or what way the amendments proposed to this bill correct an injustice as has been indicated.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, under the present act that we are operating under, temporary injunctions and temporary restraining orders, there is no time limit set up when the order must be handed down by the Court. In some instances a temporary restraining order, to a temporary injunction has been held over in the Courts for as long as a year and a half or two years.

This bill remedies that partly by terminating the proceedings by a given date as provided in the bill.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Petrosky, I understand that in the present law without this amendment, there is a limitation of ten days, under Section 16 of the present act. I understand that the temporary restraining order would expire at the end of ten days unless the plaintiff or the party who asked for the restraining order is ready to proceed, and thereafter would be automatically dissolved.

Mr. PETROSKY. That is not true. I would ask the gentleman to wait until I procure a copy of the bill in order to answer his question.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, may we have this bill passed over temporarily while we have a conference?

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, have objection?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, no objections. I am a dove of peace with wide wings and I would like to take the entire House beneath their shelter.

Mr. PETROSKY. That is evidently attributable to the Christmas season, Mr. Speaker.

BILLS PASSED OVER

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections, this bill will be passed over temporarily. The Chair hears none, and the bill is passed over.

There being no objection

was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of Senate Bill No. 793, as follows:

An Act to validate and quiet the title to real estate in this Commonwealth held by a foreign corporation not authorized to transact business in Pennsylvania and heretofore conveyed to a citizen or citizens of the United States or a corporation authorized to hold such real estate

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The title to any real estate situate in this Commonwealth which may have been held prior to the first day of January one thousand nine hundred fifty-one by any foreign corporation not authorized under the laws of Pennsylvania to transact business in Pennsylvania the title to which real estate has been heretofore conveyed by such foreign corporation to any citizen or citizens of the United States or to any corporation incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth or of any other state or commonwealth in the United States and authorized to hold such real estate is hereby declared to be good and valid and free and clear of any right of escheat by the Commonwealth and such citizen citizens or corporation grantees as aforesaid and his their or its respective heirs successors and assigns shall hold and may convey such title and estate indefeasible as to any right of escheat which the Commonwealth might otherwise have by reason of said unauthorized holding and conveyance by such foreign corporation and all such conveyances heretofore made are hereby ratified and confirmed

Section 2 All acts and partsofacts are hereby repealed in so fare as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this act

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 617, Printer's No. 1121

was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 319, as follows:

An Act to further amend Section 1 of the act approved the seventeenth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 507) entitled "An act to provide revenue for State and county purposes and in cities coextensive with counties for city and county purposes imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property providing for the assessment and collection of the same providing for the duties and compensation of prothonotaries and recorders in connection therewith and modifying existing legislation which provided for raising revenue for State purposes" by providing for the method of valuation of taxable shares of stock in any regulated investment company

Section 1 Section one of the act approved the seventeenth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 507) entitled "An act to provide revenue for State and county purposes and in cities coextensive with counties for city and county purposes imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property providing for the assessment and collection of the same providing for the duties and compensation of prothonotaries and recorders in connection therewith and modifying existing legislation which provided for raising revenue for State purposes" as last amended by the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1008) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Amend Sec. 1, page 3, lines 12 by inserting after the word "workmen" the following: "employed on or above the seventh floor."

Amend Sec. 1, page 3, line 14 by inserting after the word "temporary" the following "or permanent."

Amend Sec. 4, page 4, line 9 by striking out the word "may" and inserting in lieu thereof "shall."

Amend the bill, page 5, line 14 by inserting after the word "Section" the following: "6. Effective Date."

Amend the bill, page 5, line 15 by striking out the words "immediately upon final enactment" and inserting in lieu thereof "ninety (90) days after the date of its final enactment and shall apply only to new construction or any additions begun thereafter."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. PENGLASE. Mr. Speaker, the amendments just offered by Mr. Hamilton, from Philadelphia, were amendments that were agreed upon in a conference this morning between all Members concerned in this bill. I would like to call attention to the fact that we are agreed on the amendments and we would ask you to vote for them.

Mr. WILBUR H. HAMILTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to thank the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Penglase, and simply add that everybody is supremely happy during the Christmas season.

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. TOOMEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill 1308, Printer's No. 1138, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections two and seven of the act approved the fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 886) entitled "An act creating a Municipal Employees' Retirement System for the payment of retirement allowances to officers and employees of political subdivisions and institutions supported and maintained by them and providing for the administration of the same by a board composed of certain state officers and others appointed by the Governor imposing certain duties on the State Employees' Retirement Board and the actuary thereof providing the procedure whereby political subdivisions may join such system and imposing certain liabilities and obligations on such political subdivisions in connection therewith and as to certain existing retirement and pension systems and upon officers and employees of such political subdivisions and institutions supported and maintained by them providing certain exemptions from taxation execution attachment levy and sale and making an appropriation" by further defining the term "municipality" to include joint-county departments of health by defining the term "joint-county health commission" and by providing that joint-county departments of health may join the retirement system.

was ordered transcribed for third reading, be reconsidered.

Mr. HAROLD G. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Perry vote on ordering to transcribe the bill for third reading?

Mr. TOOMEY. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Blair Mr. Miller vote?

Mr. HAROLD G. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. TOOMEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the title and the various sections were agreed to be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. TOOMEY offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 2), page 5, line 12, by inserting after the word "classification" the following: "unless the municipality has elected to limit to ten years the period of such service."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 2), page 5, by inserting between lines 12 and 13, the following: "Prior Salary." the annual salary or compensation earned by a municipal employe and paid by the municipality during the year immediately preceding the date the municipality by which he is employed joined the retirement system established by this act. In computing prior salary, if the amount thereof shall exceed four thousand dollars ($4,000) it shall for the purpose of this act, be limited to four thousand dollars ($4,000)."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 2), page 5, line 13, by striking out the word "sixty" and inserting in lieu thereof: "sixty-five."

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The second section was read.

On the question,

An Act requiring approval of the interested electorate to initiate housing projects by housing authorities in certain political subdivisions

The first section was read and agreed to.

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. EWING offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 2, page 3, lines 3 and 4, by striking out the words "immediately upon final enactment" and inserting in lieu thereof: "on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred fifty-three."

It was agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The title was read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1742, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the first day of June one thousand eight hundred eighty-nine (P. L. 420) entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act to provide revenue by taxation' approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine" by providing for a State tax on gross premiums premium deposits and assessments received from insurance business transacted within this Commonwealth

The first section was read and agreed to.

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. STIMMEL offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 24), page 2, line 14, by inserting after the word "monthly" the following: "quarterly, semi-annual or annual."

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The third section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. LOVETT offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 3, page 5, line 2, by striking out the words "fifty-one" and inserting in lieu thereof: "fifty-two."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker the amendments that I have just offered change the effective date of the act. I say to you, "Let's be fair!"

I have been a Member of this House for 20 years and I have never known a time that we have passed a bill in the dying hours of the year and made it effective the first of that year. So, I say to you as Members of the Assembly, this is one amendment in which you should be fair. Make this effective January 1, 1952, and you will be fair in your decisions.

I ask you to support this amendment.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I would ask that the House vote down these proposed amendments. I cannot say that I disagree with the gentleman too much in his thinking, but we have estimated this bill to bring in so much money. It has been estimated since the beginning of the year. We need the money. We must have the money. We are making it a temporary tax for the insurance companies, and I would ask, for those reasons, that we vote these amendments down.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, it was fairly early in the session—not so late as it is now—that the House declared its mandate as far as taxing the sources of revenue which are covered in this bill.

When this particular bill was before the House, I voted against it. However, as I pointed out, the House has declared its intention of attacking this particular source of revenue—the source embodied in this bill. The sources of revenue which the House in its wisdom decided to attack were sources of revenue which had been taking a free ride in the state for a great many years; sources of revenue which in times of financial stress, so far as the affairs of the Commonwealth are concerned, can justly and properly be called upon to make their equitable contribution to the support of the activities from which the people of this Commonwealth benefit.

I am, therefore, opposing the amendments offered by the gentleman from Westmoreland.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the Majority Leader?

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SMITH. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman if this particular bill was in the first package or the second package? I am a little confused in the packages which we have had in this session of the Legislature.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I can answer the gentleman by saying this was in the second package. The first was not a package, really.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman please tell this House at what date the second package was presented in this General Assembly?

Mr. SMITH. If I may approximate, I would say about four months ago, five months ago. I could definitely tell the gentleman if he would like me to look up the history.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like the exact date on which we passed the original bill in the House of Representatives.

Mr. SMITH. Would the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, happen to have the number of the bill so I could look it up?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I am sorry I cannot furnish that information.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman has patience, I will search for it.

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Stimmel, rise?

Mr. STIMMEL. Mr. Speaker, I can furnish that information, sir.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Stimmel.

Mr. STIMMEL. Mr. Speaker, the original bill was 1694 and passed finally September 19th by a vote of 114 to 74.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, December 19th? Is that correct?

Mr. STIMMEL. Mr. Speaker, September 19th.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, of course, that was not too early in the session of the Legislature that we decided to tax these insurance companies. That was pretty late in the year, and the least we could do at that particular time, if we had made up our minds to tax these particular insurance companies was to be decent enough to allow the people we are expecting to pay the tax an opportunity to get their house in order to pay that particular tax.

I, therefore, do not think that Mr. Andrews' statement was correct when he said that this House had indicated "fairly early" in the session that they had intended taxing the insurance companies. I still insist if you want to be fair, you should vote for these amendments.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, could I submit the gentleman from Westmoreland's name as No. 1 Monday morning quarterback of the House.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. STIMMEL offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 3, page 5, lines 2 and 3, by striking out "subsequent years" and inserting in lieu thereof: "the calendar year one thousand nine hundred fifty-two."

They were agreed to.

The title was read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, to be transcribed for third reading.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 27, Printer's No. 672, entitled:

An Act relating to the loyalty to the United States and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of public officers and employes including teachers and other employes of the public school system and officers and employes of state-aided institutions of learning requiring statements and oaths or affirmations by applicants for public office or employment and by present appointed officers and employes prohibiting appointment or employment and requiring discharges after hearing in certain cases imposing conditions on the payment of appropriations to state-aided institutions of learning requiring statements under oath or affirmation of candidates for elective public offices and imposing duties on state and local appointing authorities and certain other state officers passed third reading, be reconsidered.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Delaware Mr. Robertson vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Readinger vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Amend Sec. 18, page 33, line 11, by striking out the figure "18" and inserting in lieu thereof "17."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say offhand for the purpose of telling everyone within hearing of my voice that these amendments are co-sponsored. They are non-political amendments, and they have both Mr. Readinger's signature on them and mine. The attempt was to make this a non-political issue—to come up with a proper bill.

At this time I would like to yield to the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to make some very brief comments on the amendments proposed by Mr. Robertson and me by way of explanation, and then to comment very briefly on what has been attempted by the committee appointed the other day to work out a series of amendments to this bill which might be acceptable to the Members of the House.

I might say that all the members of that committee of six labored long and hard in an honest effort to reach a meeting of minds, and as a result of the time and work we spent on it, we now propose these amendments, which we are going to ask you to accept and put into this bill.

To be as brief as possible, these amendments leave the definitions of organization, subversive organization and subversive person just as they were written in the bill you looked at last week.

At that time, September 11th, when we last voted on amendments certain matters were included in the bill which some of us did not think properly belonged there. One of those points of difference was the matter of a questionnaire to be prepared by the Attorney General of the state of Pennsylvania for use by all appointing authorities in determining whether an applicant for a job in whatever capacity was or was not a subversive person.

These amendments eliminate completely that questionnaire and provide instead that every appointing authority shall establish by rules, regulations or otherwise, procedures designed to ascertain, before any person, including teachers and other employes of the public school system, is appointed or employed, that he is not a subversive person. That is left to the local appointing authorities.

The oath as it appeared before you in the last bill on which you voted has not been changed in any respect at all. It is still exactly the same as it was.

There was a difference between some of us as to whether or not the hearing procedures and the appeal procedures to protect the employes should be spelled out in this bill or should be retained by keeping intact the Act of 1937, which set up the appeal procedures for civil service appointees, non-civil service appointees and school teachers. In these amendments you will find spelled out in the bill the entire procedure by which a person may be charged with being subversive, may be heard, may be given the right to appeal, either to the Civil Service Commission of the state or to the Superintendent of Public Instruction and then to the courts.

That matter was not one of great importance, but it was just a difference of opinion as to how this thing should be approached.

It has been written into this bill by these amendments that in the hearing before the Civil Service Commission or a hearing before the School Board proof should be given against the person charged, which by a fair preponderance leads the appointing authority to the conclusion that the person is a subversive person. For your information, there is no "reasonable doubt" left in this bill concerning the dismissal of any employe.

Section 8 of the old bill relating to status for the refusal of employment to new applicants has been retained in part. In other words, several matters which bear on the question of a person being subversive or not are still to be considered by the local appointing authority. The section in the old bill which related to whether or not a person was acting in such a manner as to serve the interests of a foreign government instead of United States or the state of Pennsylvania has been stricken out, and that has been stricken out for the reason that it is too hard to determine, it is too vague, it is too hard to determine the question sometimes of whether a person has been working for the interests of a foreign government in preference to the United States. I think you will probably appreciate the difficulties that any appointing authority would have in making a determination of such a matter.

I would like to point out to you that these amendments give to a non-civil service employe an appeal which he does not have, if he is charged with being a subversive person.

Under our present law he could be dismissed without any cause and under this bill he can also. But if the appointing authority decides to charge him with being subversive, and gives that as the reason for dismissing the non-civil service employe he will have a right of appeal to the civil service commission. I say he does not under the present law have that.

It is spelled out in the bill that teachers are first entitled to a hearing before their school boards. If those boards have three or more persons on, it takes a two-thirds vote of those boards to dismiss him. He then has the right to appeal to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and that appeal will be on the record established before the school board. From there he can appeal to the Court of Common Pleas. If he chooses and asks for it he may have an appeal de novo, exactly as the teachers' tenure act now provides.

The section relating to reports by state-aided institutions of learning making a report to the Governor is still retained in the bill. Those reports are to be made only before the first day of September of each year, and appropriations may be withheld if those reports are not so made.

Candidates for elective office are still required to sign a statement under oath that they are not a subversive person in order to have their names placed on the ballot for election.

The bill now provides that the Act of 1941 which related to all employes who might be found guilty of un-American subversive doctrines is repealed. Also the amendment to the teachers' tenure act which gave as a reason for dismissal un-American and subversive activities and doctrines has also been repealed. They have been repealed by these amendments, because the whole hearing and appeal procedure is now spelled out in detail and in full in the amendments to this bill.

I may not have covered every minute detail of the changes being made by these amendments, but substantially those are the only changes that have much meaning.

After the defeat of the amendments that I proposed to this bill on December 11, I received many telegrams and many letters from people who are interested in this legislation asking me and begging me practically not to agree to any compromise whatsoever of my amendments.

For the benefit of others here who might think that compromise is wrong in this instance let me say that there have been some compromises. There have been compromises on the part of those who saw fit to adopt the Tompkins amendments. There have been compromises on the part of those who preferred my amendments.

I do not think either side has by its compromises or its giving in at any point done anything to make this bill a bill which has no meaning. I feel as I did a week ago, that a loyalty oath can be of some assistance in the matter of seeking good employes and getting rid of bad employes in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

There are those who differ and say that it will have absolutely no effect one way or the other. But I say that this committee which worked on these amendments did give and did take, but that the net result of our labors has been to evolve a bill which in my opinion at least is not capable of injuring or hurting people who should not be hurt. It is capable of instilling into the people of Pennsylvania who work for the State or its municipalities, political subdivisions, or who will in the future, a greater sense of loyalty. When they sign these oaths I presume they will be read and understood, and if the only good that comes from this bill is a psychological effect to give people a stronger determination to be loyal to their government, and to see to it that nobody with whom they work is disloyal, then we will have accomplished something.

I appreciate very much the spirit of cooperation with which the Members on the other side have worked with me in trying to accomplish this result. I hope that you too will feel that it is a desired result and that when the time comes to vote on these amendments you will see fit to do so.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, one or two short statements in regard to this bill so that everyone will have its mind cleared up.

This bill, if these amendments are accepted, still is a loyalty oath bill; there is no question about that. The requirements and the penalties under the act still remain the same. Any person who is a subversive person as defined under the act—and if you have taken the time to read that definition, you will note that that definition is wide,—they are still under the penalties of a perjury charge. In addition to that, we have gone further in the hearings and given the right to both the person charged and the administrative board to bring in by right of subpoena any witnesses, records, or books to prove or disprove the case.

I believe that this committee has come up with a thorough bill. It has come up with a bill that will answer the purpose absolutely and it will take care of those who are owing their allegiance not to the United States or to this Commonwealth,—take them out of the school system and take them out of the state employment, and we will have a more loyal group who are receiving the money which this legislature has spent.

I ask that these amendments be supported.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. Speaker, this seems to be kind of a harmony proposition, and I do not like to enter into it.

To make my position clear in the matter, I wish to state to the Members of the House, that I was not a party to any agreement in these amendments.

I am for a loyalty bill and a strong loyalty bill. In regard to the amendments that were turned down that were offered by Mr. Readinger from Reading, those amendments were defeated.

Mr. Tompkins' amendments, that I offered, were accepted. This committee saw some action, that is true.

Nor do I want to disagree with what the committee members did when they met. I was not party to it.

Therefore, I am willing to leave the House vote and either accept or turn down the amendments as offered by Mr. Readinger and Mr. Robertson.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Readinger has reviewed in full the amendments which are proposed and offered here. What he has said is correct so far as the changes the amendments will make in the bill are concerned.

I was a member of that committee and worked with that committee in connection with these amendments. These amendments, some of them, were within an area that I could agree to, others were beyond it. I therefore find myself in the same position as Mr. Watkins; that your acceptance or rejection of these amendments will rest entirely upon each individual Member.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. Speaker, I too was a member of the group that worked on trying to compromise and find a common basis, and I find myself in somewhat the same position as Mr. Watkins and Mr. Tompkins; with the difference that the areas in which we did not agree with the committee report were not the same. However, I would like to urge all Members to vote for these amendments. I believe the committee did do a good job and perhaps did as much as you can ever do with a position that must be compromised.

I will support the amendments and hope everybody will, but I agree with the gentlemen that I do not think the resultant bill will be the sort of bill we should pass.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I was a member of the committee. I did not do any work. I did not furnish any of the brainpower that accomplished what I think is a fine result. All I did was when they disagreed and parted and went in various directions I sallied forth in one direction and grabbed one of them and sallied forth in another direction and grabbed another one of them and said "Here, you fellows, try it again."

And so they kept on trying, and so we got as nearly as it is possible to get a meeting of minds and a fair, square, middle ground that will not force an irreconcilable battle on the floor of this House. I think this bill comes as near hitting the middle ground that must always represent statesmanship, because statesmanship realizes the necessity of facing facts, and when you have a great many people of different minds you have to reach one conclusion. The only way you can reach one conclusion is to compromise, and I think they have reached a very admirable compromise.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 617 entitled:

An Act to add Section 2.1 to Article XIV of the act approved the seventh day of March one thousand nine hundred one (P. L. 20) entitled "An act for the government of cities of the second class" by providing for minority party representation in council.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Cities and County—Second Class for the purpose of further study and amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I am not asking that the bill go back to committee for further study. I am asking that the bill go back to committee to die; that it be properly interred in correct parliamentary fashion. I consider it bad legislation.

It is all right to have a minority representation upon appointed commissions, upon bodies that are not elected directly by the people. I never approved of minority representation in the counties, in the county commissioner system. I think it is bad legislation in this bill. It is a bill that will encounter strenuous opposition at this time. I could very much regret to have a situation arise that would compel me, tired as I am, weary as I am; tired as you are, weary as you are, to go to battle in strenuous fashion about this bill, and I hope that you will save my declining strength and let me waddle through to the end of the session without having to go to battle on this bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. KENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up House Bill No. 1731 for immediate consideration.

Agreeably to order

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1731, as follows:

SENATE MESSAGE

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, December 12, 1951.

It is fitting that provision be made for the permanent care of the World War II roster, now displayed in the capitol rotunda, in order that this record of war history may be properly preserved.

In as much as the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission by Act No. 340 of the 1949 Session of the General Assembly is empowered, in cooperation with the Department of Military Affairs to establish and maintain an extension museum of war history at Indiantown Gap, and in view of its other excellent facilities and experience in caring for historical records, it is proper that this Commonwealth agency be entrusted with the permanent care of this valuable war record: now therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That the permanent care of World War II service roster now in the Capitol rotunda be entrusted and turned over to the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission for display and preservation in accordance with its powers and facilities.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

RESOLUTION

CONDOLENCE

Messrs. HELM and SMITH offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 18, 1951.

On December 17, 1951, John A. Johnson, the father of the Honorable Albert W. Johnson, passed away at his home in Smethport. Born in 1865, he had lived beyond the span of three score and ten, yet his death leaves a void in his family group and his wide circle of friends.

After marrying Edla Ostrom in 1897, he came with her to America shortly after the turn of the century and here they built their life, one in which the family—there were nine children, seven of whom are still living—was the cornerstone.

Mr. Johnson took his place in the economic life of this country as a construction foreman for the P. S. & N. Railroad Company. After many years of faithful service, he was able to retire and more fully enjoy his family associations.

Although his life was full and rewarding, yet his passing does not fail to bring with it sorrow to his family and friends; now therefore be it

Resolved, (by the House of Representatives), That we hereby extend to the Honorable Albert W. Johnson and the members of his family our deepest sympathy in their hour of bereavement; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the Honorable Albert W. Johnson.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted.

CONDOLENCE

Mr. KENT offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 18, 1951.

On the evening of November 20, in the First Methodist Church of Blairsville, only a few minutes after he had finished his inspirational speech glorifying his beloved Commonwealth, death came suddenly but peacefully to one of Crawford County's and this Commonwealth's beloved leaders, Ray F. Smock.

His influence was vast and extended into many fields of activity. In his early years he gained a broad background of practical experience in the construction business which was to serve him admirably for his post as Secretary of Highways.

But along with his activity in business, he took a keen early interest in the political and civic life of Crawford County which through the years he developed into a repository of extraordinary knowledge of which he gave freely in advice, counsel and assistance to the residents of his community.

He became a leading figure in the political life of Crawford County in 1930 when he assumed the county chairmanship of the Republican party, a post he held continuously until his death. At the time he took hold of his county organization, its fortunes, as elsewhere in the nation, were at a low ebb, but by working at the job day and night every day, he developed an organization that gained victory at the polls year after year. Along with this post, he also served Crawford County as Recorder and Register from 1933 to 1943.

But his great success in politics was due in large measure to his intense interest, his vast energy, his pleasant personality, his kindly humor, and his genius for making friends.

With his experience in the field of contracting and party politics, he was a natural choice for the post of Secretary of Highways which he held continuously under four Governors from 1943 until his death. During his tenure, he ably directed the greatest highway construction program this State and nation has ever seen and it was fitting that in his lifetime he had become known as a respected administrator and a great builder.

Even while fulfilling the responsibilities of his high office he took time to continue to perform hundreds of "little things" for the people of his community and to contribute to the upbuilding of his local institutions such as Allegheny College, Stone Church, the Chamber of Commerce, the Community Chest and local industries, to name but a few.

Ray Smock's life is a record of serve, integrity and sincerity in public life and enhances the dignity of public service and political leadership. By hard, honest work backed up with a fervent belief in America, he achieved great influence and used it wisely and unselfishly; now therefore be it

Resolved, (by the House of Representatives), That we hereby express our deep feelings of loss in the untimely death of Ray F. Smock which will be felt at once because of the vital position he occupied in the life of his community, State and nation and in the hearts of his family and many friends; and be it further

Resolved, That as a token of the sympathy we feel for his family, the Chief Clerk of the House shall transmit to them a copy of this resolution.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. McMILLEN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, in connection with the passing of Ray F. Smock and the memorial resolution which was just passed in his memory, I would like to make a few remarks which I think you would appreciate knowing.

It happens that I was master of ceremonies at the dinner meeting and the road celebration which Ray Smock was attending when he was stricken. I have never seen Ray Smock in all his happy disposition exceed that which he possessed on the night on which he was stricken at Blairsville, Pennsylvania.

We had had a wonderful day. We had opened U. S. Route 22 west of Blairsville which had been closed to traffic approximately five years. The town of Blairsville in celebration held a ten-day period of special events called Trail Blazer Days.

The highlight of the entire ten-day period was this visit of Ray Smock together with all the other highway officials and those responsible for the development of this vast road program.

We presented to Ray that night a fine pocket wallet and on the inside of it we had engraved: "Honorable Ray F. Smock" and instead of calling him Secretary of Highways we inscribed the words "Chief Trail Blazer."

I cannot help but reflect back how appropriately "Chief Trail Blazer" applies in this case. I think Ray Smock not only was a trail blazer in the development of a system of highways to facilitate the community of people from one community to another and thus spread the blessings of our system and our way of life more freely and happily, but he was also a trail blazer in the art of human associations. He was a trail blazer in the art of being a public office holder—a man who could give unstintingly of himself in service to the Commonwealth. I think he has blazed a trail as an example of public service which will be unexcelled in the years to come.

Mr. Speaker, in connection with this resolution I think we should read into the record or make a part of the record the memorial sermon which was delivered at the time of his funeral. It is such a masterpiece that it should be preserved.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I present this memorial sermon for the Honorable Ray F. Smock and ask that it be made a part of the record of this House.

The SPEAKER. Without objection, the funeral sermon for the Honorable Ray F. Smock will be included in the record.

RAY F. SMOCK

Funeral Services for Saturday, November 24, 1951
Old Stone Church, Meadville, Pa.

By Reverend Albert Mariott D.D.

Long before this moment the minds of many of the best writers in the State of Pennsylvania have been exercised to give expression to an appreciation which is in the hearts of all who knew Ray F. Smock. The unvarnished facts of his life and advancement would read like fiction except for the fact that this country has already provided ample precedent for such individual accomplishment. For many years to come the impact of his life and service will be the source of yet other expressions of honor and tribute and will be the inspiration for young men and women, who, coming out of unprepossessing backgrounds, pause to wonder what the future can possibly hold for them.

It would, in fact, tax the genius of a poet to set forth in satisfactory language the sturdy simplicity and rugged stature of Crawford County's leading citizen.

The late Pennsylvania Secretary of Highways spoke of himself, and with pride, as a man who came from and belonged to the rural places. He boasted no inherited wealth, except the wealth of personality and human interest and human insight which made him the outstanding political leader he became.

He would not want to speak of himself as being "self-made" for he was always eager to give credit to others for their trust in and loyalty to him as the agencies which made him what he was, but it is nonetheless true that he became what he was largely through sheer dint of personal effort.

Academically speaking, his education may have ended with his high school studies. If, however, the words of William James are true, that the purpose of higher education is to give a man the sense for ideal values, "the feeling for a good human job anywhere, the admiration of the really admirable, the dislike of what is cheap and trashy and impermanent," then Ray Smock had a great deal of higher education. Whatever his knowledge of advanced mathematics was or was not, he was well schooled in those higher mathematics which taught him to add friendship, to multiply good-will, to subtract bitterness and contention, and to divide service. He was indeed well grounded in the square root of human relations. Whatever his skill in oratory, and he was always heard with pleasure and profit, his finest skill in speech lay in his ability to speak the word of kindness and encouragement and friendly understanding, and in the science which involves loyalty, dedication, and responsibility, he was a student Hagna Cum Laude.

Ray Smock was essentially a friendly person. It was as natural for him to take an interest in people as to breathe, and to walk the streets of this city with him was an education and an inspiration. Conversation was constantly being interrupted while he called to someone he had not seen for a while so that he could ask in detail about matters of concern to members of the family group in question. He radiated friendliness and his contact with people made them feel that he thought them important, and incidentally, in helping them to feel thus he helped them to be important, a vital matter in our democratic way of life.

He was a loyal member of Old Stone Methodist Church, proud to be known as such since 1915, when, under the preaching of Dr. Biederwolf he was persuaded to declare his faith. His support of the church was forthright and continuing. He shared its burdens, which were sometimes very heavy, as a member of the Official Board, and, until the time of his death he was a member of that group of officials. His years of service and helpfulness during which he gave both of himself and his money to keep the church an effective organization, ought to mark him among long line of those who climbed the steep decent of heaven that the spiritual foundation upon which our common life is built shall not fall nor be neglected.

His long-time leadership in the political life of both the county and the state will write itself into the history and the very fabric of the life of the Commonwealth. No one can ride over Pennsylvania highways for many years to come without being compelled to acclaim that here and here and there are signs that the life of Ray F. Smock has been built into the network of our communication system.

Ray Smock, was, and is a symbol. He is a symbol of the possibilities inherent in this democratic way of life, a way of life for which we once more struggle. He is a symbol of the fact that here in this way of life the obscure individual with talent and with application and determination can reach the heights of both service and honor. He is a symbol, too, of down-to-earth application of ideals. He was not content to dream about a better future for Americans and Pennsylvanians but he chose to enter actively into the task of creating that better future. While too many of the rest of us have been content to discharge our political responsibilities by criticism of those who were at work, he entered the firing line and accepted responsibility in practical endeavors to definite ends.

This church has been proud to list such a man as Ray F. Smock a member of its family, his life has become part of its blood and tissue.

This community has been proud to have given to the state so capable a workman.

This county shall list him proudly among the outstanding citizens of all its history, and we his fellow countians feel that his passing will leave a marked vacancy in the political structure of the Commonwealth.

The memory of his warm human heart leads us to pray that the quality of friendship he exemplified shall multiply among us and that we shall give more room for that bond of fellowship about which one of his favorite hymns speaks, the hymn which was reported being sung when he was stricken.

"Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain.
But we shall still be joined in heart
And hope to meet again."

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. KENT ask and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, on Monday, a week ago yesterday, in my absence the House concurred in a Senate Resolution, introduced by Senator Mahany in the Senate, dedicating a small strip of road and a bridge leading out of Meadville and proceeding on to Conneaut Lake to the memory of Mr. Smock.

I would like to express at this time the gratitude of myself and Crawford County for the House action on that resolution.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. FILO asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a resolution to be introduced by him.

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, it is certainly a great privilege for me to introduce this privileged resolution. I know that the particular Member in this resolution has waited a long time to have such a resolution read in this House. As a matter of fact, it has been eight sessions that this Member has been down here and has never had a chance to have one of these resolutions presented.

I certainly appreciate the pleasure that I am able to do so for this particular gentleman. I know that he is held in high esteem by all the Members in the House and also by his constituents back home.

Messrs. FILO, SARRAF, HUNTER, LUTTY, LOUIS LEONARD, OLSEN, CORR, SCHMIDT, KAMYK, PAUL F. JONES, FENRICH, SCANLON, BEECH, MIHM, RIGBY, THOMPSON, EWING, McNALLY, MORAN, WILT, VERONA, COOPER and HAUDENSHIELD offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 18, 1951.

Our fellow-member, the Honorable David M. Boies, representing the eleventh district of Allegheny County, has been a member of this august body since December 1, 1936.

During this long period, this assemblage has not had occasion to honor his birth-date, which falls on December 15th, but this year the opportunity to do so being at hand, we must not miss it.

We all know Dave as a conscientious public servant and as a personable, likeable gentleman, as well as an epicure, bon vivant, scholar and an admirer of the city of brotherly love and its citizens, particularly the legislative members thereof; now therefore be it

Resolved (by the House of Representatives), That we hereby congratulate our own Dave Boies on the occasion of his birthday just passed and wish him continued success, good health, happiness, an eventual pleasant retirement in the city of Clairton, and many many more happy birthdays.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Boies.

Mr. BOIES. Mr. Speaker, I certainly want to thank the Members of the House for the sentiments expressed in this resolution, and I hope for their sake and my own, too, that we never again have to celebrate my birthday with a session of the House. Thanks a lot.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I have been asked by Members on this side of the House, especially from Philadelphia, to ascertain a certain point, the exact answer to which question I have not been able to give.

The question is this, Mr. Speaker, may a Chairman of a Committee report out a bill himself? In other words a Committee acts upon a bill in Committee and it is accepted or approved by the Committee to be reported out. May the Chairman report it out himself, or must it be given to another Member of the Committee?

The SPEAKER. The Chair would inquire the opinion of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl. Will the gentleman explain what happened?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, in my opinion, I think the Chairman of a Committee has discretion to do as he sees fit in that respect.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Is that the answer of the Chair, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is certainly interested in the opinion of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl. However, the Chair desires to know the factual background of the gentleman's inquiry.

Mr. TAHL. I have the factual background, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, rise?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to intervene in this parliamentary situation to inquire what the record of the Committee shows. Into whose keeping did the Committee consign the bill? Did the Chairman consign the bill into his own keeping, and does the record of the Committee show that the procedure was approved?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will inquire of the Chairman of Cities and Counties—First Class. The Chair is concerned with the regularity of the proceedings.

Mr. HAMILTON. Mr. Speaker, I did not know there would be any question, and I will be very happy to submit a certified copy of the minutes to the gentleman from Cambria, our eminent and distinguished Minority Leader. I know he would approve of them because I have never in my life seen the Philadelphia Democrats and the Philadelphia Republicans get along so harmoniously. They were 1000 percent in accord and they permitted our distinguished Chairman, the Honorable Herman Tahl, to report out this bill and they gave him a complete recommendation to do what he saw fit.

I think the Chairman has acted in good order, and our Philadelphia Democrats and our Philadelphia Republicans are 1000 percent in favor of Senate Bill 897 as it now appears. I think, Mr. Speaker, that you will confirm what I am saying. Is that true?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will inquire whether the Members from the City of Brotherly Love who consigned the bill to the Chairman of the Committee agree with that?

Is the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Guarnieri, a member of this loving committee?

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I am a member of this Committee which is characterized by so much love. It makes one happy at this time of the year to think there is so much love dispersed between the Members.

I do not know whether I could agree wholeheartedly with every statement made by my distinguished colleague on the other side. I will agree to this extent—that the Committee is characterized by love. That is agreed to because they come from a loving city.

However, I also know this, Mr. Speaker, that the eminent gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Hamilton, did not answer the question put by Mr. Andrews. I do not know whether Mr. Andrews still insists upon his query or not. However, if he does not, I will thank the secretary, Mr. Hamilton, from Philadelphia, and hold my peace with all the love that I have shared with all the other Members of the Committee.

The SPEAKER. The Parliamentarian says "Happy Days are here again."

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, December 19, 1951.

The Senate met at 2 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. ROBERT H. STEPHENS, D. D., Pastor of The Market Square Presbyterian Church, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

O God, Most Merciful, on a winter day we seek the warmth of Thy love; in the midst of years that melt like snowflakes before the sun we would rest in Thy everlastingness. We thank Thee for the gift of life, and for the privilege of loving Thee and serving our fellow men.

Remind us that life is too short to be squandered in selfishness, too important for pettiness, too good to be soured by ill will. So help us live and labor on such high levels of devotion and integrity that we will leave our corner of the world brighter and better when we exit through the gate of no return.

We thank Thee for the progress made by this Senate. Keep it rolling, O Lord, so that all these men may get home for Christmas, cheered by the satisfaction of a job well done. We pray for the Senators who are sick, that Thou wilt sustain and heal them. We pray for all who serve in every humble way in this house and, O Lord, we pray for those boys who are prisoners in Korea. Comfort them, and their parents and friends, and hasten the coming of peace and their return home. O Lord, Our Hope is in Thee.

We pray in the name of the Prince of Peace, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDING OFFICER. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceeding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the Preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. PEELOR, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Section 3 Section 401 of said act as amended by the act approved the twelfth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-one (P. L. 125) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 401 The term "employer" when used in this article shall mean the employer as defined in article one of this act or his duly authorized agent or his insurer if such insurer has assumed the employer's liability or the State workmen's insurance fund of this Commonwealth if the employer be insured therein

The department shall be deemed a "party in interest" in any proceeding under this article before a referee the board or any court involving any claim for compensation a part of which is payable by the Commonwealth under the provisions of this act

[The term "medical board" shall mean a medical board constituted as provided in section four hundred and two]

Section 4 Section 402 and 420 of said act are hereby repealed

Section 5 Section 421 422 and 423 of said act are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 421 all hearings before the board or one or more members thereof [or before the medical board] or before a referee shall be public

Section 422 The board its members and the referees [and the medical board] shall not be bound by the technical rules of evidence in conducting hearings and investigations but all findings of fact shall be based only upon sufficient competent evidence to justify them

If any party or witness resides outside of the Commonwealth or through illness or other cause is unable to testify before the board or a referee [or the medical board] his or her testimony or deposition may be taken within or without this Commonwealth in such manner and in such form as the board may by special order or general rule prescribe the records kept by a hospital of the medical or surgical treatment given to an employee in such hospital shall be admissible as evidence of the medical and surgical matters stated therein but shall not be conclusive proof of such matters

Section 423 any party in interest may within twenty days after notice of a referee's award or disallowance or compensation shall have been served upon him take an appeal to the board on the ground (1) that the award or disallowance of compensation is not in conformity with the terms of this act or that the referee committed any other error of law (2) that the findings of fact and award or disallowance of compensation was unwarranted by sufficient competent evidence or was procured by fraud coercion or other improper conduct of any party in interest the board may upon cause shown extend the time provided in this article for taking such appeal or for the filing of an answer or other pleading

In any such appeal the board may disregard the findings of fact of the referee and may examine the testimony taken before such referee and if it deem proper may hear other evidence and may substitute for the findings of the referee such findings of fact as the evidence taken before the referee and the board as hereinbefore provided may in the judgement of the board require and may make such disallowance or award of compensation or other order as the facts so founded by it may require [but the] [board shall accept as conclusive upon it the findings and conclusions of the Medical board]

Section 6 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

SENATE RESOLUTION SERIAL No. 57 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I call from the table Senate Resolution, Serial No. 57, for consideration at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The resolution was read as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE TO MAKE A REPORT OF ABOUT THE FACTS CONCERNING BRUCELLOSIS CONTROL PROGRAM IN PENNSYLVANIA AND SUGGESTIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS FOR IMPROVING PRESENT METHODS OF CONTROL

In the Senate, May 21, 1951.

Brucellosis (also known as Bangs disease or infectious abortion of cattle) is one of the major hazards of the cattle industry, and its prompt control is of vital importance both to the industry and to the public health.

At the present time, not quite 700,000 cattle—or less than half of the cattle population receiving surveillance under the program of control for bovine tuberculosis—have had inspections for brucellosis; and of this group, fewer than 200,000 belong to accredited herds, i.e. are completely free of the disease. On the other hand, nearly 775,000 animals have not yet been examined: half of these are on the Department of Agriculture's waiting list because its funds and facilities do not permit faster handling of the program. The equally large uncontrolled group of 400,000 cattle suggests the possible need for mandatory inspection.

This Senate recognizes the many difficulties and problems in satisfactorily and speedily carrying out a program of this scope, and type, but it nonetheless is anxious to aid in accelerating the day when all the cattle in this Commonwealth can be declared free of the disease; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Department of Agriculture is hereby requested to make a report to the Senate before the thirty-first day of January, one thousand nine hundred fifty-three in which it shall set forth:

(1) the facts concerning the brucellosis control program in Pennsylvania; and

(2) the department's suggestions and recommendations for improving present methods of control especially from the standpoint of accelerating the time factor in such control program.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

SENATE RESOLUTION

TRIBUTE TO THE LATE WILLIAM R. SCOTT

Mr. PECHAN offered the following resolution which was read as follows:

In the Senate, December 19, 1951.

We are all shocked and saddened over the sudden passing of "Scotty," who died instantly this morning at 9:15 at his familiar post behind the Senate phone desk.

William R. Scott, who was slightly more than 68 years of age, came from Perry County to Harrisburg where he resided at 17 South 17th Street, to take up his work with the Senate over twenty-five years ago. He was originally assistant custodian of the Senate chamber and later became the custodian of the phones in the Senate.

"Scotty," as he was known to everyone, was a part of the Senate whose passing leaves a void. His ever-present smile, his affable courteous manner, and his willingness to accommodate made him a friend of all whom he served and worked with; now therefore be it

Resolved (by the Senate), That we hereby express our deep feeling of shock and sadness in the sudden loss of our friend, William R. Scott, whose kind and faithful service to the Senate these many years we humbly and gratefully attest; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the family of William R. Scott in token of our sincere sympathy in their hour of bereavement.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in rising to second the motion for the immediate consideration and passage of this resolution, I want to express the deep sorrow of the Minority Members at the sudden death of a beloved member of the faculty, as it were, of the Senate of Pennsylvania. We will best know how much we miss this man as the years go by.

Mr. President, those of us who have been here for quite a few years remember him as an integral part of the organization or association here in the Senate. It best can be described when we think of the wanderer who has been away from home for a good many years and returns and finds that the familiar scenes of his childhood have all passed from the scene, trees have been cut, new roads laid, houses have sprung up, his friends have gone and he finds a loneliness there. So it is with those of us who have been for so many years accustomed to waving back through that door, with speed and hurry, yelling at "Scotty," "Get us this number, get us that one." We will realize then how valuable he was to us.

Mr. President, I want to assure all of the Members of the Senate that we have lost a friend and a deeply appreciated public servant.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

HOUSE BILL No. 587 CALLED UP FROM SECOND READING POSTPONED CALENDAR

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I call up from the Second Reading Postponed Calendar House Bill No. 587.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON SECOND READING, AMENDMENTS OFFERED

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 587, entitled:

An Act providing a method for the reestablishment of townships of the first class from any city to which they have been annexed regulating the proceedings pertaining thereto and reestablishing the same as separate school districts

The first, second, third and fourth sections were read and agreed to.

The fifth section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. BARR on behalf of Mr. McMENAMIN offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 5, page 4, line 14, by striking out the word "only"; Amend Sec. 5, page 4, lines 14 and 15, by striking out the words "that part of the city which was formerly the township of the first class which was annexed to"; Amend Sec. 5, page 4, lines 17 and 18, by striking out the words "part of the city which was the township of the first class prior to its annexation to said".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask my colleagues to vote the amendments down.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, may we be at ease?

(The Senate was at ease.)

AMENDMENTS WITHDRAWN

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I wish to withdraw these amendments with an agreement from the other side that we may offer them tomorrow with unanimous consent.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

The section was agreed to.

The sixth, seventh, eighth, nine, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth and sixteenth sections and title were read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

RECESS

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until 10 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. SNOWDEN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

MR. HELM IN THE CHAIR

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, there is an old axiom that goes "Some good comes out of everything." All of us know we have had an exceptionally long session, in fact a history making session.

Not only has a lot of good legislation come out of this session, but the opportunity has been offered to many of us to wish personal things to a lot of our friends.

Several months ago we had the opportunity to say "happy birthday" to the Minority Leader, something that in all the many years he has been here he never expected.

Today, in the month of December we have the chance to wish the same "happy birthday" to one who I think is one of the most esteemed, best thought of, well liked and lovable Members of this House. Today, . . . and I will be very informal when I say this—is Herb Sorg's birthday. He never expected to be here in December, and it probably will never happen again.

Mr. Speaker, if I must be formal, we wish to you the very best we can. You deserve the best, sincerely from our hearts, and we mean it. I offer the following resolution.

Messrs. SMITH and ANDREWS offered a resolution which was read, considered and unaimously adopted by a rising vote as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 19, 1951.

Not too many years ago the gray skies of December opened and dropped upon the sterile earth a swaddling bundle that was destined to become a shining page in the legislative history of Pennsylvania. For, none other than our revered leader, Herb Sorg, was the priceless content of that bundle. He came as a pre-Christmas gift of infant joy to his grateful parents. And he has remained for all of us in Pennsylvania a symbol of civic courage and progressiveness, and a dynamic exponent of just, beneficent, and forthright government.

The plaintive wail of the tiny child of yesteryear has developed and matured into the stentorian voice that guides the activities and lifts the spirit of a tired legislative forum—groping and struggling and fumbling its way to an elusive adjournment.

Anniversaries may sometimes be suppressed, but they are always inevitable. Relentless time marches on and significant events should be memorialized; therefore be it Resolved, That this House of Representatives is extremely happy to felicitate its beloved Speaker on his fortieth birthday anniversary. This House is aware that the present session has made unusual demands upon his time and patience and resourcefulness and is proud, indeed, that his performance has far exceeded every criterion of excellence.

The members of this House, individually and collectively, extend their heartiest greetings to the Honorable Herbert P. Sorg along with their sincerest wishes that his zealous interest in the public weal and his constructive endeavors in behalf of this State shall continue for many years to come.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I know of no way in which we could contribute to the personal happiness of the Speaker than to so arrange our proceedings that it will be possible for us to depart in good fashion, in orderly manner, from the Halls of this House, beginning Thursday evening and continuing through Friday with all of us safe at home come Saturday next.

As the Speaker and the Members of this House well realize, minority party policy and procedure is necessarily determined to a very large degree by majority party policy and procedure. In order that time saving agreements may be arrived at, it is necessary that the minority party leadership be acquainted with the disposition of the majority party caucus regarding matters of possible controversy. As you can well see, minority party policy is absolutely dependent upon the decisions arrived at in majority party caucuses.

If we are looking forward to an era of agreement and are suddenly confronted with an unnecessary battle inspired solely by partisan considerations, we have no alternative, we must accept such an issue and maintain our position by means of all the expedients proper to us within the framework of parliamentary law.

Now, there are a number of issues concerning which we seek agreement, concerning which we are prepared, I believe, to vote as a unit upon this side of the House.

We have no disposition to rekindle the fires that made possible the Philadelphia story episode in the Senate.

You are about to pass upon a reapportionment bill, Members of the House, that comes to you stamped as a non-partisan decision if a non-partisan decision was ever arrived at in this General Assembly, a reapportionment bill that was opposed by only one Democrat in the Senate, and opposed by only two Republicans in the Senate, a reapportionment bill that I believe I can assure you will not be the cause of time-delaying controversy, if in your wisdom you submit it to the membership of this House on the non-partisan basis upon which it comes to you from the Senate.

STUDENTS OF READING HIGH SCHOOL WELCOME

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair is pleased to welcome to the House a group of seventy-five students of Reading High School, members of the class on Problems of Democracy, under the supervision of their instructor, Mr. Norman C. Brillhart. They are the guests of the gentleman from Berks, Messrs. Readinger and Kubacki.

THE SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) IN THE CHAIR

The SPEAKER. The Chair is very grateful to the Majority and Minority Leaders, and to all Members of the House for this wonderful resolution, as well as for all of the many, many courtesies extended to the Chair throughout this session.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The SPEAKER. There will be a very important Republican Caucus immediately in the new House Caucus Room.

Does the Minority Leader contemplate a Democratic Caucus?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, our caucus will be wholly dependent upon the good tidings which will be forthcoming from the Republican caucus.

The SPEAKER. The Chair sincerely hopes that the tidings will be good.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will declare a recess until 3:00 o'clock. The Chair hears none, and a recess is declared.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, we now have before us the eleventh edition of Senate Bill 27. I hope most of the Members have read it since it was printed yesterday, so that they will be convinced that the things Mr. Robertson and I have to say about what is in this bill are true.

I have no desire to comment at any great length on the bill again today, as I have fully stated my thoughts concerning it in the last several weeks. However, since yesterday I have received various communications from people in the state who are interested in the bill. One of them was written by a person in Philadelphia—I cannot determine whether it is a man or a woman and I cannot make out the signature—but at any rate this person in the letter said that she was the mother, we will assume it is a woman, of children going to school, and she stated that if the bill passes, all her children will be taught will be reading, writing and arithmetic. In other words, she was trying to convey to me the idea that this bill as it now stands before us would be a means of controlling thought on the part of teachers; it would curb their freedom of thought and their freedom of expression in teaching the children.

I mention this only for the reason that I do not think that is true in any way, shape or form. Unless I do not know anything about this bill, it is my opinion that there is nothing in it which is going to control or could be used to control the thoughts of our teachers.

To many a person on the street who does not give much thought to this subject when someone mentions a fear about thought control, the average person thinks it is simply the use of some highfaluting words. But there has been in the history of this bill some very serious doubt as to whether or not it could not be used for thought control. I think the way the bill stood at one time it could have been used that way, because many a teacher who does a lot of thinking will assume and try to impart to his or her pupils the benefit of that thinking, but would in many instances remain silent if the matter the teacher desired to teach was highly controversial, would remain silent for fear that some superior officers would consider those words or those teachings subversive.

There is nothing in this bill any more which will prevent a teacher from teaching anything he or she honestly believes to be the truth and the things that should be taught.

I am going to vote for the bill today as you probably have surmised, but I would like the record to indicate that I am not voting for it because I think it is necessary in order to have good government in Pennsylvania and in order to root out any subversives. I simply do not believe the bill is necessary. However, I think some good will come from it and I am certainly not going to oppose the idea of those who think that all governmental employees should take such an oath. They are entitled to that opinion, and in the opinion of many of them this bill is an absolute necessity. I think all of us who want to vote for this bill can do so even though we think there is no need for it. There are plenty of laws on our books to get at subversive persons, and there should be such laws on our books, because if we ever find any of them, we want to punish them in some way and remove them from a place where they can do us any harm.

There is a great deal of opposition to this particular bill even in its present form on the part of those who believe that they should never be required to take an oath of this kind. You either believe that and take that position, or you do not take it. There will probably be some teachers, and perhaps some good ones, who will refuse to take this oath if this becomes law and will have to be discharged. I hope that does not happen, but if it does, it will happen and I suppose we will go on in the state of Pennsylvania and continue to function as before. I sympathize with people who will in the future not find themselves able to take this oath. I do not like to think that they might be taken out of a job they have had for years; perhaps they have served their Commonwealth or their city, or school district very well; but they will not be able to bring their thoughts to a point where they can take this oath. I say I sympathize with them because it is unfortunate when it does happen.

So, I leave you with the fundamental thought, as I have said so often before, that in my opinion there is nothing in this bill any more which is going to be used or could be used as a weapon or as a means of unjustly treating any employee.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I want to call attention to some of the reasons why this bill encountered the opposition that it did. I also want to compliment those who have sponsored this bill within the confines of this House.

It is solely by reason of what I would term improper activities upon the part of those outside of this Chamber that this bill was for a time diverted from its original purpose. This bill started out as a loyalty oath bill. It did not start out as any proposition to constitute the teachers of this Commonwealth as members of a suspect brigade. It did not start out as a teacher persecution measure. It has never been presented to the House in that aspect.

However, the purposes of some of those who have enlarged the scope of this bill and who have operated outside the control of this House was probably stated by the Dames of the Loyal Legion when they said in a public statement:

"The direction of public education in the United States of America has been captured"—note the word captured—"by an aggressive minority group bent on changing our social order, that is substituting the doctrine of collectivism, dominance of an all powerful state for the underlying principles of self rule by the citizens as provided in the Federal Constitution."

That statement was taken up by various organizations chief of which was the National American Flag Committee, which pointed out in a communication the Members of this House have probably received, that those educators who supported the program of the United Nations were actually subversive, because it was alleged they were selling America sovereignty down the river. In their circular they pointed out that any educator who supported the program of the United Nations was a proper person to watch.

There we have the entrance into the situation of the groups which had in mind thought control. These groups overlooked the fact that a teacher is both an educator and a citizen, and they would deny to the teacher the rights of the citizen.

It happens that I never had any patience with the United Nations myself. I do not believe in it—I never supported it; I always thought it would prove to be a "bust"—a broken reed that would pierce our side; but I do recognize the fact that very devoted people have supported the United Nations and will continue to do so and that they should not be arraigned in any form because they so believe.

I have another document in my hands, put out by veteran sources, that states that the purpose of this bill is to separate Americans from Un-Americans. I have another document in my hands, put out under veteran auspices that the only people who were opposed to this bill were the pinks—the parlor pinks, the fellow travelers and the commies.

That was the doctrine which was carried over the state. And that was the reason for the fact that little by little influences outside of this Chamber close in on the teachers and wrote a bill that would extend legal rights to a tavern keeper which were denied the teacher, and very properly. When we came to the day of the show-down those sponsoring Senate Bill 27 removed a great many of those subtle and insidious attacks upon the teachers from the bill. But all over the state that was the message carried, that our teachers, the public school teachers, at the local level were potentially subversive, and that the way they thought as private citizens should be used against them as teachers.

Now I believe that the bill as it stands is a measure in which the faulty, obnoxious features have been almost entirely removed. I do not believe that the teachers of this Commonwealth, first of all are potentially subversive. As I know teachers, instead of mingling too much in the affairs of the nation, they mingle too little. However, the bill is a better bill, and the very fact that it has been amended and its iniquities removed justifies the contention that the bill become progressively worse until the attention of the House and the attention of the advocates of the bill were directed to its iniquities, and I commend them upon their cooperation in removing those iniquities.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to begin by saying that I want to heartily agree with the two gentlemen who have just spoken in the gist of their statements, namely, the bill that we are going to vote on today is a much better bill than the Pechan bill that we considered a week ago, or before that.

As a matter of fact I consider that a victory has been won in attaining the present form of the bill by the various forces who have been opposing many of the features of it.

I feel that at this time there is a feeling of considerable complacency on the part of this House that a bill has been arrived at, which is a good bill and can be supported by men of good will. I am sorry to even make a small contribution to disturbing that complacency, but there are some of us who do not agree with that opinion. We believe that it is a much better bill. We believe that it is a bill that will do less harm; there is less possibility of innocent people suffering, but we still are in opposition to the bill. I think that some statement of our reasons for thinking so is appropriate at this time and is deserved by the Members of this House.

I would call your attention to last Saturday. You may not have noticed it, but last Saturday was the day set aside as Bill of Rights Day. I believe we have here a bill which anybody who stopped last Saturday to think about the Bill of Rights and its meaning, will feel that it is not a bill which can be commended as a bill which should be passed by any American legislative body.

It is a bill that follows more in the tradition of Joseph Stalin, and Adolph Hitler, than Thomas Jefferson and Abraham Lincoln.

This is a statement that needs some justification, and I would call the attention of the Members of this House to the pages of history. I would like to tell you something about the history of test oaths.

There are "oaths" and "oaths;" there are positive oaths of a loyalty. On the other hand, there are test oaths, a test oath being an oath which contains a threat that if anyone does not subscribe to it they are barred from public position and public employment.

This may have a very ancient ancestry. The first record I can find of it in the Anglo-Saxon tradition is back in England. It appeared then in the form of a religious test oath. England as you know became one of the earliest Protestant countries in Europe. In 1673 under the reign of Charles II the people of England were concerned about their situation in their national affairs. At that time it had a religious basis, not a political one.

Spain and France were of course Catholic countries. The Vatican seemed to England the dangerous enemy. So the English Parliament passed what they called the test act, which said that any person in order to hold public employment under the English crown, had to subscribe to an oath in which they made oath or affirmed that they were not members of the organization which was considered then by the people of England to be their enemy, namely, the Catholic Church.

Although that was setup to affect only the members of that church which was considered the dangerous enemy of England safety at that time, it soon involved other groups. It involved the Quakers, it involved the Puritans, it involved finally any non-conformist group in a religious way, because then the issue, the ideology, that was dangerous was a religious one. Today it is a political one.

That is the reason why when the various commonwealths, including the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, were setup in America, their constitutions almost universally contained a provision that there shall be no religious test.

If you were to try to pass a loyalty oath involving a religious subject today you would find a specific bar. Why don't we have a specific bar against the test oath on a political basis? The reason is that at that time the religious test was the thing, the religious menace was the ideology that they were afraid of.

The constitutions of the various States and Commonwealths contain a provision barring a religious test.

When we come down into American history we find that the present period of fear and hysteria in which we find ourselves today is not a new thing either.

I would refer you to the Salem Witchcraft trials; when people were convinced that their personal lives and the welfare of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts was menaced by supernatural powers and they had trials which were mockeries, and many innocent people were convicted and suffered unjustly.

I would refer you to the early period of the founding of our Government, when the revolutionary nation was France, where people were sure that the Jacobites were going to move in and all the governments of the world were going to be upset. They passed alien and sedition laws and many people were unjustly punished and suffered injustices under those acts.

Then we come down to the "Know Nothing" days when there was a revival of religious intolerance. And "Know Nothing" laws were passed by many of the states which took away from the members of the Catholic faith some of their rights as citizens, because that was then the menace.

Then I would refer you to the Civil War and the period immediately after it when the Copperheads, (Northerners), who were opposed to the war, were given unfair trials and many of them were persecuted. Jeremiah Black, one of the greatest jurists of Pennsylvania and a citizen of the city from which I come, was the outstanding defender of people who were unjustly and innocently punished at that time.

Then I would refer you to the Hay Market trials where a group of men, because they were radicals, were punished unjustly for a crime which was never proved and which they never committed.

Along that line of other various labor persecutions were men because they were leaders in the labor movement, which at that time was a highly subversive thing, were persecuted.

Then I would come down to the period after World War I when we had the case in New York where elected members of the New York Legislature were not seated because they were members of the Socialist Party because that was the proscribed party at that time. I would refer you to the Sacco-Vanzetti incident in which several radicals were railroaded to death by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for a crime which they never committed.

Now all these are black marks in the eyes of history; the eyes of thinking men today—are black marks on the history of the various Commonwealths and the history of the United States. Their actions we regret. It is the contention of those of us who are opposing this loyalty oath bill that we are about to commit a legislative act which parallels those acts in being a black mark upon the fair escutcheon of this Commonwealth.

Where did the modern political test oath make its appearance in modern times? The answer is not in America. It is contrary to the American tradition. America has had nothing to do with this kind of probing of men's minds and making them take test oaths.

I would like to read you a quotation from one of our eminent historians, Henry Steele Commager, on this subject. Mr. Commager wrote as follows:

"What do men know of loyalty who make a mockery of the Declaration of Independence and the Bill of Rights, whose energies are dedicated to stirring up race and class hatreds, who would straitjacket the American spirit? What indeed do they know of America—the America of Sam Adams and Tom Paine, of Jackson's defiance of the Supreme Court and Lincoln's celebration of labor, of Thoreau's essay on Civil Disobedience and Emerson's championship of John Brown, of the America of the Fourierists and the Come-Outers, of cranks and fanatics, of socialists and anarchists? Who among American heroes could meet their tests, who would be cleared by their committees? Not Washington who was a rebel. Not Thomas Jefferson, who wrote that all men are created equal and whose motto was 'rebellion to tyrants is obedience to God'. Not Garrison, who publicly burned the Constitution in the streets of Boston, or Wendell Phillips, who spoke for the underprivileged everywhere and counted himself a philosophical anarchist; not Seward of the Higher Law or Sumner of racial equality. Not Abraham Lincoln who admonished us to have malice toward none, charity for all; or Woodrow Wilson, who warned that our flag was 'a flag of liberty of opinion as well as of political liberty'; or Justice Holmes, who said that our Constitution is an experiment and that while that experiment is being made we should be eternally vigilant against attempts to check the expression of opinions that we loath and believe to be fraught with death'.

No it was not in America that the political test oath made its modern appearance. Where was it? Well, it was in Nazi Germany and it was in fascist Italy, and it was in Soviet Russia.

The purpose of it there was expressed to be the same as it was here. To get rid of those who were subversive. Subversive men who disagreed with the ideas of the ruler of Germany. It was used to discredit the political opponents of that regime.

Men in the universities and schools who were anti-fascists were forced to take oaths. Those who did not take it were eliminated. Those who did take it lost the respect of the other people who were anti-fascist because they had been willing to take the oath. So it was merely to advance the cause not of democracy but of fascism.

Let us look at these loyalty oaths and see whether a loyalty oath is designed to do the job that people say it will do. Will loyalty oaths make men loyal? Loyalty it seems to me is something that arises from within a man, from the heart; it is an expression of feeling that he bears toward his country and towards his government. It is the result of an intellectual decision that that government is a good one and it is the result of an emotional feeling, a respect for that government because of privileges he enjoys under that government, and the love that he bears for it.

Do you arouse loyalty in men's breasts by holding over their heads a club, by saying to them "unless you take this oath you cannot have public employment under this Government, even though you trained yourself for it, made it your life's work?"

I say that loyalty cannot be based on fear and force. What we need if we want more loyalty in our Government is a continuous effort to make democracy work; to provide more democracy, not less.

A loyalty oath is a movement away from democracy, not toward it. It holds a club over people's heads and says, "now be loyal or else." This is not the way to arouse loyalty. It is psychologically all wrong.

America needs to be united; let us not minimize the danger we find ourselves in. We are in a world crisis; we are in a struggle for men's minds. Democracy and Communism are implacable foes. We are in a desperate struggle. America needs to be united to fight the battle of democracy. Will the loyalty oath unite America? Is the fact that one-half of the population of a country is going to administer loyalty oaths to the other half, likely to bring them together and give them a feeling of unity? The communists so far, in my opinion, have failed dismally in their efforts to disunite America and that is their main goal—to disunite America. They have failed.

This type of legislation may well succeed in taking a long step toward succeeding where the communists have failed by sowing doubt in men's minds; by saying to the veteran and the disabled veteran who is a school teacher and who took the oath of loyalty, by saying to him "You must take an oath that you are loyal to your country." The spectacle of one-half of the country administering oaths to the other half, to my mind, is not a spectacle that is likely to lead to national unity.

Finally, will this oath catch communists? Let us look at the record. Massachusetts has had a law since 1935. Has it as a matter of fact and as a matter of record caught communists?

One of the outstanding authorities in this field is Professor Chafee of Harvard University, and I quote from him as follows:

"The Massachusetts Loyalty Oath, enacted in 1935 in response to assertions that the schools and colleges of the Commonwealth were riddled with Communists and traitors, has not ferreted out a single teacher with the slightest taint of disloyalty. Only three teachers in fifteen years failed to take the oath." (This was written in 1950—I can bring the record up to date and say that only three teachers to date have failed to take the oath in Massachusetts.) What is especially significant is that these three had served in the public schools for years with unquestioned devotion. They stopped their lifework because they were sensitive men and women who thought it wrong to be forced to swear that they possessed the common virtues of decent citizens.

I can refer you also to the Ober Law passed in Maryland, a similar piece of legislation. In the years since it has been passed—in the three years—exactly three people have failed to take it—none of them subversives.

So I say that on the record it is demonstrated that a loyalty oath will not catch communists. Who are the people advocating this type of legislation who are so naive that they believe that communists, members of communist party, will hesitate to take this oath of loyalty? Why it would put them into the fold. Are the proponents of this bill trying to tell us that Communists will refuse to take the oath? The people who will refuse to take the oath are people of principle who because of religion or honor, conscientious reasons, as my colleague has just pointed out a few moments ago, may feel that they should not take the oath. In other words, unless you have conscientious scruples which mean something to you, unless you are a person of character, a loyalty oath is no bar.

Some will say, "Yes, but they can be caught on perjury." The same evidence which will convict them of perjury will convict them of being a subversive under present legislation without this bill at all. So I say not only is this a bill which is likely to serve better the cause of the enemies of America than of those who love America, but also it is a vain effort to try to trap anyone who is a communist.

I have in my hand an analysis of this bill as it stands which was made by a conference of legal minds. I suffer from not myself being an attorney, and therefore I would not expect you to take anything I say about the legal provisions of this bill as being competent advice to you.

Argument has been made that the bill as it stands has no provisions other than the oath which are likely to disturb anyone. I would like to read the following statement. It is the result, as I say, of a conference of legal minds. It is signed by Julian E. Goldberg who is the counsel of the American Civil Liberties Union. It is a statement prepared for the Pennsylvania Conference of Organizations opposing the Pechan Bill. The statement reads as follows,—this is a legal analysis, not mine:

"Even in its revised form the Pechan Bill is still a dangerous bill which should be opposed. Current amendments have removed a few bad features of the bill. However, as might be expected from a hurried attempt to deal with a complex measure, in meeting some of the problems of the old bill, new problems have been created.

The current measure, like its predecessor, is much more than an oath bill. Complex machinery is still provided for the discharge of teachers and other public employees. Instead of "reasonable doubt of loyalty," the crucial test is now whether one is a 'subversive person.'

The definition of 'subversive person' in Section 1, on which the rights of present employees will depend, is so vague and complex that its administration will be fraught with danger.

This is the primary vice of the bill. What is 'subversive' or 'disloyal' is so much a matter of subjective opinion and so incapable of factual verification that no one can determine in advance what will be in the minds of the tribunal which makes the judgment.

The bill thus puts definite restrictions on freedom of association and freedom of expression outside the classroom and outside the place of public employment. In the operation and administration of such an act, repression of liberal thought must surely result. Every employee or teacher who might want to express himself politically or join an organization will do so under peril of a charge of 'disloyalty' or 'subversion.'

The Legislature has seldom been asked to deal with a more serious and delicate matter than the basic civil liberties which are here at stake. These liberties deserve more careful handling than it has been possible to give them in the hectic closing days of this legislative session. The bill should be opposed. Signed Julian E. Goldberg, Counsel, American Civil Liberties Union.

So the bill is a better bill but it is still far from being a good bill even apart from the loyalty oath. Present law, if this bill should fail, is adequate. I am not going to bore you by reading again the Teachers Tenure Act, Law of 1941, which covers the situation, but it is adequate.

Someone will say, and I have heard this statement made, "The trouble is it is not enforced." This is an indictment of the appointing authorities who are the elected or appointed officials of this Commonwealth and its subdivisions, for not enforcing, and remember, each one of them took an oath that they would fulfill the duties of their office and here is one of them if you say it has not been enforced, here is one provision of the law that they have not enforced and they have taken an oath to do so.

When I was somewhat younger and smaller, around the time of World War I, there was an epidemic of influenza, and I come from a section where the Pennsylvania Dutch are found, and I belong to the Pennsylvania Dutch. Down there we had a device known as the asafetida bag. I do not know whether any of you ever wore one of those or not. It was a little bag we wore around our necks. The little bag was a cloth in which they sewed up a very vile smelling herb or drug called asafetida. The theory was that if you wore this asafetida bag around your neck, you were safe—the influenza would not get you.

Today I think all of us would say that was a very unscientific and a very irrational and foolish notion because the germs were not bothered by the asafetida bag, but it smelled like the dickens. It smelled awful, I remember that.

I have been trying to get a name for this bill we are discussing. I did not like "Pechan Bill" because obviously Senator Pechan's bill is no longer with us. I certainly did not like to call it a Loyalty Oath Bill because I do not believe you have a loyalty oath; you have a political test oath. I do not like to blame it on any of the gentleman in this House who have made such a fine effort to clean it up; but it reminds me now of that asafetida bag and for my own personal purposes I am going to refer to it as the "Asafetida Bill" because what we have! The asafetida bag was not any good. It did not stop the germs. That same thing is true of the loyalty oath bill.

Second, it made our parents feel awfully good that we wore it because they thought we were protected, and that is the way a lot of people in this state who are advocates of this bill are going to feel. They are going to feel everything is all right. We made those people put the asafetida bag on and they are safe.

Third, there was a menace to this asafetida bag in that our parents relied on it rather than taking proper precautions or taking us to a doctor and getting competent medical advice. The same thing is true of this bill. You are going to put your reliance here in a loyalty oath.

What we need in America for loyalty is more attention to the needs of democracy, making democracy work. We cannot rely on this kind of bill.

Fourth, the asafetida bag smelled awful and to my mind so does the bill. I do not believe you can catch a communist by smelling like one, and I am afraid that the ultimate outcome of this bill is that we are going to smell like them.

I would not minimize for a moment the danger in which our nation finds itself, and we as citizens must be concerned about it, and as legislators we must be concerned about it. However, we can disagree on the proper methods of procedure.

What is the real danger to America? To my mind the communists are a danger which is being minimized daily. In the first place I do not believe that the communists have any appeal to the great masses of the people of America. I think they know them for what they are. They are on the alert against them and I think the danger is fast being minimized. I think our Federal Bureau of Investigation is doing an excellent job. They do not approve of this type of legislation.

I think, however, there is a new danger appearing and this danger is the well-meaning people who have lost confidence in the way of democracy, who believe that freedom is something now of which we have to be afraid. It is all right when we are in peace times some people tell me. I have heard this argued very persuasively. It is alright when we are at peace, when we do not have any enemies on the horizon, then we can have freedom, let people say what they please—we do not need to take any oaths. But as soon as a cloud comes over the horizon, there is danger in the air, then let us take away these liberties, they are a luxury, we can only afford them when the going is good. They are a liability to us really. They are nice, but can we afford them is the persuasive argument that we hear.

I say we can not only afford them—I say that freedom is a weapon which works on our side but it is a weapon we should not throw away because I believe the people in America are intelligent. The more freedom you give them to hear all sides in their newspapers, in public discussions, have it taught in the class room, the more chances there are they are going to make right decisions and they are going to defend this thing we call "democracy" and the nation which sponsors it.

But if you take away freedom, if you whittle it down with a beginning such as you have here, you are taking the road to deflect us from that path of Americanism and democracy and start us on another path which counts freedom as a rather precarious thing that we cannot afford. I say let us keep freedom. Let us keep it to its full. Let us not admit to anyone that freedom is a thing that is a liability to a nation when the going is tough. Let us not remove the very goal for which we are fighting.

I think the members in this House have had ample opportunity to think over this bill. I do not flatter myself that anything I say, coming at this date, is going to have a very great effect. But I do want you to think about this matter. I want you to know what you are doing because other Legislatures have passed other bills and have been thoroughly ashamed of them, and their sons and grandsons have been ashamed of them.

Do not bow to a momentary feeling of hysteria and fear or pressure and do something for which you, your children and your grandchildren may be sorry; things that they may look back on in the same light as they look back upon the things in American history which I have discussed earlier; blots which we would gladly expunge from the pages of American history. Let us not let this be a black mark on the history of Pennsylvania.

Mr. BOLTON. Mr. Speaker, I am sure that each Member of this House is dedicated to the noble ideal of freedom. But if we are to possess this freedom, we must have loyalty, we must have unflinching courage to defend the heritage of freedom which was determined and proclaimed at Independence Hall. We must have the courage to defend that heritage which was resolved at Valley Forge, in World War I and forged again in World War II.

Our American way of life is not a political accident. Our republic arose from the fact that the founders believed in the proposition that if men are equal in any respect, they are equal in all respects, and have, therefore, an inalienable right to govern themselves and determine their destiny.

It is this fundamental reasoning that Joe Stalin, his agents and communist fellow travelers deny. It is this violently opposed proposition that we should be determined to assert just as long as any of us have breath. We should be determined to be free as long as any of us have strength to resist being bound in slavery.

All of us here are duty bound to do our utmost to retain what we have inherited through the hard effort, misery and privation of our forbearers.

We spent a considerable amount of time early in this session on the subject of civil defense. And, Mr. Speaker, I believe that part of our civil defense is protecting ourselves from within. Part of the protection we need is found in the provisions of the Pechan Loyalty Oath Bill which now awaits passage by this House.

This bill is part of our insurance for survival and it is insurance which costs us nothing. It is insurance which we can pass on to our families, our constituents in our own lifetime. We should do our utmost to make certain here and now in the instance of this bill that we provide a definite means to protect ourselves from within against subversives.

We have made an extremely belated start in this country to imprison traitors. Gus Hall, the bail jumper, the dynamite expert, a Moscow trained agent, was captured in Mexico and is now on trial. Seven other communist traitors still are evading jail, seven more are in prison; 28 are indicted and awaiting trial, while 27 others are under arrest. These are the leaders—all of them—charged with plotting the violent overthrow of this, our government.

Because such people are among us is one good reason why Pennsylvania needs a Loyalty oath bill—the bill which now awaits final passage by this House.

One of the most serious problems of our times is determining who is and who is not loyal to American ideals and traditions.

The Pechan Loyalty Oath bill will give us a measure of added protection against subversive elements. It will help weed out of public and semi-public institutions those who do not believe in our system of government.

The oath contained in this bill is a clear statement of loyalty to the Commonwealth and to the United States of America. I fail to see how any one whose conscience is clear could or should refuse to take such an oath at this time or any time.

In times such as these you are either a loyal American or you are not. There can be no compromise with that, with those grounds.

Only those who are disloyal to the Commonwealth and to these United States of America can or should fear any consequences from taking this oath. Disloyal persons want to avoid perjuring themselves and going to jail. This is the essence of the loyalty oath bill and do not let anyone tell you otherwise.

The argument that the loyalty oath bill is unnecessary is senseless. A Federal loyalty oath now in effect has been effective in removing either voluntarily or involuntarily those whose loyalty to the United States of America is less than desirable.

There are still more Alger Hisses around who might be in public employ. The purpose of this bill—Senate Bill 27—is to find them.

The gentleman from York mentioned a gentleman named Julian Goldberg, I believe it was. Unfortunately, I do not have the pleasure of knowing the gentleman in question. I am familiar, however, with the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the American Legion, and the Disabled American Veterans, and the Jewish War Veterans, and their auxiliaries, and a good many organizations along those lines. I find that these organizations have worked untiringly for this bill. They have been a leader in the fight to arouse people all over this Commonwealth to the desirability of this bill and they have also aroused people in every corner of this Commonwealth to watch the action of the House of Representatives here in Harrisburg in their consideration of this bill. I fully believe that the people of this Commonwealth want this bill.

I, therefore, urge that Senate Bill No. 27 be passed by this House of Representatives so that faithlessness can be supplanted with fidelity; treachery with allegiance; treason with devotion; and disloyalty with loyalty, to help guarantee our freedom and our children's freedom and their children's freedom.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from York has made a very excellent case against the necessity for a loyalty oath, but we still have to consider the other matter and that is the desirability of this oath.

Some of us may have forgotten a fact which I would like to call to your attention and that is that for the last 77 years the Pennsylvania Constitution has provided that Senators, Representatives, all Judicial, State and County officers shall, before entering on the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe to the following oath or affirmation, which reads as follows:

"I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will support, obey and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity . . ."

The oath then goes on to recite that the person has not procured his election by buying it and so forth.

I would like to point out to you that no subversive person as defined in this bill could possibly stay within that oath, if that were the only oath taken because you cannot "obey, and defend the Constitution of the United States and this state" and still seek to overthrow this government by violence or force. The two are so obviously inconsistent that it requires no persuasion at all to have you agree with that.

So, my thought on this particular oath is that it means exactly the same thing as the oath we have been taking as Members of this House and the oath that all other elected officials of this Commonwealth have been taking since the Constitution of 1873.

The more I listen to this debate and the more I hear about this bill, the more I think of those words of Shakespeare when he said in one of his plays, there is "Much ado about nothing." I do not mean to say that this is not an important matter, but I do say that we are certainly spending a lot of time and a lot of words over something which really boils down to a question of desirability.

Is it desirable thing to have the people take, who are going to work for our government, or is it not?

The founders of our Constitution back in 1873 thought it was important and they put it into the Constitution. I have not heard anyone complain in all these years that this oath which they have been taking is unnecessary or undesirable. So, I am wondering now why we are raising so much fuss about whether a person should or should not take this oath. It never seemed to be so important before and we have been through lots of times of stress and trial. So, I do not think it is of any earth-shaking importance to us today whether or not this oath is taken.

In my opinion, it is desirable and I am going to vote for it. In the opinion of those who think it is unnecessary and undesirable, they will probably vote against it. But I do fail to see that it is going to move the foundations of Pennsylvania one way or the other. I simply feel we should decide whether it is desirable; if we think it is, we vote for it; if we think it is undesirable, we vote against it.

Mr. LOUIS LEONARD. Mr. Speaker, in my humble opinion the Members of this House this afternoon are being called upon to make a momentous decision. It has already been referred to that you may be sorry for the position which you took today, and again you might be glad you did.

First of all I want to emphasize that I will take the oath as the law requires, have always done so. That is a good catchy phrase, that a good American will not hesitate to take the oath.

This bill was introduced on the 15th day of last January—almost 12 months ago. It has been hanging around the state Capitol all that time, has been amended as far as I can find eight times, and finally passed the Senate in March and has been in and around the House here from March 29th to December 19th, that is today.

I am perfectly honest when I say to you gentlemen that I am a great believer in the American jury system. I want to know both sides of the story before I make a decision, and I do not like to be kidded about it or strong-armed on the idea. For the last eleven and a half months I failed to find anyone who presented a logical reason for this bill. Our statutes are already covered with bills which take care of traitors to our country. The police, I presume by the millions throughout the length and breadth of this country, are on the alert all the time in the protection of our country.

The school teacher is selected, I presume, by the superintendent of the school. The superintendent of schools is selected by the Board of Education. Can anyone in this audience think for a moment that a member of the Board of Education would select a superintendent of schools who was not a sincere American, and on down the line would that superintendent in turn select a teacher who was not a sincere American? And is not their background checked from the time they left the cradle? How could a communist get on our school boards now that we have been awakened by the trials which are taking place all over our country, trying the traitors—I do not call them communists; I call them out and out traitors to our way of government and it is just impossible for me to believe that it is possible for a communistic minded teacher to get on our payrolls.

The same applies to an elected official. The people in your neighborhood are familiar with your background. They know in most cases your background and what kind of a citizen you have been. And you leave it to the voters—they rarely make a mistake in making their selection insofar as being an American is concerned. I know they make a lot of mistakes on other matters.

The Act of 1941 takes care of the traitors, as I said before, and as I outlined is the Board of Education's responsibility. I say to you gentlemen, you cannot legislate good citizenship; that is completely out of the question. What we, as good Americans, ought to have in mind, we must have good government, government that treats all the people the same, equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

The remarks of the gentleman from York County cover the situation so thoroughly that it brought to my mind the condition that existed in Pennsylvania prior to the National Labor Relations Act. A lot of the Members of the House sitting here know the conditions which existed in their big industrial centers where the sheriff and the mayor and the D. A. were on the company's payroll—where a 100 percent American proved his worth representing a 100 percent American organization; came at the response of the workers in that industrial center for the purpose of aiding them to establish an organization so they could compel their employer to sit across the conference table. And what happened? Ever so many times that 100 percent American was banned by that company policeman, company mayor, company D. A. Even to the state Capitol.

I came here to get redress out of one of the industrial centers. The Governor was good enough to give me an audience and he called in the Attorney General. The Attorney General said, "I'll have to check; I'll be back in 20 minutes." He came back and said "I can't do anything about it."

That is the condition to which this bill might lead—I hope it does not; but it does give the guy a chance to put his foot in the door. And he will have that foot in the door and when the next session comes along and the wrong people are elected to the House of Representatives, this could be easily changed to compel the industrial worker to take the loyalty oath. It is the easiest thing in the world to get something on the worker.

In the days which I have been talking about, he worked 14 hours night turn, 10 hours day turn, 7 days a week, when he worked—just when he worked. He was on the street a good many times. All right, he and I are good friends, we had a couple of dimes in our pockets and we liked a glass of beer. So we went to our favorite tavern and we stood at the bar, and with the great big glass of beer we used to get in those days, either he or I—I am using myself as an example of actual experience—we get to discussing our working conditions. It is pretty rotten—we are getting about one-third or one-half of what we should be getting. That is only between the two of us; we did not think anything of it—we had a couple of big beers. The next morning I picked up my pay check. The fellow to whom I was talking and who was my friend and associate with whom I worked, was a company spy. That happened thousands of times in our big industrial centers prior to the National Labor Relations Act.

And I still insist, not because of all these communications which I have here—they come from the highest educational set-up in the state, individual citizens, churches, and people—I do not think really anyone likes to sit down and write a letter—when I write a letter it is because I have to—these people sat down and wrote letters and expressed their opposition to this bill, and I think they know what they are talking about.

We had a discussion here this morning on Senate Bill 27 and it was insisted that that language “reasonable doubt” was out of the bill. “Reasonable doubt” is in the bill. I only looked at it in about two places, it is still in there, and as you heard me say a few days ago, a former state Attorney General had a “reasonable doubt” that caused an assistant D. A. in Allegheny County to lose a year’s work. Five eminent attorneys made a complete investigation and freed the D. A.’s assistant outright.

The people who would not be familiar or who would not be in love with the political party that this D. A. belongs to will always have it in their craw. To say that he has leanings towards the communist party, that is a statement that if I were the jury, for which Mr. Former Attorney General would have to pay dearly.

I started my remarks by saying we are called upon to make a momentous decision. I hope you will listen to Mr. Seyler from York County because he really laid it on for you, and I hope you will be guided in casting your vote by the evidence presented to you.

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, I want to present the position of the Pennsylvania CIO Council on this bill. It is in the form of a letter which was mailed on December 7th. But this letter is still in effect, and the President of the Pennsylvania CIO Council informed me that the position of the Council is still the same.

There is only one paragraph of this letter on page 2 which does not apply to the latest revised edition of the bill.

To the Honorable Members of the House of Representatives

The Pennsylvania CIO Council is unalterably opposed to S. 27, commonly known as the Loyalty Oath Bill.

This bill seriously infringes upon the basic rights of free speech and tends to impose thought control upon a large number of citizens of this State.

It will not do what its supporters think it will, i.e., that to require of certain people the taking of an oath attesting to their loyalty will keep persons of subversive tendencies out of office. To say that such a premise is incredibly naive is to put it mildly indeed. This bill facetiously presupposes that Communists hold serious their regard for an oath. This is simply not true. They will not hesitate to swear falsely under oath if it suits their purpose. One’s imagination must be strained indeed if they think for a moment the requirement of a loyalty oath will separate traitors from patriots.

We must be careful, lest by the bold stroke of a pen we would wipe out certain basic freedoms which are our heritage hard won. This bill would work hardship to some whose loyalty is beyond question.

Avenues of appeal afford scant protection to anyone accused under this bill.

This bill does not attempt to define loyalty. It lists a number of activities or associations which “may be considered” in the discharge of an employee, but the agency making the decision is not limited to them. Shall every public job in this State hang on the whim of administrators who might entertain “reasonable doubts?” The opportunities for abuse and recurring harassment under such vague provision are unlimited.

In the case of a teacher, this bill supersedes, as inadequate, the present Tenure Act under which teachers may be discharged for the advocacy of or participation in “un-American or subversive doctrines.” It adds an undefined test of “loyalty.”

Under this bill, every municipality and school district in the Commonwealth, in a period of rising hysteria when care must be exercised to protect basic civil rights, could conceivably become engaged in a continuous witch hunt designed to punish unorthodox political opinion.

Under this bill irreparable injury to the reputation of innocent persons is more than a possibility; it is a likelihood.

Really dangerous subversives will be caught by careful, constant, professional investigation by an agency such as the FBI, and not by pieces of paper.

The vast majority of our people are intensely loyal, as they have amply demonstrated. To question, even by implication, the loyalty and devotion of a large group of citizens is to create an atmosphere of suspicion and distrust which is neither justified, healthy nor consistent with our tradition.

We must be careful that we do not establish an instrumentality which may be a two-edged sword, more dangerous to ourselves than to our foes.

The Pennsylvania CIO Council is opposed to all forms of totalitarianism. We are also opposed to adopting totalitarian methods in seeking to determine one’s “loyalty.” This bill would create a gigantic thought control machinery capable of terrifying abuses, whose effect would be to punish unorthodox opinion and to impose conformity as established by those in appointing positions.

We must fight traitors with laws. We already have laws. We must fight falsehood and evil ideas with trust and better ideas. We have them in plenty. But we must not confuse the two.

The unnecessary bill jeopardizes the freedom of sincere and honest citizens in an attempt to catch and punish subversives.

We must not burn down the house to kill the rats. The Pennsylvania CIO Council respectfully urges you to oppose this bill.

Sincerely yours,

Harry Boyer, President.

I have here a telegram which was sent to Harry Boyer, President of Pennsylvania CIO Council, in response to this analysis. This telegram reads as follows:

“I have read your excellent analysis of Senate Bill 27, the so-called loyalty oath bill, as contained in your letter to Members of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives. Your letter exactly reflects my position on this most dangerous piece of legislation and I want to lend all the support I can to its defeat." (This was signed)

Philip Murray, President Congress of Industrial Organizations

Let me go one step further and read you a part of the message of Governor Stevenson of Illinois, when he vetoed a bill similar in nature. As a matter of fact the bill which he vetoed is stronger than this one. The following is the text of the message which Governor Stevenson filed on June 26, 1951 in explanation of his veto of the proposed Seditious Activities Act:

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 102, entitled "An Act to protect against subversive activities by making it a crime to commit or advocate acts intended to effect the overthrow of the Government of the United States or the State of Illinois or of any political subdivision thereof by violence or other unlawful means, or to attempt or conspire so to do, by defining subversive organizations and making them illegal, by establishing procedures to ensure the loyalty of candidates for public office and of public officers and employees, and providing for the enforcement of the provisions of said act, and providing penalties for the violation thereof."

I veto and withhold my approval from this bill for the following reasons:

The stated purpose of this bill is to combat the menace of world Communism. That the Communist Party—and all it stands for—is a danger to our Republic, as real as it is sinister, is clear to all who have the slightest understanding of our democracy. No one attached to the principles of our society will debate this premise or quarrel with the objectives of this bill.

Agreed upon ends, our concern is with means. It is in the choice of methods to deal with recognized problems that we Americans, in and out of public life, so often develop differences of opinion. Our freedom to do so is a great source of strength and, if not impaired by mistakes of our own will contribute greatly to the ultimate confusion of the enemies of freedom.

The issue with respect to means raised by this bill has two aspects. One is the question of the need for it in relation to existing weapons for the control of subversives. The other is whether this addition to our arsenal may not be a two-edged sword, more dangerous to ourselves than to our foes.

Were the latter alone involved, I should hesitate to impose my judgment upon that of the majority of the General Assembly. But it is precisely because the evil at hand has long been identified and provided against that we were in Illinois need not now do something bad just for the sake of doing something.

Does anyone seriously think that a real traitor will hesitate to sign a loyalty oath? Of course not. Really dangerous subversives and saboteurs will be caught by careful, constant, professional investigation, and not by pieces of paper.

The whole notion of loyalty inquisitions is a natural characteristic of the police state, not of democracy. Knowing his rule rests upon compulsion rather than consent, the dictator must always assume the disloyalty, not of a few but of many, and guard against it by continual inquisition and liquidation of the unreliable. The history of Soveit Russia is a modern example of this ancient practice. The democratic state, on the other hand, is based on the consent of its members. The vast majority of our people are intensively loyal, as they have amply demonstrated. To question, even by implication, the loyalty and devotion of a large group of citizens is to create an atmosphere of suspicion and distrust which is neither justified, healthy nor consistent with our traditions.

Legislation of this type, in Illinois and elsewhere, is the direct result of the menacing gains of Communism in Europe and Asia. But it would be unrealistic, if not naive, to assume that such legislation would be effective in combatting Communist treachery in America. Such state laws have nowhere uncovered a single case of subversive disloyalty.

Basically, the effect of this legislation, then, will be less the detection of subversives and more the intimidation of honest citizens. But we cannot suppress thought and expression and preserve the freedoms guaranteed by the Bill of Rights. This is our dilemma. In time of danger we seek to protect ourselves from sedition, but in doing so we imperil the very freedoms which we seek to protect, just as we did in the evil atmosphere of the Alien and Sedition law, of John Adams' administration, and just as Britain did during the Napoleonic era. To resolve the dilemma we will all agree that in the last analysis the Republic must be protected at all costs, or there will be no freedoms to preserve or even regain. But if better means of protection already exist, then surely we should not further imperil the strength of freedom in search of illusory safety.

We must fight traitors with laws. We already have the laws. We must fight falsehood and evil ideas with truth and better ideas. We have them in plenty. But we must not confuse the two. Laws infringing our rights and intimidating unoffending persons without enlarging our security will neither catch subversives nor win converts to our better ideas. And in the long run evil ideas can be counteracted and conquered, not by laws but only by better ideas.

Finally, the states are not, in my judgment, equipped to deal with the threat of world Communism which inspired this bill. Communism threatens us because it threatens world peace. The great problems with which Communism confronts us are problems of foreign relations and national defense. Our Constitution wisely leaves the solution of such matters to the national government.

In conclusion, while I respect the motives and patriotism of the proponents of this bill, I think there is in it more of danger to the liberties we seek to protect than of security for the republic. It reverses our traditional concept of justice by placing upon the accused the burden of proving himself innocent. It makes felons of persons who may be guilty more of bad judgment than of anything else. It jeopardizes the freedom of sincere and honest citizens in an attempt to catch and punish subversives. It is unnecessary and redundant.

I know full well that this veto will be distorted and misunderstood. I know that to veto this bill in this period of grave anxiety will be unpopular with many. But I must, in good conscience, protest against any unnecessary suppression of our ancient rights as free men. Moreover, we will win the contest of ideas that afflicts the world, not by suppressing these rights, but by their triumph."

I want to also read the final sentence so that it is heard by all.

"We must not burn down the house to kill the rats."

Mr. WILBUR H. HAMILTON. Mr. Speaker, it will not make a particle of difference to me whether anyone in the Hall of the House pays any attention to what I am going to say, but I am going to reply just very briefly, courteously and honestly to a few statements made by that fluent orator, the gentleman from York.

To Mr. Seyler I would like to say this, that temerity on my part would prevent me from engaging in a debate with a man who is so fluent and powerful and persuasive as he is. But I do feel that he should be brought up to date on what occurred in the state of Massachusetts on September 13, 1951. My presumption is that you did not see this statement in the Philadelphia Inquirer, and I want to make it unmistakably clear that these two gentlemen are only indicted; they have not been convicted. But it does prove that the state of Massachusetts is making progress. According to a report in the Philadelphia Inquirer on September 19, 1951, a professor named Derk J. Truett of the Massachusetts Institution of Technology was accused of entering into conspiracy to overthrow the government of the United State, and he is a secret member of the communist party. Now again let me reiterate he is merely indicted; not convicted.

There is another gentleman who is known as Harry Winter of Malvern, Massachusetts, who was also indicted for being involved in the same conspiracy. I do not know what the outcome of their trials will be, but there is a possibility that two more will be added in the state of Massachusetts.

During the course of that brilliant discourse delivered by the gentleman from York, he referred to a report that was prepared by several eminent attorneys, the counsel for which was Julian Goldberg who was the general counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union. I do not know anything about Mr. Goldberg. I never heard his name or read his name until I saw his name on the letterhead of the American Civil Liberties Union. Now Mr. Goldberg can be one of the finest gentlemen in the United States of America so far as I am concerned, but I do know this, that one of the members of the Board of Directors of the American Civil Liberties Union for which Mr. Goldberg is the general counsel, is a man named Roger N. Baldwin.

Roger N. Baldwin, and I am quite sure this is the same Roger N. Baldwin, was a draft dodger in World War I. In addition to that and for that crime he served a prison term. Worse than that, Roger N. Baldwin in a report of the Un-American Activities Commission of the House of Representatives in Washington, according to the testimony in that report—and I have an official copy, and to prevent taking a tremendous amount of time I am not going to read it—but Roger N. Baldwin, according to his own statement in answering questions is one who advocated overthrowing the United States government by force and violence. Now Julian N. Goldberg, the general counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union, who incidentally is opposing the adoption of this bill very vigorously, should certainly make a careful examination of some of the leaders of that organization.

In addition to Roger N. Baldwin there is another gentleman whose name is Corliss Lamont. Corliss Lamont wrote several books, and in one of those books he said that he is advocating socialism—he has a perfect right to do that—he says that socialism will some day give way to communism. I realize that I am picking out a sentence in a statement but I am not going to try to quote the entire book verbatim, for that would be impossible.

I realize that the gentleman from York made an intensive study of this situation, a very sincere study, and I would not have referred to this except for the names which he mentioned in the course of his remarks.

I would like to say this to the gentleman from York: The Good Lord has blessed our home with three children. Some day we might have grandchildren, and I hope we do, and I suppose for an old reprobate like myself my grandchildren, Mr. Seyler, will be ashamed of me for many reasons, but if any of them come into the world I do not think they will be ashamed of me if I cast my vote in favor of Senate Bill 27 in this session of the General Assembly.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. Speaker, I have no desire to prolong the debate but I feel I must answer some of the allegations made by the last speaker.

I first of all wish to thank him for his fulsome praise of my remarks. I think they scarcely merit them. I would like to answer some of the points he made and include also the gentleman from Montgomery, who spoke on the same point.

Neither of them, unfortunately, have heard of Mr. Julian Goldberg, and I may be over sensitive on behalf of Mr. Goldberg, but I thought I detected an implication, at least in the remarks of the gentleman from Montgomery, that if that was the case there was probably something wrong with the gentleman. I would like to say that Mr. Goldberg is counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union of the greater Philadelphia branch and I would like to mention a few names that perhaps the gentleman from Philadelphia and the gentleman from Montgomery have heard of who are on this Board.

The Executive Board which Mr. Julian Goldberg represents and in whose name he speaks is large, I will not mention all the names for I feel sure they, too, will suffer from not having been heard of by the gentlemen; but I would mention a few. I would mention the name of Joseph S. Clarke. I hardly think there is any Republican in the city of Philadelphia or in Montgomery County who has not heard of Mr. Joseph S. Clarke, the newly elected mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

Then I would mention the name of Earl G. Harrison who is one of the outstanding legal luminaries of this Commonwealth and formerly Dean of the Law School of the University of Pennsylvania.

Then I would mention the name of the Honorable Owen J. Roberts, a former Justice of the Supreme Court. I would suspect that even such non-legal persons as Mr. Hamilton and Mr. Bolton may possibly have heard of him. It may be of course, that I have named Mr. Clark to his discredit perhaps in their thinking as a Democrat, but I would mention the fact that Mr. Roberts is of the opposite party.

Now I mention that in order to straighten the record, because I feel some responsibility for having introduced Mr. Goldberg's name into the record.

I would also say in defense of the national organization that this represents, that the American Civil Liberties Union is one of the outstanding defenders of American liberties wherever they are attached. They do not hesitate to defend anyone; they are a strictly non-communist organization. They have been very careful to be positively free from any possible claim of any attachment.

In the case of Mr. Baldwin you got a brief sketch of his life from Mr. Hamilton. I do not have the copy of the publication in my hands but about the September issue of Harper's magazine, August or September, you may read a very full article discussing the excellent services Mr. Baldwin has rendered as a member of this organization. Mr. Baldwin was accused in the speech of the gentleman from Philadelphia of being a draft dodger. If you make conscientious objector the equivalent of draft dodgers and resistance of the law deliberately to test the law on draft dodging, perhaps there is a case. Mr. Baldwin, to the best of my knowledge, is thoroughly anti-communist.

The other gentleman mentioned, Mr. Corliss Lamott, I know less about. I am sorry that I have not investigated him. I will point out that this board, too, contains some very reputable names and a name generally associated with the American Civil Liberties Union is the name of Arthur Garfield Hayes, an outstanding defender of American freedom, and if these gentlemen have not heard of him, I am sorry for them, because his name is very renowned as a defender of American liberties. And so I do not apologize for the organization I have quoted nor for Mr. Goldberg, who I understand is an excellent lawyer. I think the opinion he rendered on behalf of this organization deserves to be considered.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, there are very important measures pending. I have no desire to curtail discussion of an important bill. We have up to this time managed to dispense with any parliamentary move involving the previous question. There are some twelve or so members of the Democratic Caucus who are unalterably opposed to this bill. I would suggest that in future discussion, if there is future discussion, that the time belimited to five minutes and remarks extended on the record.

The SPEAKER. The Chair appreciates the suggestion of the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, and requests the Members to be brief in their remarks.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I wish to further call the attention of the minority members to the fact that the Majority Leader would be privileged to move the previous question.

I do not want him to do it. I do not think he wants to do it. If a Member has five minutes on the floor and opportunity to extend his remarks on the record, I think that will get us by the present situation.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I shall be brief. I am in the position where prior to yesterday's amendments to House Bill 27, I would have voted against the measure on the basis of the will of the people in my district at home. Since that time these amendments have changed the bill materially and I am going to vote for the bill.

However, prior to that I had an AMVET Post in my district, West Mifflin AMVET Post No. 92, which was opposed to Senate Bill 27, Printer's No. 615. I would like to cite some of the reasons as to why they were opposed. I feel with the bill in its present amended form, if they had the chance to discuss the bill and go through it thoroughly they would probably be for the bill.

Also I have a Legion Post in my district, Legion Post No. 75, Daniel Keffer Post of Clairton, who were opposed to Senate Bill 27, Printer's No. 615. I might quote from the letter to me from the AMVETS, stating that while Post 92 is in favor of a loyalty oath, it concluded from its study of this bill that it would violate the very rights our country seeks to protect when we all fight communism.

The provisions of the bill, open the door to hearsay evidence and branding a person as a communist solely on hearsay, permit accusation, trial and conviction by a committee which may be composed of only one person, acting as accuser, prosecutor, judge and jury, and fails in plain, everyday language to provide for a speedy means of appeal to the courts of our state. It is a departure from the accepted traditional methods of American justice set up by our Constitution and Bill of Rights.

This bill will benefit communists alone, for it is adopted to their plan to make our American heritage, our Constitution and laws appear ridiculous before the world; for it affords them an opportunity to have an anti-communist law declared unconstitutional.

Now that is just briefly. They go on to state that we understand some changes are to be made in the bill and respectfully request a copy of such changes as soon as possible so that we may have an opportunity to study them before final action.

I am sure if they had a copy of the latest Printer's No. they would go on record as favoring the bill.

I can say the same thing for Clairton Post No. 75 that if they had ample time to study the provisions of this bill from the latest Printer's No. that they would also be in favor of the bill.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, just a few words at this time, I do not want to take the time of the House too much.

I think that each and all of us on this bill for great period of time past have received a lot of literature, protests, recommendations and suggestions.

Originally the bill appeared to me personally, and to many others of us I believe on both sides of the House, as a very bad bill. There have been various amendments up to the present time. I think if we take it down day to day to this present point, many of the objections to the bill, which I originally very vehemently had, have been removed. All that we have remaining here is a simple loyalty oath, not a loyalty oath in the sense of a general loyalty oath, but that I am not a member of any subversive organization which is dedicated to overthrowing the Government of the United States or of this Commonwealth by force and violence.

I would ask the Members on both sides of the House to read the bill and you will see that the oath is not only that I am loyal but it is a specific oath and that is as far as it goes.

The objections raised by the State Education Association as to specific charges, dismissal for disloyalty upon proof beyond a reasonable doubt, provisions for rules of evidence and procedures prevailing in the court, and specific provisions for appeal to the court.

These objections have been satisfied in the present bill. Also the objections raised by the CIO which were read by my colleague Mr. Toll in their letter of December 7th, I believe are substantially satisfied.

When I vote upon this bill I shall not be influenced by the opinions of any pressure group on any side, whether it be one group or another group. I believe that all groups have been generally as Americans interested in this bill. I think if we read the bill we will find that it is simply a bill stating that "I am not a subversive and shall not be a subversive dedicated to overthrow the government of the United States or the Commonwealth by force and violence" and nothing more.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, as a Past Judge Advocate of the AMVETS of the State Department of Pennsylvania, I wish to make clear upon the floor of this House the position taken by AMVETS at their Convention held in Harrisburg in 1951.

The AMVETS in 1951 in Convention assembled endorsed the loyalty oath in principle. As late as last week the Department Adjutant as well as the Department Past Commander of the state of Pennsylvania were in this House urging the passage of this particular bill. I am saying this so there will be no misunderstanding from the letter read which is the recommendation of one Post only. It does not represent the feeling of AMVETS in Pennsylvania.

We as an organization are for the loyalty oath bill.

Mr. GRANVILLE E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I just thought maybe I would withdraw the interrogation I was going to make on this bill in order to keep within the time that is allotted to me.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

Mr. GRANVILLE E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to express the opinion of the citizens of the Commonwealth in regard to the matter which we are discussing today, the amendments to this bill.

Senate Bill 27, known as the Loyalty Oath bill, has created a state of affairs to enter into the minds of the people of this state. The loyal and true Americans have begun to feel that if this bill is enacted into law it would endanger their constitutional rights.

This act would give those in the capacity of president, chairman, director, superintendent or supervisor the right and privilege to hold a club over the heads of the unfortunate or accused persons and would place them at the mercy of a possible political minded trial Judge—even if it appeared that a reasonable doubt exists the individual could still be found guilty. He would have to prove his innocence. Where would he get the money from for this procedure through the courts?

Those in authority making the complaint, who would hold a bit of malice, jealousy or animosity against any person, could have an opportunity to use loyalty oath act, to inconvenience, embarrass, remove the individual altogether from employment by saying that he subversively inclined or a communist because he or she had been outspoken or had expressed an opinion—which is the right of all true Americans under our constitution.

This loyalty oath bill we are now considering reminds me of a group of people in Church—when the Minister shall ask for those that are saved or converted to raise their hand, everybody raises his hand. He also asks those who are not saved to raise their hand—and nobody raises their hand—even though the Pastor may know there are unsaved sinners right before him.

So what is to stop the unrighteous, the subversive, or the communistically inclined person from taking an oath? It does not reform him by taking the oath—he just says yes, I do solemnly swear, or pledges to carry out the oath and obligations when administered to him and continue to work right along with the rest of the true and loyal Americans, who will be apprehended?

This bill has nothing in it which would compel all the public workers to take the loyalty oath.

I have had ample time—like the rest of you Members during the recess of this House—I would support or favor a loyalty oath that would take in all of the public workers or political subdivisions of the state.

Should the citizens of Pennsylvania submit to a system of having their thoughts analyzed before they could speak? The answer is decidedly, no. This is what will happen if this bill becomes enacted into law.

Why should we destroy the act passed by the Legislature in July 28, 1941, which provides for the dismissal of any person guilty of an overt act. Even the State Supreme Court has ruled that the membership in the Communist Party is a cause for discharge from State employment. It is the duty of the FBI to investigate those who seek to overthrow the government and bring them to justice. We should let it remain that way.

I am wondering why the American Legion is supporting this bill when it seeks to condemn and destroy the privilege—

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman about to conclude his remarks?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I suggest that since the gentleman is reading from a manuscript he submit the manuscript for the record.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

Mr. GRANVILLE E. JONES. I would like to finish just one more paragraph, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will extend sufficient time for one more paragraph, if the paragraph is not too long.

Mr. GRANVILLE E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I would call to the attention of the Members of this House that on December 18, 1951, the General Assembly concurred in House Resolution 77, directing the Joint State Government Commission to study and investigate Un-American and subversive activities in the Commonwealth. This is another reason why we should not have a loyalty oath bill.

Mr. BOLTON. Mr. Speaker, I should like briefly to interrogate the gentleman from York, Mr. Seyler.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman yield for just a moment?

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, how long will the interrogation take?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman state the extent of the interrogation he has in mind.

Mr. BOLTON. One question, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I yield for one question.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, yields for one question. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

My. SEYLER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Might the Chair inquire how long the answer will take?

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. Speaker, it will depend on the question.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Bolton, will proceed.

Mr. BOLTON. Mr. Speaker, can Mr. Seyler tell me, is the American Civil Liberties Union of which Mr. Goldberg is the counsel the same Civil Liberties Union whose bail money has been refused by the Federal courts in New York in the various trials of communists held in that city?

Mr. SEYLER. I can answer that question, Mr. Speaker.

The answer is "no." That organization—I do not remember the name—it is the Congress of something—it has nothing to do with the American Civil Liberties Union.

Mr. BOLTON. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I am sorry if I did not make myself clear when I stated that one Amvet group in my district was opposed to Senate Bill 27, Printer's No. 615, and did not read the letter in full length. If Mr. Lopresti wishes, he can read the letter in full length.

I want it on record that they would be satisfied with the bill in its present form, and I voting for the measure.

Mr. ROSEN. Mr. Speaker, I am not going to take up time in debate but I would like to have my remarks in objection to this bill spread on the record.

Mr. Speaker; In order to clarify my position in opposition to S. 27, I want to state that I am opposed to "Loyalty Oaths" in principle and for the fact that they do not serve the purpose for which they are designed but are oppressive and stifle thought.

Morris Rosen.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, I feel that this matter is of such importance that full expression and debate should take place upon this floor. I feel quite certain that each and every one is anxious to get this session over with, but yet we are about to act upon a measure that for the first time in the history of this Commonwealth we have ever dared to present a bill of this nature for the decision of this Assembly.

We all know that there was not another bill before this Assembly that evoked such expressions pro and con as did Senate Bill 27. I feel that it deserves the deliberation—and I would say prayer—upon the part of each and every Member of this House before he casts his vote on this measure. And I feel quite certain that if each and every Member would vote his convictions, this bill would never pass; but that the vote which will be cast here today will be the result of pressure.

I say to you that the speech, the talk that was given to you today by the gentleman from York, Mr. Seyler, was one of the finest talks that I have ever had the privilege to hear upon the floor of this Assembly during the two sessions that I have been privileged to serve here. And I think that each and every one of you, before you make a decision on this case, should bear in mind and think very, seriously before you cast the vote that you intend to cast today. It is a most important vote. It is important to every citizen in this Commonwealth, because if you pass this bill today you are going to say that in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania if you have chosen the profession of teaching or if you have chosen an avocation or vocation as a public servant, you are classifying yourself as a second class citizen of this Commonwealth because you and you alone are required to stand up and lift your hand to God and take an oath swearing that you are a loyal citizen of this Commonwealth, where each and every other citizen is exempt from such an oath.

I say to you it is most serious from the facts that were given to you by Mr. Seyler; most serious from the statements that I have made to you here today. And I want you to feel that when you do cast your vote you are casting it in all seriousness.

Mr. McINROY. Mr. Speaker, in case some of us other teachers and ex-teachers in this Assembly might be misinterpreted as agreeing with Mr. Seyler on the other side and the gentleman who just spoke, I would like to say that not only I, but I have spoken with dozens of other teachers—we are of the opposite opinion.

I think there are times when many people are kind hearted but soft-headed. It is easy to sympathize with criminals. Remember the Lingbergh kidnapping case when Hauptman was about to be electrocuted, how people wrote all sorts of letters and even threatened Lindbergh and his family with violence. They are always for the under-dog.

I submit to you that a communist is a traitor and should be treated as a traitor. Mr. Seyler has taught history—I taught history at one time, too; but he was talking of other things when he mentioned the freedom of religion. Yes, we will agree with freedom of religion; but not freedom to overthrow our government. Our boys and other boys are fighting in Korea this very minute—the papers were filled with lists of prisoners yesterday and today, those imprisoned by the communists. This is a serious matter; it is not only a temporary thing; it is something to look forward to in the future.

I say the teachers do not object to this bill. And when you talk about this convicting on evidence; it must be legal evidence, and there are not going to be any "witch hunts" at all. I think the gentleman from Allegheny County was a little out of step when he said you can always trust those who are appointed in this government and who are elected in this government. Did any one in this group ever hear of Alger Hiss and some of the others who were appointed to government offices? Did we ever hear of those who stole our atomic secrets and sent them over to Russia? And there are many others who might do that.

No, any teacher in this Commonwealth who will not subscribe to this oath, or who can be proven to be subversive by legal evidence with all the safeguards they have been thrown around it, should be discharged. I do not fear for the teachers of Pennsylvania; neither are they fearing. They did not like the bill in its original form, some of them; but I am thinking of ourselves and all the rest of us. We need not fear this bill unless we are subversive ourselves.

Let us vote "yes" for the bill without fear or favor. It is a good bill.

Mr. CLAPPER. Mr. Speaker, I have listened very attentively to the various arguments that were given on this bill. I have the greatest of respect for my distinguished colleague from York, and I respect the manner in which he made his presentation on this bill, but I want to say that as a teacher myself it is a great pleasure for me this afternoon to cast my vote upon this bill.

My remarks shall be brief, but I want to make this one assertion, that I want to be an American now and as long as I live, and I want to say that in the schoolrooms of America we can still be free to speak as we like in our classes in history. I have no fear of any results coming from this bill. If in my discussion I should speak of communism as a good thing and not as one of the most poisonous isms that now exists, then I should be removed from my public position and be replaced by one who will continue to follow the teachings of those principles that have been laid down by our heroic forefathers when our Constitution was founded.

I would call upon every Member this afternoon to cast his vote in favor of this great loyalty oath bill that will guarantee security to America now and forever.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the last two addresses, I want to set the House right.

I was one of the sponsors of this bill that this House and the Senate passed that would have outlawed communism in this Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and I say that I was sincere when that bill was introduced. I say that communism and communists should be outlawed.

I say further that any subversive, whether it be a communist, Nazi, Facist or whatever it may be, who teaches in the public schools of Pennsylvania or holds public office, can be handled under the subversive laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as they now exist.

I say further in reply to the statement made about Alger Hiss, that Alger Hiss was not found guilty under any loyalty oath bill; that Alger Hiss would have been one of the first to have taken a loyalty oath and thought that he could hide behind the cloak of a loyalty oath.

What you are doing here, if you pass this bill, is to provide protection for those whom you are trying to get at, but in so doing you are taking away from loyal American citizens privileges that those boys to whom you refer are now fighting for in ore and who have fought in past wars that this government has engaged in, those ways for which those boys are giving their lives today. The least that we here can do is to back them up in seeing to it that repressive legislation such as this is not made a part of the law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I think this bill has been as thoroughly debated as any measure I have seen in the time I have spent here in Harrisburg, both in the newspapers, leaflets and conversation on this floor. Therefore, whatever I might add to the arguments at this time would not add one whit to the changing of any opinions. You have already heard me express my opinions in connection with this bill. You know what the positions of the proponents of this bill are, and I now say that it is time to have a roll call vote and see where we stand.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. Speaker, I will willingly yield to anyone else in the House if they have anything else to say. My statement will be very, very brief.

It always seems in every session, Mr. Speaker, the State Government Committee inherits a bill that causes a lot of commotion, and I suppose this is the bill.

We have had a lot of deliberation on the bill, and I want to thank the Committee for its action; I thank the Committee for the way it has deliberated.

The bill was brought here on the floor of the House on several occasions, as we know, and returned. I also want to thank those who got together in the various Committees and came to some conclusion as to what they thought was a good bill. Now we are ready for action on the bill.

Much has been said by the opposition that this bill seeks to destroy the fundamental principle of liberty and takes away freedom of speech for certain groups of our citizens. Generally the opponents have been more ferocious than the proponents, and consequently to some extent have confused in the minds of a large percentage of our people of the Commonwealth just what this bill intends to do.

After very careful consideration of all the protests and hundreds of letters and hearings of groups and individuals, personally, in private and open hearing, I firmly believe that the bill takes no freedom from anyone. I would rather describe it as a freedom protective measure. It gives various groups involved a special privilege under our freedom which we have fought for and established down through the years. The freedom of opportunity to declare allegiance to a loyal cause which will help us to preserve our American way of life.

Perhaps this bill will not do all the things we intend it to do; but it will be, if passed, at least a step forward in assuring the citizens of our Commonwealth, including the members of our armed forces, that we intend to try to get rid of subversive persons in public offices, in the teaching profession and other employes in the state-aided institutions.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I do not intend to make a statement. I did intend to as everyone here knows. I was going to vote against this bill in its old form. I am going to vote for the bill and rather than take up the time of the House, I will, if the House will allow me, file my reasons at the time I vote why I am voting for the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. SMITH filed the following reason for his vote on Senate Bill 27:

You may recall that some weeks ago when we were considering Senate Bill 27, I voted to recommit it. At that time, the Bill was bad. I voted to recommit this Bill to the House State Government Committee, so that it could be amended to take out of it those objectionable features that, in my mind, made the Bill a poor piece of legislation.

I considered the Bill particularly bad in that it appeared to be directed at teaching groups—the teachers and professors in our Commonwealth. The Bill at that time was not in accord with American and democratic principles of government.

You may also recall that a few days ago, when we were again considering Senate Bill 27, I was still in favor of recommitting it to Committee because the amendments made to the Bill while in Committee did not remove all of the objectional features. But, today, after the amendments of yesterday, the Bill is in fairly good shape.

If I were compelled to vote on Senate Bill 27, in its last amended form (Printer's No. 672), as distinguished from its present form (Printer's No. 705), I would be compelled in all good conscience to vote against the Bill.

Today, Senate Bill 27, as amended, is simply a Loyalty Oath Bill, together with the procedure to carry out the terms and provisions of the Bill to make it workable. Today Senate Bill 27, as amended, does not effect any teachers group. The bill as now amended does not effect Teachers' Tenure. The bad features of the Bill, the features, to which I objected, have been removed. We now have a good Bill—a Loyalty Oath without the persecution.

Today, I am voting for the Bill.

As I read and understand Senate Bill 27, in its present form, it no longer contains any serious objectionable features. It is true, the Bill is not perfect—but what piece of legislation is perfect. The purpose of the Bill is excellent, and had we more days to spend in considering the Bill, in debating it, I believe we could improve on the Bill.

But now, we are in the last hours of this Session, and since I consider the objectives of this Bill to be proper and excellent, I am going to compromise and settle, and take the Bill in its present amended form and vote for it.

At present, because of the amendments offered yesterday, the Bill is nothing more than a Loyalty Bill. Currently, and for many months, the Bill was referred to as a "Loyalty Oath" or Loyalty Bill". But such a description of the Bill, in all its amended forms, except when it was first introduced, (Senate Bill 27, 27 Pink, Printer's No. 27) and in its present form (Printer's No. 705) was grossly unfair, and certainly incorrect. When introduced it was a loyalty oath bill, but once the Assembly started amending it, it became more than a mere loyalty oath Bill,—the amendments made to this Bill, made it truly obnoxious and grossly unjust to our citizens. It was a persecution Bill.

This Bill, as it now stands, is nothing more than a mere oath of loyalty, spelling out the procedure to be followed in enforcing its terms and provisions—so as to make it work efficiently, which procedure is already on our statute books.

Therefore, as I understand the Bill, I cannot realize how it would adversely affect anyone other than those few subversive individuals we aim to take out of our Government.

I still believe it is a shame to demand that every public employee take a loyalty oath, just to catch a few—but communism and subversive activity, even if on the part of one person out of a lot of our ten and a half million citizens, must be eradicated and its spread brought to an immediate halt.

Therefore, for these reasons, and for a few more, which for the sake of brevity, I will not here state, I vote "YES" on final passage of Senate Bill 27.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 925, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 501 of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by changing fees for hunters' licenses and tags for antlerless deer and compensation for issuing same and providing for issuance by county treasurers only and authorizing licenses and tags for groups of counties

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. GOODLING offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 501) page 3, lines 13 and 14 by striking out the words "or any group of contiguous counties".

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 501), page 4, lines 5 to 8 inclusive, by striking out the words "where the license covers a group of coun-" in line 5 and all of lines 6, 7, and 8.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 501), page 5, lines 1 and 2 by striking out the words "or in any group of counties".

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 501), page 5, line 4 by striking out the words "or group of counties".

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 501), page 6, lines 3 and 4 by striking out the words "or of any county in the group of counties".

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The title was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the title?

Mr. GOODLING offered the following amendment:

Amend Title, page 1, last 3 lines of Title, by striking out the words "and authorizing licenses and tags for groups of counties".

It was agreed to.

The title was agreed to as amended.

And said bill having read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 885, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 608 of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by providing for removal of all protection on raccoons in counties infested with rabies upon notice to commission by Department of Agriculture

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. GOODLING offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 1, by striking out "Section 608" and inserting in lieu thereof "Subsection (b) of section 501."

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 5, by inserting after the word "hereby" the following "further."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 608), page 2, lines 6 to 12 both inclusive by striking out all of said lines, and inserting in lieu thereof the following "Section 501. Open Seasons. After investigation, or information otherwise obtained by the commission, as to the annual game supply, the commission may, by appropriate rules and regulations, a summary of which shall be published as hereinafter specified, fix seasons, shooting hours, and daily, season and possession limits, or remove protection and declare an open season; or increase, reduce or close seasons, or increase or reduce bag limits, for all species of game birds and game animals throughout the Commonwealth, or in any part thereof, or limit the number of hunters in any designated area and prescribe the methods of hunting therein, when in its opinion, such action is necessary to assure the maintenance of an adequate supply of such species, or when an unbalanced sex ratio exists which in its opinion should be corrected, or when, in the opinion of the commission, such additional open season will not jeopardize the future supply of game.

(b) Raccoons; Not to Be Trapped; Exceptions Removal of Protection, Etc. Except in defense of person or property, it is unlawful for any person to take, or attempt to take, raccoons through the use of traps or deadfalls, except in such county or counties as the commission may, by proper resolution, public notice of which shall be given as hereinafter provided, declare open to trapping when in its opinion raccoons are sufficiently abundant to justify such trapping, but the provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to prevent any bona fide occupant of a farm which lies within any county not declared open to general public raccoon trapping, who is a citizen of the United States and actually resides upon and cultivates such farm, or any immediate member of his family, or regularly hired help of such occupant, if any such person is a citizen of the United States, actually residing upon and cultivating such farm, from trapping raccoons thereon including the woodlands connected therewith as a part thereof, so long as any such person complies with the provisions of this act or the rules and regulations adopted thereunder governing trapping methods, seasons and bag limits, unless the commission has denied or this act does deny to any such person the right to hunt or trap anywhere in this Commonwealth."

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The title was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the title?

Mr. GOODLING offered the following amendment:

Amend Title, page 1, line 1 of Title, by striking out "Section 608."

It was agreed to.

The title was agreed to as amended.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 897, entitled

An Act to implement Article fourteen section eight of the Constitution of Pennsylvania providing for the election or appointment compensation terms and disposition of the duties of certain of the former County officers and employees in the City of Philadelphia by amendments or supplements to the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

COMMITTEE GRANTED PERMISSION TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. LOFTUS asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Municipal Corporations to meet during the session of the House.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of Senate Bill No. 41 as follows:

A Supplement to the act approved the eighteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 1034) entitled "An act establishing a public school employees' retirement system and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employees defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payment therefrom and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employees exempting annuities allowances returns benefits and rights from taxation and judicial process and providing penalties" by extending certain benefits heretofore granted to school employees entering the armed forces of the United States to certain other similarly qualified school employees

Section 1 Any school employe of any school district who shall have been regularly employed by one or more school districts or vocational school districts within this Commonwealth for any period prior to the time when such employe volunteered or was called up for service in the armed forces of the United States of America in time of war or during a state of national emergency so proclaimed by the President of the United States or by action of Congress prior to the first day of September one thousand fifty-one and who upon discharge from military service was employed by any school district or vocational school district within this Commonwealth other than the district by which employed immediately prior to entrance in to the armed forces of the United States shall be entitled to have full credit for each year or fraction thereof he spent in the armed forces of the United States upon his payment to the School Employes' Retirement Fund his total accumulated deductions in the amount they would have been had such employe remained in the service of a school district during the period he served in the armed forces of the United States together with an additional amount equivalent to the amount of employer contribution other wise required for a period equal to the period of such military service Such back payment may either be paid in a lump sum or by monthly payroll deductions as may be approved by the School Employes' Retirement Board

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 882, as follows:

An Act to further amend the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 594) entitled "An act establishing certain township roads as State highways authorizing their construction maintenance and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways and local authorities persons associations and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act" by adding a new route in Bucks County

Section 1 The act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 594) entitled "An act establishing certain township roads as State highways authorizing their construction maintenance and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways and local authorities persons associations and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act" is hereby further amended by adding a new route in Bucks County

Bucks County

Route 09158 Beginning at a point on Route 150 near Penn Valley thence in a general northeasterly direction in Falls Township to the south line of Morrisville Borough in Bucks County a distance of about one mile

Section 2 This act shall become effective the first day of January one thousand nine hundred fifty-two

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. READINGFR. I simply desire to call the attention of the House to the fact that Senate Bill 882, refers to a new route in Berks County. This is an error and it should be Bucks County.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, if the statement made by the gentleman from Berks is correct, the Senate had no intention of adding a new route in Berks County, and if the bill goes back to the Senate without amendments, how does Bucks County get into the bill?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that there is a Printer's error on the calendar. The bill is correctly printed.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 913, as follows:

An Act to amend Section 1072.1 of the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" by further providing for creation of the office of associate superintendent in third class districts.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1 Section 1072.1 of the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" as added by the act approved the twenty-ninth day of September one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (Act No 405) is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1072.1 Associate Superintendent in District Third Class In lieu of electing a district superintendent the board of school directors in any district of the third class may by a majority vote of all the members thereof elect a properly qualified person as associate superintendent who shall perform the duties of a district superintendent under the general supervision of the county superintendent. The public schools of any district having an associate superintendent shall be subject to the superintendence of the county superintendent and shall participate in all services provided by the county superintendent.

The directors of any district electing an associate superintendent shall participate in the election of a county superintendent.

The approval of the county board of school directors shall [not] be required [for] before the election of an associate superintendent in a district having a supervising principal. If the county board of school directors shall refuse such approval or shall neglect to act upon the application of the board of school directors for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of the submission of such application to it the board of school directors may appeal to the Superintendent of Public Instruction who may sustain or reverse the action of the county board and in the event of reversal shall grant approval to the creation of the office of associate superintendent in such district.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 929, as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the twentieth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1531) entitled "An act requiring political subdivisions to file copies of building ordinances in the recorder's office invalidating building ordinances heretofore adopted unless copies thereof are filed within a certain time and imposing duties and conferring powers on recorders of deeds "by deleting certain duties imposed upon the recorder of deeds and validating building ordinances or amendments thereto of political subdivisions not filed recorded or indexed as required by law

Section 1 Sections 1 and 3 of the act approved the twentieth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1531) entitled "An act requiring political subdivisions to file copies of building ordinances in the recorder's office invalidating building ordinances heretofore adopted unless copies thereof are filed within a certain time and imposing duties and conferring powers on recorders of deeds" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Every political subdivision of this Commonwealth authorized by law to adopt building ordinances or codes restricting regulating or otherwise affecting the construction reconstruction or improvement of real estate located within the boundaries of such political subdivision shall file a copy of any such ordinance or code or amendment thereto certified to be true and correct by the proper officer in the office for the recording of deeds of the county wherein the political subdivision is situated [which copy shall be adequately indexed to enable a person using the same to readily find the various types and kinds of regulations or requirements of such ordinance or code]

Section 3 [It shall be the duty of the recorder of deeds of each county of this Commonwealth to provide a suitable "building ordinance book" or books and to maintain an adequate index as part of the same in which the first copy of any such building ordinance or code and amendments thereto shall be kept] The recorder of deeds shall charge the political subdivision filing the same as filing fee equal to the filing fees authorized by law for the same or similar services

Section 2 Whenever heretofore any political subdivision authorized to adopt a building ordinance or code or amendment thereto has adopted such an ordinance or code or amendment thereto but inadvertently and without deliberate evasion of the requirements of law or acting under a mistake of fact or law has failed to file the same in the office of the recorder of deeds of the proper county if such ordinance code or amendment shall be filed in such office within a period of six months after the effective date of this amending act or if any such political subdivision has filed such ordinance code or amendment in the office of the recorder of deeds of the proper county but has failed to file the same in such office within the period prescribed by law or if the recorder of deeds has failed to properly record and index such ordinance or code or amendment thereto as required by law such ordinance code or amendment thereto is hereby validated and confirmed for all purposes or when filed in the office of the recorder of deeds as herein provided shall be a valid ordinance for all purposes without re-adoption or republication of notice thereof by the political subdivision

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1742, as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the first day of June one thousand eight hundred eighty-nine (P. L. 420) entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act to provide revenue by taxation' approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine" by providing for a State tax on gross premiums premium deposits and assessments received from insurance business transacted within this Commonwealth

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section 24 of the act approved the first day of June one thousand eight hundred eighty-nine (P. L. 420) entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act to provide revenue by taxation' approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy nine" and all its amendments are hereby repealed

Section 2 Said act is hereby amended by adding thereto a new Section 24 to read as follows

Section 24 It shall be the duty of the president secretary or other proper officer of each and every insurance company association or exchange incorporated by or under any law of this Commonwealth except purely mutual beneficial association whose funds for the benefit of members their families or heirs are made up entirely of the weekly monthly quarterly semi-annual or annual contributions of their members and the accumulated interest thereon to make report in writing to the Department of Revenue on or before the fifteenth day of March in each year setting forth the entire amount of premiums premium deposits or assessments received by such company association or exchange during the year ending with the thirty-first day of December preceding whether the said premiums premium deposits or assessments were received in money or in the form of notes credits or any other substitute for money and whether the same were collected in this Commonwealth or elsewhere and every such company association or exchange shall pay into the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue within the time prescribed by law for the payment of State taxes settled by the Department of Revenue in addition to any other taxes to which it may be liable under the first and twenty-first sections of this act a tax of two per centum posits and assessments received from business transacted upon the gross amount of said premiums premium de- within this Commonwealth Provided however That a credit not exceeding sixty per centum of the tax imposed by this act shall be allowed in the payment of said tax for the capital stock and corporate net income taxes paid to the Commonwealth for the same period or the fiscal year ending in said period

Such company association or exchange in reporting for taxation may deduct from the gross premiums premium deposits and assessments all amounts returned on policies cancelled or not taken and all premiums received for re-insurance and mutual companies associations exchanges and stock companies with participating features which may for any reason be required to report under this act in additions to the aforesaid deductions may deduct that portion of the advanced premiums premium deposits or assessments returned in cash or credited to members or policyholders whether as dividends earnings savings or return deposits upon the expiration of termination of their contracts and notes or other obligations received by mutual insurance companies to secure contingent premium liabilities to the extent that no assessment has been made and collected against said notes or obligations Provided That hereafter the annual tax upon premiums of insurance companies of other states or foreign governments shall be at the rate of two per centum upon the gross premiums of every character and description received from business done within this Commonwealth within the entire calendar year preceding The penalties for failure to make report and pay the tax as herein required shall be as provided by law

Section 3 This amendment shall be effective as to the tax upon gross premiums premium deposits and assessments received during the calendar year one thousand nine hundred fifty-one and during the calendar year one thousand nine hundred fifty-two

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. May the Monday morning quarterback be allowed to interrogate the December fullback.

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SMITH. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Smith, would you tell me what the position is of House Bill 1694 at this particular time?

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I believe 1694 has been signed by the Governor.

Mr. LOVETT. You believe that to be the fact?

Mr. SMITH. I know that to be the fact, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. You know that to be the fact?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. LOVETT. May I inquire what effect House Bill 1742 will have upon that particular bill or act that is now signed by the Governor?

Mr. SMITH. I would say, Mr. Speaker, I hope I am correct in saying that House Bill 1742 will amend the same act that 1694 did.

Mr. LOVETT. In those amendments what effect if any, will take place?

Mr. SMITH. Is the gentleman speaking of the amendments in House Bill 1742?

Mr. LOVETT. Correct.

Mr. SMITH. I understand, Mr. Speaker, that they will take out of the old act annuities, and all beneficial societies and pension funds.

Mr. LOVETT. Does the gentleman have any idea of how much money that will deprive the state of Pennsylvania?

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I have been informed approximately a million and a half, or two million dollars. That is an estimate.

Mr. LOVETT. A year, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. SMITH. Well it would only be for the next year, because that is the only time we are taking it out. And it would be an estimate, too, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Wait a minute, Mr. Smith, you are taking it out for 1951 and 1952, is that correct?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, we are, I think I was wrong in that statement, we are taking it out for the full biennium.

Mr. LOVETT. The loss of revenue to the State would be what?

Mr. SMITH. Approximately we will say a million and a half. But that is just a guess.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, do you mean to tell me now that you are going to vote for a bill that is going to take a million and a half away from the State of Pennsylvania, after the debate yesterday with the Majority Floor Leader that we needed revenue in Pennsylvania? Are you going to now take away from the State of Pennsylvania a million and a half or two million and a half, when we are so badly in need of revenue?

I leave it with your thinking on the opposite side of this House. It just does not make sense. I am a little confused. I just do not know what to do.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1551, entitled:

An Act requiring approval of the interested electorate to initiate housing projects by housing authorities in certain political subdivisions

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to make a suggestion to the majority group and the Majority Leader. The suggestion is this, that there is a greater verbal footage, and I say that advisedly . . . a greater verbal footage opposed to this bill than was opposed to Senate Bill 27.

We are entering into a period of protracted debate if this bill is called up at this time. There are reasons why it should not be called up, Mr. Majority Leader, because the issue involved in this bill has already been decided in this House in the negative.

Now we are simply coming in by the back door with a proposition that was previously defeated. We defeated a bill that had Philadelphia in it. Now we take Philadelphia out and bring back the same proposition, highly controversial. It is quite all right with me if the House wants to start on a protracted verbal debauch that will wind up sometime between now and eleven.

Mr. EWING. Mr. Speaker, I will be willing to take the roll call on Senate Bill 27, if the gentleman wants to do that.

Mr. ANDREWS. Well if you could be as potent in your address as the advocates of that measure were, we might accept it, but you having failed to convince us the first time and we hardly believe you can convince us the second time.

I am not prepared to make a motion to drop it from the calendar. I would not do that to my friend from Allegheny, but I am simply suggesting that if he calls up the bill at this time he will have to listen to an awful lot of verbal footage.

Mr. EWING. Mr. Speaker, could we limit the talks to a five-minute period per member?

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, rise?

Mr. ANDREWS. To reply to that. I presume a Member having the Speaker with him and the majority of the House with him, can do almost anything. But it would be over our dead bodies.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would not impose such a limitation unless so instructed by the House.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. DUFFY asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a resolution to be introduced by him.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. DUFFY. Mr. Speaker, I wish to offer a resolution for a gentleman who has served five terms in this House. He is one of the friendliest fellows, I think we have ever had sitting up here. After hearing the rehearsal this morning on singing "Happy Birthday," I hope we are all in good voice. At this time I offer the following resolution.

Messrs. DUFFY, McGEE, SCANLON, COSTA, LOFTUS, McCORMACK and SMITH offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 19, 1951.

Whereas, On Wednesday, December 19, Joseph J. Hersch will celebrate his birthday, having been born on December 19, 1903; and

Whereas, Joe is an upholsterer by trade and the word "upholsterer" in the old days meant an upholder as one who holds goods up to public view, and

Whereas, Joe has carried that characteristic into his legislative activities in which he likes to hold up a prospective law for public view and appraisal, and

Whereas, Joe Hersch is characteristically friendly, helpful and modest—a real fellow and a grand companion; therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of the House of Representatives join in wishing Joseph J. Hersch a very happy birthday and many, many more of them and may he as the legislative upholder for many a day uphold.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Hersch.

Mr. HERSCH. I wished many times during this session that I was back in upholstering. So, I want to take this opportunity to thank my friends for bringing that resolution in. Thank you very much.

RESOLUTION

DISCHARGING COMMITTEE

Messrs. MAXWELL and MILLS offered a resolution which was read and considered as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 18, 1951.

Resolved, that the Committee on Labor Relations be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 895, Title: "An Act to further amend Section 4 of the act approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1198) entitled, 'Labor Anti-Injunction Act,' by extending the provisions thereof to certain additional cases."

Said bill having been referred to the Committee on Labor Relations, on April 4, 1951.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, this discharge resolution pertains to House Bill 895 which will eliminate certain provisions of the anti-injunction act. I would especially ask that the Members on this side of the House be recorded in favor of the measure.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, on this resolution we will be glad to take a party vote.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Maxwell and Mr. Mills and were as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 862

Mr. SOLLENBERGER presented the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 862.

The SPEAKER. The Report of the Committee on Conference will lie over for printing.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. LOPRESTI asked and obtained unanimous consent to address House.

Mr. Speaker, it appears to me at this time that the Appropriations Committee of this House has just about completed its work. I do not expect to see any more appropriation bills reported out. I would, therefore, at this time like to make a statement and enter a protest to what I think has been a shirking of its duty by this Commonwealth and by this House and Senate.

I noticed today in glancing over the appropriation bills that we have made an appropriation to the Fire Department, or to the various Fire Departments in the city of Harrisburg amounting to approximately $5,000 for the protection of these grand marble palaces which we have here in Harrisburg. Yet, Mr. Speaker, we have neglected to provide any fire protection for a little institution lying in the hills of Allegheny County, three miles above Cresson, about 2300 feet above sea level.

This institution is composed of a great number of buildings only 25 percent of which are fire-resistant. They have a maintenance force there of men who leave at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. From 4 o'clock in the afternoon until 7 o'clock in the morning there is no force there to protect that institution from fire, to take those tubercular patients out of those buildings in event a fire should occur.

It is my solemn opinion that this Commonwealth has a duty to those people who are lying in the beds of that tubercular hospital to provide fire protection for that institution.

Up until a short time ago the Cresson Volunteer Fire Association received from the Commonwealth $500 a year toward furnishing that fire protection. At this particular session a bill was introduced asking for an appropriation of $1000 for this biennium for that particular volunteer fire company that is furnishing fire protection to that particular institution.

At this time when the Commonwealth was giving this company $1000 every two years, this Volunteer Fire Company got sufficient equipment to take care of our tubercular institutions and they got two 750-gallon pumpers especially equipped to make that run up a three mile grade in order to take care of that institution. Then after they had spent that money the appropriation of this Commonwealth was cut off. It certainly would not be a very good spectacle, in my opinion, if we were to have a blaze, and Lord pray that it does not happen, and the Cresson Volunteer Fire Company should say, "it is not our obligation to go up to that institution. It lies beyond the borders of our borough and we have no obligation to protect it." It certainly would be a sad spectacle and a black eye for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I do not know what the answer is, but I do say this: that if we continue over a period of years to neglect fire protection for institutions in this Commonwealth, sooner or later something is going to happen which is going to make this Commonwealth a disgrace among the States of this Union. So, when I look into the future I hope that the future House, the future Appropriations Committee, future administrations will see far enough in advance to make appropriations not only for the Cresson Sanatorium but for all institutions that are situated in such a position as is the Cresson Sanatorium.

It is our duty to provide that fire protection and I hope all of you who come back to this House will bear in mind that the state is neglecting its solemn duty to protect those poor unfortunate people throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, not only in Cresson but throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I think in the future we should make plans in this vast budget of ours to provide a few paltry thousands to take care of the disabled and the sick.

MR. SOLLENBERGER IN THE CHAIR.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. FILO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, while we are on the question of appropriations, I think the Appropriation Committee was remiss in its duty when it did not make an appropriation to a gentleman, a Member of this House, who served many of its Members during this past year. The name of the gentleman is Dr. Sarraf. I know we all owe him a vote of thanks for the help he has given the Members of this House all throughout the year.

Dr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I will admit I am guilty but you must remember I took an oath, and I have no other compensation whatever. Your thanks is plenty for me. I want to thank you all.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address House.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to direct the attention of all the Members of the House—Senators retire to their chairs; all those not privileged to the floor, please retire outside the rail. Even the Senator who is talking to Mr. Kent, will be kindly be seated.

The SPEAKER. The Senators are invited to be seated.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, you have upon your desk a resolution signed by a majority of the Members of the Committee on Railroads and Railways requesting the Chairman of that Committee to call a meeting. It is my understanding that the Chairman of that Committee led the other members of the Committee to believe that a meeting would be called immediately following the recess.

It would appear that the Chairman of that Committee is not within the Hall of the House, and the Vice Chairman of the Committee is not within the Hall of the House. However, a majority of the members of this Committee are in the Hall of the House.

It is essential, in the interest of the bill, that if the Members desire to consider the bill there be a meeting of the Committee during this legislative day, and I rise to request the cooperation of the Chair, the Parliamentarian, the Chief Clerk and the Sergeant at Arms to make such arrangements as will make it possible for the Committee to meet.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman will be noted upon the record.

The Chair would request the cooperation of the members of the Committee on Railroads and Railways to make an effort to communicate with the Chairman of the Committee, and to remain in the Hall of the House until the question is decided.

The House will be at ease awaiting the decision of the Committee of Railroads and Railways.

Whereupon,
The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

PETITION

REQUESTING THE CALLING OF A MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE ON RAILROADS AND RAILWAYS

The SPEAKER laid before the House a petition which was read by the Clerk as follows:

House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pa.

We, the members of the Railroad Committee of the House of Representatives request that the Chairman, Vice-Chairman or the Speaker call this committee together immediately.

H. R. McInroy, Daniel H. Erb, Vincent F. Gutendorf, Marion L. Munley, George H. McConnell, John C. Miller, A. Metz, D. W. Hoggard, Martin Taylor, Albert L. Pfaff, Edward A. Schuster, William Limper, James L. Gaffney, Edwin F. Thompson.

Mr. METZ. Having signed that request under a misapprehension I would like to have my name withdrawn Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections the gentleman's name will be withdrawn from the petition.

The Chair hears none.

Mr. McINROY. The petition that was just read, not realizing the full implication of it, and thinking it was just a simple request to call the committee, I signed it hurriedly; but knowing the full implication of it now and asking your indulgence because being a new Member and not speaking on the merits as to whether I am for the bill or against it, I wish to have my name withdrawn from the petition.

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections the gentleman's name will be withdrawn.

The Chair hears none.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, may I inquire how many names remain upon the petition.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman at the present time, there are twelve names remaining on the petition which the Chair has laid before the House.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ADREWS. I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. ANDREWS. How many Members constitute a majority of that committee?

The SPEAKER. It is the opinion of the Chair that twelve Members constitute a majority of the Committee of Railroads and Railways, twenty-two members having been appointed.

Mr. ANDREWS. Then what would be the status of the petition Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman, at the present the petition apparently has a sufficient number of names on it to invoke the Rules of the House.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, there has been some intimation, that perhaps improper pressure was brought upon some of the Members of this House to induce them to sign that petition.

I call the attention of the Speaker, and I call the attention of the Members of the House to the fact that since this proceeding began there has been a systematic canvass upon the part of certain agencies to induce Members to withdraw.

For my own part I was perfectly willing that the Members, without being pressured, be permitted to go into a room and themselves decide; and the decision the Members arrived at as to whether or not they wanted to withdraw names be arrived at by them. There should have been an immediate report. These proceedings should not be prolonged to the end that the Members who have not withdrawn be canvassed and pressured to withdraw.

What I desired from the first was a candid fair expression of opinion upon the part of the Members, not upon the part of the Pennsylvania Railroad or anyone of its representatives. It has appeared that certain persons, not members of the Committee but Members of the House, perhaps improperly interested themselves in its proceedings.

But we have also witnessed the fact that it has been inspired by sources not properly entitled to the floor and sources not present upon the floor and that there has been a systematic canvass to induce a change of opinion.

I welcome any change of opinion that Members arrive at by themselves unpressured.

The SPEAKER. The chair is in sympathy with the statement of the Minority Leader. The Chair wishes, however, particularly to concur in the willingness to permit the Members to state their intentions and to withdraw if in their own opinion they so desire. If the Members wish to state their reasons, the Chair will also gladly hear their reasons.

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. Speaker, as a member of the Committee on Railroads and Railways I wish to withdraw as an applicant for a meeting this evening, inasmuch as we do not have the Chairman and Vice Chairman present. I wish to withdraw my name.

The SPEAKER. Without objection the gentleman's name will be withdrawn.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I was interrupted and I did not get the import of what the gentleman who just addressed the Chair said. I would like to have the gentleman repeat it for my information.

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. Speaker, for the information of the Minority Leader, as a member of the Railroad Committee, I wish to withdraw my signature for a meeting of the Railroad Committee this evening inasmuch as the Chairman, and the Vice Chairman are not here. You understand?

PETITION FALLS

The SPEAKER. Less than the majority of the Committee on Railroads and Railways now desiring to maintain their names on the petition requesting the calling of a meeting of that Committee the petition falls.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I want to pay tribute to the efficiency and diligence of the Intelligence Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad which can by direct and indirect means infiltrate itself into the proceedings of this House.

Very neatly done; a very effective piece of work. I think instead of having a fifty-first Senator, we should create by resolution a two hundred and ninth Member of the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to state that it is the intention of the Chair at all times to comply with the wishes of the Members.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. H. W. PRICE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Thursday, December 20, 1951, at 12:00 noon.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 11:56 p. m.) the House adjourned.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Fred P. Hare) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. ROBERT H. STEPHENS, D.D., Pastor of The Market Square Presbyterian Church, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

O God, give us courage to obey our consciences before Thee, knowing that if Thou dost approve our actions, nothing else really matters, and that unless Thou dost approve our deeds they cannot long endure. So may we sleep well at night, at peace with ourselves and with Thee. So may we advance the real welfare of our party and serve the greater welfare of the Commonwealth. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDING OFFICER. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. SNOWDEN, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, we have come almost to the end of the twelfth month of a very difficult and a very trying Session. There have been a lot of things that have occurred during the past twelve months which have been difficult, personally, for quite a number of the Senators to absorb. There have been a lot of things said and a lot of things done that I know if a great many of us could return and erase a single line of it, we would be very happy to do so. Friendships long established are very difficult to break, and there are a lot of things which have been written by people whose methods of expression are a lot better than mine wherein they have explained very carefully that friendships are formed because our friends know us, our strength and our weaknesses, and still appreciate our friendship.

Mr. President, during the 1949 Session we had a very friendly and a very cooperative combination on the Majority side and a very pleasant quartet arrangement, and I want to take this opportunity now, Mr. President, to publicly say one or two things that perhaps would have been best left unsaid but, at least, should not have been said until we came into the closing hours of this Session.

Mr. President, I first want to say publicly to the Republican Caucus that from the bottom of my heart I deeply appreciate the courtesy which I have received from all the Members of the Republican Caucus, and I appreciate the honor of being the Republican Floor Leader during this long and difficult Session. You have been very patient with me, you have been tolerant of my mistakes, you have been very forgiving of my sins of omission and commission.

I want to say to the Minority that I appreciate also their unfailing courtesy and their cooperation during these months. It has been difficult, I know, when we have been obliged to explain to you, perhaps a little roughly, that thirty votes constitute a majority, and when you are in the minority sometimes you get driven over a rough road at a rapid speed.

To Senator Dent, my long-time friend, thanks very much for all the fine things, the fine expressions and the extension of friendship which I have received from you during these months.

To the employees, I cannot begin to tell you how grateful we all are for the long hours you have suffered with us. It will be surprising to me if one of the first requisitions we receive for the 1953 Session will not be for large sponge rubber cushions for each and every one of you so that the waiting, at least, would be a little more comfortable.

Mr. President, here on the Republican side of the aisle we have this combination, Senator Taylor, the President pro tempore of the Senate, Senator Berger, the Chairman of the Caucus, Senator Hare, the Majority Whip, who have had added to them additional measures of responsibility because of a temporary realignment of the Majority forces, and through circumstances which were entirely beyond their control, additional problems were presented to them for solution and additional responsibilities were handed to them, and they have done a marvelous job in holding that Caucus together. Mr. President, there is no way in which I can express to the Caucus or to Senator Taylor, Senator Berger and Senator Hare, how grateful I am to them for these twelve months of toleration. It is impossible to express it verbally, it is impossible to express it physically, but in a weak attempt I say to the Caucus, to the duly elected leadership, I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Mr. President, I have taken the liberty of having prepared a slight token of my appreciation, and if Senator Berger will shift his feet just a little to the east. Senator Taylor, from the bottom of my heart, thank you very much.

(Gifts presented to Senator Berger and Senator Taylor.)

Mr. BERGER. Thank you very much, Senator Walker.

Mr. WALKER. Now, Mr. President, if the Sergeant-at-Arms will come down here and take this up to "Casey," the Presiding Officer, back to Somerset go the best wishes from Allegheny.

(Gift presented to Presiding Officer.)

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I rise on a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Potter, Mr. Berger, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, we all know without my repeating it that the words which Senator Walker spoke here at the microphone were true in so far as they relate to the long and arduous Session which we have put in together here over the past twelve months. I want to take this opportunity to thank all of the Members of the Republican Caucus for their courtesy to me and their cooperation in getting the work of the Caucus done.

Mr. President, I want to thank the Members of the Minority Party for their uniform courtesy and kindness toward me in everything in which I have been engaged in this Senate, and to the Majority Leader and the Majority Whip, and particularly to the President pro tempore, I want to extend my heartfelt thanks and appreciation for all of their kindnesses, and to Senator Walker particularly for this gift given here today. Thank you.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I rise on a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Duaphin, Mr. Taylor, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, unaccustomed as I am to public speaking and being the errand boy of the Senate and the Governor, words are feeble at a time like this, but I do appreciate the courtesy not only extended to me from the Republican side but I think I have been extremely fortunate in having friendships which I would not give up for anything from that side of the house over there.

Senator Walker, I want to thank you for this personal gift and when I go home I am going to give "Mom" my love for you.

HOUSE BILL No. 1065 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I call from the table the message from the House of Representatives on House Bill No. 1065.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

SENATE RESOLUTION

COMMENDING THE MEMBERS OF THE PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATIVE CORRESPONDENTS ASSOCIATION

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WALKER, offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate December 20, 1951.

Whereas the members of the Pennsylvania Legislative Correspondents Association assigned to cover the sessions of the General Assembly were officially recognized for the first time under an amendment to the Senate rules this year, and,

Whereas, the members of said Association, the oldest of its kind in the United States, have at all times conducted themselves in a manner befitting the proud traditions of the Senate of Pennsylvania, and,

Whereas, the accurate and unbiased reporting of the Senate's proceedings is essential to the proper operation of the democratic system of government in Pennsylvania, and,

Whereas, the members of said Association have lived up to their heritage of a free and unshackled press and have fully justified the confidence which the Senate placed in them by official recognition, therefore,

Be It Resolved, that the Senate do now compliment the members of said Association for a job well and faithfully done, and,

Be It Further Resolved, that a copy of this resolution tion be transmitted to the Pennsylvania Legislative Correspondents Association for preservation in its archives.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 598

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, I wish to report for the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 598, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 10 of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand eight hundred eighty-five (P. L. 29) entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of natural gas companies" by providing that natural gas companies shall have the right of eminent domain for underground storage of natural gas or manufactured fuel gas and regulating the exercise of such right.

The Committee of Conference were unable to agree on the bill to dissolve the differences existing between the House of Representatives and the Senate, and I wish to file the report.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Report of the Committee of Conference will be laid on the table.

Section 9 Appeals to the Civil Service Commission after a final determination of discharge under this act by an appointing authority. Any person other than teachers and other employees of the public school system in the employ of the Commonwealth or of any political subdivision who believes himself aggrieved by the determination may appeal from the determination by an application in writing to the Civil Service Commission of the Commonwealth within twenty days after receiving written notice of the determination. The commission shall set a time and place for hearing the appeal on the record which hearing shall not be more than thirty (30) days after receipt thereof and give due notice of said hearing to the appellant and to the appointing authority whose determination is under review. The hearing shall be held by the commission or by a person or persons not exceeding three designated by the commission in writing to hear the appeal in its behalf. The commission in its discretion may designate such person or persons to hear the appeal and to report to the commission. The report shall be acted upon by the entire commission. The persons so designated by the commission may be officers or employees of the Civil Service of the Commonwealth. The person or persons holding the hearing may make such inquiry as may be deemed advisable within sixty (60) days after the hearing on appeal. The commission shall affirm or reverse the findings and determination under review and in the case of reversal shall order the reinstatement of the appellant who shall be entitled to back pay from the date of his discharge for the purposes of this section officers and employees of the Department of Public Instruction or of any of its departmental administrative boards or commissions shall not be construed to be employees of the public school system. They shall be entitled to appeal to the Civil Service Commission as provided herein.

Section 10 Appeals to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. After a final determination of discharge under this act by an appointing authority any teacher or other person employed in the public school system of the Commonwealth who believes himself aggrieved by such determination may appeal on the record from the determination by an application in writing to the Superintendent of Public Instruction of the Commonwealth within twenty days after receiving written notice of such determination. The Superintendent shall set a time and place for the hearing of the appeal which hearing shall be not more than thirty (30) days after receipt thereof and give due notice of said hearing to the appellant and to the appointing authority whose determination is under review. The hearing shall be held by the Superintendent or by a person or persons not exceeding three designated by the Superintendent in writing to hear the appeal in his behalf. The Superintendent in his discretion may designate such person or persons to hear such appeal and to report to him the persons so designated by the Superintendent may be officers or employees of the Civil Service of the Commonwealth. The person or persons holding the hearing may make such inquiry as may be deemed advisable within sixty (60) days after the hearing on appeal. The Superintendent shall affirm or reverse the findings and determination under review and in the case of reversal shall order the reinstatement of the appellant who shall be entitled to back pay from the date of his discharge.

Section 11 Evidence in proceedings taken pursuant to this act. Evidence shall be restricted by the rules of evidence and procedure prevailing in the courts. All testimony shall be given under oath or affirmation and the right of subpoena shall be accorded to either the appointing authority or the person so notified any judge of a court of record either in term time or in vacation shall upon proper application of the appointing authority or person so notified compel the attendance of witnesses the production of books and papers and the giving of testimony before the appointing authority by attachment for contempt or otherwise in the same manner as the production of evidence may be compelled before such court. Reasonable examination and cross-examination shall be permitted.

Section 12 Appeals to court (a) the decision of the civil service commission or the superintendent of public instruction shall be final unless within thirty (30) days after receipt by registered mail of written notice of the decision or order of the civil service commission or the superintendent of public instruction an appeal which may be taken by either party is taken therefrom to the court of common pleas of the county in which the proper appointing authority is located a copy of such appeal shall be filed in writing in the office of the prothonotary and a copy shall be served on the civil service commission or the superintendent of public instruction either by filing it in the office of the civil service commission or the superintendent of public instruction or by delivering the same to the civil service commission or the superintendent of public instruction.

(b) When appeal is taken from the decision of the civil service commission or the superintendent of public instruction to the court of common pleas the judge of the court of common pleas to whom such petition is presented shall fix a date for hearing by the court which shall be not sooner than ten (10) days nor more than twenty (20) days after the presentation of such petition if the employee aggrieved shall so request in his petition such hearing shall be de novo upon the hearing of said petition the court shall make whatever order it considers just either affirming or reversing the action of the civil service commission or the superintendent of public instruction.

tion and stating plainly whether the employe is to be discharged

Section 13 State-aided institutions of learning no appropriation of public funds made after the first day of May one thousand nine hundred fifty-two of any character shall be paid by the Commonwealth to any state-aided institution of learning not a part of the public school system unless there shall be filed annually on or before the first day of September with the Governor (with copies furnished to the President of the Senate and to the Speaker of the House of Representatives) on behalf of the institution a written report setting forth what procedures the institution has adopted to determine whether it has reason to believe that any subversive persons are in its employ and what steps if any have been or are being taken to terminate such employment. The report also shall unequivocally set forth that the institution has no reason to believe any subversive persons are in its employ if the report shall be approved by the Governor he shall notify the auditor general and the state treasurer that the provisions of this section have been complied with

Section 14 Candidates for elective offices No person shall become a candidate for election under the provisions of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1333) known as the "Pennsylvania Election Code" and its amendments to any state district county or local public office whatsoever in this Commonwealth unless he shall file with his nomination petition nomination paper or nomination certificate a statement under oath or affirmation that he is not a subversive person as defined in this act which statement shall contain notice that it is subject to the penalties of perjury. No nomination petition nomination paper or nomination certificate shall be received for filing by any county board of elections or by the secretary of the commonwealth unless accompanied by the statement required hereby nor shall the name of any person who has failed or refused to make the statement be printed on any ballot or ballot label to be used at any general municipal primary or special election

Section 15 Effect and applicability of act (a) the provisions of this act shall not affect the right to discharge any person for any cause other than those provided for by this act or without cause under existing law. No procedure provided by any existing tenure or civil service law shall be applicable in any proceeding under this act

(b) The provisions of this act shall not apply to exchange teachers who are citizens or subjects of a foreign government and whose appointments to teach in the public school system of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have been approved by the superintendent of public instruction

Section 16 Specific repeals The act approved the twenty-eighth day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-one (P. L. 530) entitled "An act prohibiting the employment by the Commonwealth or any county city borough incorporated town township school district vocational school district or institution district thereof or by any authority or any institution supported in whole or in part out of the public funds of persons who hereafter advocate or participate in un-American or subversive doctrines as herein defined providing for dismissals under existing laws and permitting appeals to courts of common pleas and appellate courts in all such cases" is hereby repealed

Section 1122 of the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" and its amendment is hereby repealed insofar as it authorizes termination of the contract of a professional employe for advocating or participating in un-American or subversive doctrines

Section 17 The provisions of this act shall become effective on the first day of March one thousand nine hundred fifty-two which was returned from the House of Representatives with amendments.

Said amendments having been twice read, and printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

SENATE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE HOUSE TO SENATE BILL No. 27

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do concur in the amendments made by the House to Senate Bill No. 27.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. LEADER. Mr. President, this is one of the first bills that was presented to the Senate of Pennsylvania in the early days of this present Session. The fact is that the bill was introduced on January 15, and as I look over the History of Senate Bills I see that it requires the better part of a half page to show all the various maneuvers which this bill has gone through during this legislative Session. It has been one of the most controversial of all bills during this Session. There was a public hearing held by the House, a very short part of which I was able to attend, unfortunately, but, nevertheless, they did hold a public hearing and many fine organizations presented their feelings on this bill, and there were very many fine labor organizations and church groups who expressed their opposition to this bill.

Mr. President, there have been many many amendments to this bill. In fact, when you look at the bill you will find that only the first few pages have any of the print in small case. The bulk of it is a new bill which was given to us by the House, and it is returned to us now at the eleventh hour for consideration. The fact is it is no longer referred to simply as the Pechan Bill, but it is now known as the "Pechan-Kunzig Bill."

Mr. President, I do not pretend to be an authority on this bill. It has been in such a constant state of change that I have been barely able to keep track of it, but I have looked it over as a layman, not as an attorney, and I find it has many many new provisions, and here we are at this moment asked to concur in what is virtually a new bill without any opportunity to make amendments or to make any suggestions for changes.

Mr. President, last week the gentleman from Armstrong, the sponsor of this bill, made a very lengthy statement in support of this measure, and if I had answered the gentleman at that time, as some of my colleagues did who are not the least emotionally disturbed, I might have been guilty of saying some things which I would live to regret. The fine spirit that existed here in the Senate, which our distinguished Majority Leader referred to awhile back, may not have prevailed for the moment. Nevertheless, there are a few comments which I should like to make at this time.

Mr. President, the gentleman from Armstrong led us to believe that all the students in our great universities who oppose this bill are communists or, apparently, have communistic leanings. I believe that there are as many good loyal patriotic American students in our colleges and universities today as there were when the good Doctor was a student, as there were when Judge Michael Musmanno was a student, and as there were when I was a student in one of the colleges and one of the universities in this great Commonwealth. In particular, there were several barbs aimed at one particular anonymous R.O.T.C. student who happened to attend one of these mass meetings which Judge Musmanno addressed. Now, I do not believe that he wanted to cast aspersions on the entire R.O.T.C. program. I did not happen to be an R.O.T.C. student, but I knew many of them and they were mighty fine students, and I know for a fact that they made a splendid record in World War II, and many of those former R.O.T.C. students are making an equally splendid record in the present conflict in Korea.

Mr. President, you know this bill, this type of legislation, depends a great deal on our philosophy of education. I believe, and I believe it is the feeling, the belief, of most educators in our public school system today, that in the schools we must teach people to differentiate. We do not need to entirely concentrate all of the time, all of the years that we keep our students in school today, on indoctrination, indoctrination and more indoctrination. I have enough confidence in the students in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and in America today to believe that if they are given the facts of the case, they are going to come up with the right decisions. I have heard it said time and again that the strength of the American Armed Forces was not in the fact that we had goose-stepped the people in our military services into automatons as has been the effort in some of the dictatorial countries with which we have dealt in recent years, but in the ability of the American soldier, sailor and marine to make a decision on his own in that critical moment when he could not receive the orders from his immediate superior. I have heard it said, too, that in the Soviet Union one of the great limiting factors on their scientists is the fact that they are under constant direction from the government and are not given the freedom of thought, the freedom to search, the freedom to test and the freedom to try, and this is the strength, I believe, of our American scientists that they are given that freedom.

Apparently, Mr. President, the universities, the three universities named and Penn State, are to be given some sort of special consideration under this piece of legislation, and I think perhaps it was a very good move. On the other hand, I am wondering if the universities, the only place where any scientific information, I believe, will actually be dealt with, can operate under a different plan in order to guarantee the loyalty of their faculties, why cannot that same plan be applied to our State Teachers Colleges? Why cannot that same plan be applied to our public school system, and let our public school teachers be responsible to the chief administrator of the system who, in turn, would be responsible to the Governor of the Commonwealth? You know, I think it is a policy, and not being in the Majority Party I cannot vouch for this, but I hope the distinguished Majority Leader will correct me if I am wrong, I believe it is party policy that the county chairmen in the various counties endorse people who are applicants for jobs in State Government, and I am not so sure that even in the Democratic counties it may not be true that people get endorsements for various positions in local government. Now, if that is the case I believe it is highly unlikely that a county chairman, when he appoints a party faithful, whether he be a loyal Democrat or a loyal Republican, would recommend a subversive, but if he should be so mistaken as to recommend a subversive for a job, we have a very splendid law dealing with this matter at the present time, and I would like to read a very short part of it to you now. The 1929 Administrative Code states in Section 3307:

"No person who hereafter advocates or participates by an overt act or acts in an un-American or subversive doctrine shall be permitted to be employed in any capacity by any department, board, or commission or other agency of this Commonwealth or any county, city, borough, incorporated township, school district, vocational school district or institution district thereof or any authority or institution which is supported in whole or in part out of public funds." I believe that covers the situation rather thoroughly.

Mr. President, the Senator from Armstrong, in his speech a few days ago, referred to some organization of teachers in Philadelphia, consisting I believe of about 197 members, who had not only spearheaded the fight against this bill but who apparently were, according to his interpretation, the major portion of the opposition to his bill, as being a very subversive group. Now, I do not know anything about that group, but I do know that we have a very splendid provision in our School Code which would have permitted the school authorities in Philadelphia to deal with that problem, and I would like to read a very small portion of that to this body. This is Section 1122 of the School Code, 1949:

"The only valid causes for termination of contract heretofore or hereafter entered into with a professional employee shall be immorality, incompetent, intemperance, cruelty, persistent neglect, mental derangement, advocacy or participation in un-American or subversive doctrines."

Mr. President, I believe this would be sufficient for the school directors of Philadelphia to deal with that problem. I believe that we are all aware that these school directors took an oath when they took office, and I think that they are bound by that oath to carry out the provisions of this law. I wonder what the suggestion would be of the gentleman from Armstrong as to how we should deal with this particular problem and what service this oath might be in coping with it.

Mr. President, I am a Serviceman, I belong to three of the Service organizations, the AMVETS, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion, and I believe that those organizations stand for many fine things. I felt that way when I joined them, and I still feel that way. I am sorry I am not able to agree with some of the leadership, of some of those organizations at the present moment, but I do know that among the rank and file members there are many of them who do not have a friendly feeling toward this type of legislation. I believe, too, that if the veterans' organizations think about this carefully, those same groups who a few years ago went to Washington during the Eightieth Congress and had a bill passed which provided that the ten-point veteran shall go to the top of the civil service lists in the order of their marks, those veteran organizations that went to Washington and came to Harrisburg and fought for bonuses and fought for a G.I. Bill of Rights, I believe if they had thought about this matter deeply they would have realized that they were asking something of some of their membership and of veterans in general which was not quite fair, and that is they are asking people who are veterans, who have bared their breasts to the enemy on one or more occasions, to take an oath of allegiance to the State or the Commonwealth after they have pretty conclusively proven their loyalty. I believe, certainly, if we have a bill of this type those people should be exempted.

Mr. President, I believe that the only reason, perhaps, that the universities and Penn State receive favored treatment in this bill is perhaps because of the prestige of an Eisenhower and Stassen and the other gentlemen who came here at the semi-public hearing in the Conference Room just after this bill left the Senate. Unfortunately, the organizations that represent some of these other people were tied up pretty tightly with pieces of legislation dealing with increases in salaries and so forth, and I am afraid that they neglected some of their duties in getting the proper consideration for the members of their group. I hope that they will not wind up in years to come and look back on this and feel that, perhaps, they sold their soul for a mess of pottage.

Mr. President, the teaching profession, as we all know, has lost a great deal of prestige in recent years. There was a time when the teachers stood in our society just next to the clergy and were held in very high esteem and in very high regard. With greater and greater emphasis in our civilization on prestige being the result of annual income, teachers have fallen. I think we did a noble thing in this Session when we partially dealt with that problem and made some real progress, and I do not think that it will be at all wise for us now to relegate our teachers to second class citizenship during this same Session when we have made such splendid strides forward on the salary end of it.

Mr. President, I want to say, concluding, that I do not believe that we should accept this virtually new bill with no chance to amend, without submitting it to a conference committee for a very very careful study. Our Democracy is founded on the basis that a man is innocent until he is proven guilty, that he has the freedom of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Let us not deal lightly with this very important matter, and may I respectfully suggest to the gentlemen of the Senate, Mr. President, that we refer this bill to a conference committee for further careful study.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, when this bill was here before, I voted against it and spoke against it. I said then that it would not catch a single communist and would do nothing but create trouble. I am thoroughly convinced myself that the originator of this bill was a communist. I do not charge the Senator from Armstrong with being a communist, but I am convinced that the originator of this bill dropped it into the lap of some Legionnaire or veteran, and they dropped it into Senator Pechan's lap. We all know that it has been the policy of Moscow in all the satellite countries which they have taken over to first create division in that country, get the people divided amongst themselves and then step in and take it over. This bill is doing that very thing.

Mr. President, I say to you that the teachers of this State have rebelled against this bill all over the State, and will continue to rebel against it because they feel that it is not necessary, they feel that it is an infringement on their rights, they feel that it is tyrannizing their minds in this State, and any bill that will tyrannize the minds of the teachers of Pennsylvania should not become law.

Mr. President, I always have gone back to my idol, Thomas Jefferson, when any proposition like this comes up. He made this declaration once. "I have sworn on the altar of God eternal hostility against every form of propaganda that tyrannizes the mind of man," and here today I protest against this bill as being a trouble-maker, as causing division in our State already. As Senator Pechan the other night said, quoting that letter he had from Judge Musmanno who went up to speak to a college group up here of 400, they almost had a riot.

Now, Mr. President, those things are not good for our Country and it is not good for our State to have this troublesome bill adopted.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I do not want to detain you or prolong this agony. I want to say that I am not too happy with the version of the bill which was presented to me by the House after having offered these many amendments. However, as to some of them which were introduced in the House I may claim some of the responsibility, because I have spent hundreds of hours studying this bill, not only with House Members but with school teachers, with lawyers and with everybody concerned.

Mr. President, I want to say something about the tactics that have been used against this bill. If the Members of the Senate will recall, Senator Leader, who voted finally against the passage of this bill in the Senate on March 28, each day before that final date he would come to me and offer amendment after amendment after amendment. Some of this we expected from his colleagues. Some of them we turned down. Now, somebody has been coaching him, somebody has been telling him what to do and how to do it. What he tried to do then was to kiss the bill to death and, of course, he did not get that done. Now he wants this bill in conference. It is not my fault that the bill laid in the House from March 28 until this past week. Certainly after the bill left the Senate, it was not my prerogative to go over to the House and urge its passage as some of the opponents of the bill urged its defeat.

Now, Mr. President, if you will just remember what happened here a couple of months ago, weeks, months and even six months ago, when people were going around the Capitol, both in the Senate and in the House, wearing signs protesting against the Pechan Bill. Now, with all that money, with all that time, with all those trips, that this group spent coming down from Philadelphia they were able to muster seventeen votes in the House against this bill, and after having spent twelve months out of my office, I would like to have one-tenth of the money that they have spent, just that one group fighting this bill.

Mr. President, my friend, Senator McGinnis, and he is a very good friend of mine and I have all the respect in the world for him, talks about the teachers rebelling. Now, I do not know whether he is talking about those 197 teachers who belong to the Philadelphia Teachers Union and the other small groups that are in Philadelphia, but for his information I can tell him that the Pennsylvania State Education Association, which has 60,000 members, does not oppose this bill and they have not.

Mr. President, I do not want to go into the differences in the bill as it passed the Senate and in the version which we now have, but I will just read a statement which I prepared this morning.

Mr. President, the "Pennsylvania Loyalty Bill" is in many ways the same as the original Senate Bill No. 27, Printer's No. 101, which passed the Senate on March 28, 1951, but has certain important differences. The definition of "foreign subversive organization" has been taken out of the bill. The power given the Attorney General of Pennsylvania by the Senate to designate organizations as subversive has been taken away. To be a subversive person because of membership in a subversive organization, one must have been knowingly such a member. The word "knowingly" was added by the House. We did that because we did not want to malign any innocent person, and nobody at any time can say that I have accused anybody of being a communist or a subversive, so help me God. I do not know a communist personally, but I am interested in keeping those people who are "parlor pinks," who are subversives, out of our schools in teaching a foreign philosophy to these adolescents and molding their thinking.

Yesterday, Mr. President, a group of children was here, I believe, from the Reading High School. They were just babies, fifteen and sixteen years old. Some of them were for the loyalty bill, others were not. Those who were not, the twig was being bent to the molding of the thought of that particular teacher. Now, it is their prerogative to be against the Pechan Loyalty Bill. That is not what we are interested in. What we are interested in, and I think all decent Americans are interested in, is to see that we do not get subversives entrenched in our schools before it is too late.

Mr. President, I have yet to get one letter from any municipal, or government or State employee who is opposed to this bill. The opposition all came from a certain group which started out by making a lot of misstatements, a lot of half-truths and confusing the good teachers. As I said here last week, I am sure that in Pennsylvania ninety-nine per cent plus of our teachers are loyal to our Country and to our State, and I want to keep it that way.

Mr. President, some of the papers have been attacking the Pechan Loyalty Oath Bill. It is not the Pechan Loyalty Oath Bill, nor is it an American Legion Bill, it is the Pennsylvania Loyalty Oath Bill, because when it started out it had four pages and I think today it has thirty-two or maybe thirty-four. As to the "reasonable doubt" feature, some of the Philadelphia papers have been attacking the loyalty oath bill of Pennsylvania because of the words "reasonable doubt," yet if you read those two papers last night and the night before, on their editorial pages they will tell you that if it were not for that clause, "reasonable doubt," in the Federal law, they would not have gotten rid of John Service who gave away secret documents to a man in the Amerasia case, as you will all remember.

Mr. President, the wording of the actual oath to be taken by teachers and public employees was changed slightly to bring it in line with the oath taken by Federal employees, but there are no material or basically important differences between the present oath and the one in Printer's No. 101, as it was passed by the Senate.

The House of Representatives set up a definite procedure to be followed in appointments of governmental personnel and teachers. Under the House version, no one who is a subversive person or as to whom there is reasonable doubt concerning his loyalty to the government of the United States or to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania may be appointed or employed by the State. Each applicant is still required, however, to take an oath, much the same as that prescribed by the Senate in Printer's No. 101. Present employees are also required to take the oath, the same as was prescribed by the Senate.

Mr. President, on written complaint, any appointing authority may investigate a teacher or any one employed by the government to determine if the person is subversive. If the person is determined to be subversive, he is notified privately and confidentially, and may have a hearing before the appointing authority, which hearing may also be private and confidential, at the option of the accused person. The person shall be discharged if by a fair preponderance of the evidence it is determined that the person is subversive.

Many safeguards are set up to protect the rights of the individual. Standards were created in the House version of the bill. Government employees may appeal to the Civil Service Commission and teachers may appeal to the Superintendents of Public Instruction. Evidence in proceedings, under this bill, is restricted by the rules of evidence and procedure prevailing in the courts. The right of subpoena is accorded to both side. If the decision is still against the accused, he may then appeal to the common pleas court of the county in which the appointing authority is located. Here he has the right again to a hearing de novo, thus giving the accused, in effect, three hearings. He may then, of course, appeal to higher courts if he so desires, in the same manner as any other appeals may be taken under the law.

No appropriation of public funds may be paid to State-aided institutions of learning unless they file annually with the Governor (with copies to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives) a written report setting forth what procedures the institution has adopted to determine if any subversive persons are in its employ. The report must also state what steps are being taken to terminate such employment. This section of the bill would apply to the University of Pennsylvania, the University of Pittsburgh, Temple University and Penn State.

Under the House version of the bill, Mr. President, no person may become a candidate for election unless he signs a statement under oath that he is not a subversive person as defined in this bill. A similar provision in the Maryland law has already been declared constitutional by the Supreme Court of the United States. The bill does not affect the right to discharge any person for any other cause which is proper under existing law.

The bill also, Mr. President, does not apply to exchange teachers who are citizens or subjects of a foreign government, and whose appointment to teach in our school system has been approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Two prior conflicting laws, at present on our books, are amended only in so far as the new Loyalty Bill takes their place and is substituted for them. The bill would become effective March 1, 1952.

Mr. President, I am not going to plead my case any longer. I just want to say that the Pennsylvania Loyalty Oath Bill is a parallel with the Federal bill. Every Federal teacher at West Point, at Annapolis and every Federal employee takes substantially the very same oath that we have in Senate Bill No. 27.

Mr. FREED. Mr. President, when this bill was in here the first time, I believe definitely I should have been in the hospital for that particular week, but I certainly want to put my little bit in at this time.

Now, Mr. President, I would like to say just a little something about Senate Bill No. 27. I do not believe this is just a Pechan bill. I do not like to say anything about this gentleman from Armstrong, Senator Pechan, since I am a "rookie" in the Senate, but way back in 1943 and 1945, if he looks up the record in the House, he will find at that time that Representative Freed tried to accomplish the thing which is being tried to be accomplished in this particular Pechan bill. I think we should start at the roots of the thing, to try to accomplish this particular thing, and that is what I tried back in 1943-45.

Mr. President, if the records are cleared, you will find that back in 1943-1945, Representative Freed talked at length and was successful in kicking out of the Normal Schools at that time a book which definitely dealt on communism and put communistic countries above the United States of America. I was fortunate in getting them out of the Normal Schools, but up until this very date I have been unfortunate in getting them out of the very place they should be out of, and that is our public libraries for which we have in this particular Session created funds to distribute books across the Country and all over the Country, so that the rural sections could read them as well as the city sections. I still think we should go into those libraries and get those books out of there. There are some books in there which are definitely not decent, and one author who has a book in there about this communistic thing, he turns around and wants to tell you all the things which are right for these girls and boys who are in these schools, what they should do with each other and do with themselves. That is perfectly all right if their minds are clear, but I think we should get those things straightened out as well as this particular thing.

Mr. President, I agree with Senator Pechan, and even though he calls me a "rookie" in this particular Senate, even though I believe I can go back to 1939, it is perfectly all right for the Doctor to call me that because I will stand on my record as to what I have been trying to do with respect to this particular thing right here. I think that we should go along the line of Americanism. If you go back and look back to before I ever came into the Senate, I said that a notary public should definitely be somebody who helps to keep this government right and straight by seeing that a person is able to cast his particular vote. I worked along that particular line right up to this particular end, and I think if more of us would turn around and whenever we are asked for a favor, tell them, "If you are an American, I will try to do that for you, but if you are against us and you are for the subversives, I am not interested in even talking to you." So, for that particular reason I think whatever little good there is in this Senate Bill No. 27 we should be for it, put it across and put those people in their place.

Mr. SILVERT. Mr. President, I intend to take but a very short time, first, to say that I do not doubt Senator Pechan's sincerity in thinking that this bill will do some good. However, some of us on this side do not agree with him. Mr. President, we do not agree because we feel that loyalty is not created by an oath, that loyalty is a matter of the heart and soul and that an oath will not change it. It will do no good, and will embarrass a great many loyal American citizens.

To add one more thought, Mr. President, each of us Senators here took an oath to support the Constitution of Pennsylvania when we took office. I just would like to call to the attention of this Senate that one of the provisions of our Constitution is to reapportion our Legislative Districts in the State of Pennsylvania, that is the House and the Senate, every ten years. Everybody knows that there has been no reapportionment of either the House or the Senate since 1921. In other words, in spite of our oaths, this Senate and the House have been derelict for a period of thirty years in doing what our Constitution has mandated we should do, and yet we took an oath. I mention this to show that you cannot create loyalty by oaths. Members of the Senate, I have had a bill in here to reapportion this Senate. It has been in committee for two or three months. That bill is still in committee. I intend to vote against the concurrence in these amendments.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, when the Pechan Bill, Senate Bill No. 27, passed the Senate there was no discrimination between the effect the bill would have upon teachers in our public schools and instructors and professors in our State-aided colleges. There were admittedly imperfections in the Pechan bill as it passed the Senate, and the House has made considerable improvement in the bill, but I have never gotten over my disgust at the attitude taken by the presidents of our State-aided colleges when they discuss the matter of academic freedom. I do not believe in academic freedom when the matter of loyalty to our Country is involved, so that under the bill, as it passed the Senate, the bill would have had this effect upon any professor in our State-aided colleges who would be indoctrinated with the ideas of communism, if that were determined and had he taken the oath, he would be liable for perjury and he would have gone to the penitentiary.

Mr. President, under this bill as it now stands, the only thing that can happen to that professor is that he may be taken off of the payroll, and in the first place he should never have been on the payroll if he wanted to teach communism. I say that the college presidents have assumed a great deal of responsibility in relying on themselves to keep communism out of our State-aided colleges, and I think it would be advisable, and I want to suggest this, that if communism does rear its ugly head in any of our State-aided colleges, I would suggest that the president of such institution resign immediately.

Mr. President, I intend to vote for this bill, but the veterans in my district and the public school teachers are resentful that we have amended the bill in that respect. I do not believe there is a communist among all of the public school teachers in my district, and they are resentful and rightfully resentful, but they are good Americans and they will take this oath.

Mr. LEADER. Mr. President, I do not want to prolong this unduly, but I have just a few brief remarks which I would like to make since my name was referred to on the floor of this Senate.

Mr. President, I agree with Doctor Pechan in that I do not like the version of this bill either, but there is one thing, one privilege he had in the House which many of us did not have, including myself, and that is he takes credit, and rightfully so I believe, for some of the amendments which were placed in this bill. I can take no credit for them, and I had no opportunity to present them.

Mr. President, Senator Pechan mentioned, too, that I attempted to amend the bill. If the good Senator's memory serves him well, I think there were just two amendments I offered, neither one of which I believe, from all evidence received very much if any consideration. I do not know how many days, I am willing to take the responsibility for two legislative days of delay, if he will somehow or other explain who was responsible for the other eleven and one-half months of delay.

Mr. President, Senator Pechan credits me, too, with coaching from somewhere. I could use a lot of coaching here as a freshman Senator, and I wish I had access to some of the departments here, as some of the Majority Party do, so that I could learn more. A little while back I was treated very courteously in one of the departments in trying to gather information with a view to getting some helpful legislation to deal with the teacher shortage that we are going to have in Pennsylvania over the next ten years. There will be a shortage of approximately, according to estimates of the department, 1700 teachers a year, and I did get some very helpful information on that problem. However, neither the department nor any Member of this General Assembly has come up with any constructive legislation to deal with this very very important problem, and I could use some help.

Mr. President, I feel that possibly the gentleman from Armstrong is a little bit in the position of the wayward husband, showering his attention upon his wife. I think perhaps there may be reason for some little suspicion. The fact is, as I listened to this wonderful address he delivered last week, and I hoped I would not be pressed into the position that I would have to refer to it, I thought of a Bible quotation, the one that says, "The hand is the hand of Esau, but the voice is the voice of Jacob," and I do not know whose hand, whose voice, whose thoughts and whose ideas, but I do believe if we may refer to this bill before us at this time, I believe that we can say, not is the old bill possibly beyond a reasonable doubt, but I believe that there is a preponderance of evidence which might give us some idea where this address came from. Nevertheless, I have not had any coaching. I do not think I did a very good job opposing this bill, and if Senator Pechan feels that I might have had coaching, I want to say to the gentleman from Armstrong that I am flattered. I am a freshman Senator here. I have had very few opportunities. I have taken very few opportunities. I have taken very few opportunities to address this Body. I did not feel that I had anything of such a great value to say or of such great importance that I wanted to take the time of this important group of men. However, without taking away anything from my background as a loyal American, from a family background which dates back to the Revolutionary War, from my ancestors who fought in that war along with many of your ancestors, we have never flaunted our patriotism by joining organizations which attempted to flaunt the patriotism of their ancestors on the people of today; we have never participated in that as a family, and we do not intend to, but I do not intend to sit idly by here and see the patriotism of the family of Leader, my own family of which I am very proud, have reflections cast upon it.

Mr. President, I believe this is a bad piece of legislation, sincerely. I believe that it might be corrected. I believe some of the amendments that were voted down in the House by a very few votes would have improved this bill. I have been told by some of the Members that some of those votes were cast for Members who were not even in the House at the time. I believe we need to take time for thought and reflection on this matter, and I ask for that time very sincerely.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I voted for this bill about four months ago, and I am going to vote for it again. I came from a foreign country, and I am very proud that I have made a good living for my family and myself.

Mr. President, I cannot see why I should refuse to vote for this bill. I do not see why any person coming to this Country, the greatest Country in the world, should stand up and vote against this bill. This is a good bill in my estimation. It may not be perfect, it might have been cut up a little bit in the House, but I do say to you that everywhere I go in any organization which I join I take an oath. I have taken an oath here four times in sixteen years. It does not worry me about taking an oath. I am going to vote for this bill, and I am proud to get the chance to vote for it.

Mr. NEFF. Mr. President, I realize that the hour grows late, the debate has been long and as I came here to the microphone to address the Senate, Senator Barr reminded me that further debate would delay the party that is scheduled. Even that being as it may, I feel that I must at this time say something in regard to this measure.

Mr. President, I think there are a great many people in Pennsylvania, in the General Assembly of the Commonwealth, who have not been able to define correctly the differential between McCarthyism and patriotism in the matter of this loyalty oath. I voted against the measure originally. I am going to vote against it today.

Mr. President, I attended the meeting, or the public hearing, that was held as the bill left the Senate and went to the House, and heard Chancellor Fitzgerald, of the University of Pittsburgh, President Eisenhower, of Penn State, President Stassen, of the University of Pennsylvania and the President of Temple University, testify at that hearing. I was very much impressed. Although they and I may disagree on many matters of a political nature, certainly I saw eye to eye with the eminent gentlemen as they spoke against this bill. They pointed out what had happened at the University of California, the first great university to invoke such a ban, how they had lost many of their most prominent and distinguished professors because they refused to bow to a ban such as this on the academic freedom of the university, and pointed out that in all the investigations which have been held throughout the Country and in Washington on a matter of loyalty of employees in the Federal service, not one of those men who had been indicted or investigated came from a Pennsylvania university.

Mr. President, I have been a little bit surprised to find that they today, if not condoning this bill, at least in a left-handed manner are going along with it simply because their schools, the University of Pittsburgh, Temple, Penn State and the University of Pennsylvania, have been accorded special treatment. So, I find that I am afraid I must believe that it was not the principle that they fought, the principle that I fight, but a matter of expediency in the operation of the universities and the colleges which they represent.

Mr. President, you know there is a gimmick in this measure, a matter of "reasonable doubt." Well, what may be a matter of reasonable doubt to me or to any Member of this Senate, as to whether a man or woman is a communist, would be no reasonable doubt to McCarthy or his likes throughout this Country, a matter of opinion, and I think that America has had just about enough of McCarthyism. The Federal Bureau of Investigation has concluded that there are less than 80,000 communists in America in a nation of 150,000,000 people, and so because of suspicion of a fraction of the citizens of this Nation and this Commonwealth, this Commonwealth in particular, we are going to single out two groups of employees and deprive those individuals of their heritage as Americans. We are going to point the finger of suspicion at them, we are going to say, "Well, you must sign a loyalty oath." I think it is un-American, it is an infringement upon the civil liberties of these groups; I think it is the kind of a matter that has been fought against in this Country since the very founding of it.

Mr. President, I have heard it said that only communists are opposed to this measure. I have heard it said that the P.S.E.A. does not now oppose it, but I have not heard it said that they are in favor of this measure. I understand that one of the great veterans organizations of this State does not favor the measure as they originally did, but have pulled out of the fight for it. I have been called a communist, but it matters not what they call me. It is what I know I am. I have heard talk of Americans. Well, I, too, am an American, and the roots of Americanism in my family go back many many years beyond the days of the founding fathers of the Republic, but I will fight against this type of legislation here in the Commonwealth, in the Senate of Pennsylvania, on the picket line or wherever it rears its ugly head. This is the type of a measure which will set American against American. It is unfair, and so a person, upon a reasonable doubt, has the right of appeal. They can appeal and they can be cleared, but a family is ruined. A reputation is shattered forever, once accused unfairly under a measure such as this.

Mr. President, let us take a look at a recent case in Pennsylvania, the case of an assistant district attorney in the county of Allegheny, an individual, Miss Matson, who was accused, because of a reasonable doubt in someone's mind, of being a communist or a communistic sympathizer. So, finally after six months' loss of work, loss of prestige, reputation and professional standing, she is cleared to everyone's satisfaction and in a legal sense, but to no one's satisfaction in a professional sense. Six months' wages lost, ruined for life in a profession, simply because someone had a reasonable doubt. That is the kind of a damnable piece of legislation which is before this body today, and the majority of the Members of this Senate will sit here and vote for it. They will vote for it not because they believe in it, but because it is politically expedient to do so, because like any dead fish you can float down stream, but it takes a live one to swim up stream, and so they are going to vote for it, and in the House only seventeen Members voted against it because they did not believe in it: Did the majority vote "aye"? No, because they were afraid of the political implications, they were afraid that the red brush of McCarthyism would touch them and ruin them politically. This is the kind of test that tests men's souls, and I for one am going to vote against it, and ask that my colleagues do also, because it is un-American to the nth degree.

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, I promise the Senate that I am not going to speak at length. I just want to make one or two observations.

Mr. President, I know this is the kind of a matter which makes difficult a decent discussion, and I think that is the core of the whole problem. We are fifty men here, and no one can at any time get us to think alike about any particular subject. We have varied backgrounds, we have had varying experiences and as a result we have varying attitudes toward this particular problem. Now, I am not saying that anybody's attitude with regard to this question is not a sincere one. I think it is, but I think it is the type of a problem which lend itself to the intelligence and the background of everyone who must discuss it, must think about it and who has the obligation to vote on it one way or another.

Mr. President, I can sit here and spend hours arguing about what is a subversive, and I might suggest that even the Supreme Court has been having trouble with a good legal definition of that word. I could spend hours discussing what the bill may do, but I do know that everyone here has already made up his mind as to how he is going to vote on this measure.

Mr. President, I merely want to point out to the good Doctor, that we do not consider this a political measure, and the mere fact that Mr. Leader offered a couple of amendments months and months ago was no indication that he wanted to kill this bill. If it was intended that amendments should be offered in order to kill it, enough amendments would have been offered to try to kill it, but we realize that everyone is entitled to express his opinion on this particular problem and we realize, too, that everybody has a different attitude toward it. I merely want to say that I was glad to note that the good Doctor did not want this to go to conference. I have not had a chance to read the whole bill, but I do know that only up to page 15 it has three glaring mistakes, one of which will definitely legally kill the bill, but since I am opposed to it, I will just keep quiet about what those mistakes are.

Mr. President, I intend to vote "no."
And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

An Act prohibiting the occupation of living quarters over or the depositing of foreign substances in any body of water which is the source of water used for human consumption; prescribing penalties; and authorizing the courts of common pleas to enjoin violations.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT pro tempore (Mr. Harvey Taylor) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Fred P. Hare) in the Chair.

HOUSE BILL No. 1494 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I call from the table House Bill No. 1494.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

SENATE INSISTS UPON ITS AMENDMENTS NON-CONCURRED IN BY THE HOUSE TO HOUSE BILL No. 1494

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insists upon its amendments non-concurred in by the House to House Bill No. 1494, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the University of Pittsburgh for the general maintenance and operation of the Western Psychiatric Institute and Clinic:

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

RECESS

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until 9 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. DIEHM. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

BILL ON CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS

Agreeably to order,
The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 742, as follows:

An Act providing for supplementing the police forces of cities boroughs towns and townships for the appointment powers and control of auxiliary police therein and for the transfer during disasters and emergencies of such auxiliary police members of the regular police forces and police equipment thereof

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The following words when used in this act shall have the following meanings

(1) "Municipality" means city borough town and township

(2) "Chief of police" means the chief or head of the police force of any municipality

Section 2 (a) The chief of police of any municipality may nominate persons as auxiliary policemen who have satisfactorily completed such training as he may prescribe

(b) All such persons so nominated shall before they enter upon their duties be confirmed and sworn by the mayor of the city the burgess of the borough or town or the chairman of commissioners or supervisors of the townships

(c) Auxiliary policemen shall serve at the pleasure of the chief of police of the municipality nominating them

Section 3 No person shall be nominated affirmed or sworn as an auxiliary policeman under this act who is not a citizen of the United States or who advocates or has advocated a change by force or violence in the constitutional form of government of the United States or in this State or the overthrow of any government in the United States by force or violence or who has been convicted of or is under indictment or information charging any subversive act against the United States or felony Each person who is appointed to serve as an auxiliary policeman shall before entering upon his duties take an oath in writing before a person authorized to administer oaths in this State which oath shall be substantially as follows

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Pennsylvania against all enemies foreign and domestic that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same that I take this obligation freely without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties upon which I am about to enter And I do further swear (or affirm) that I do not advocate nor am I a member of an affiliate of any organization group or combination of persons that advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of this State by force or violence and that during such time as I am a member of the auxiliary police I will not advocate nor become a member nor an affiliate of any organization group or combination of persons that advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of this State by force or violence"

Section 4 The mayor of any city the burgess of any borough or town and the chairman of commissioners or supervisors of any township may call the auxiliary police to active duty during any period of distress disaster or emergency except in cases of labor disturbances

Section 5 (a) Auxiliary policemen on active duty shall have the same powers as regular police officers of the municipality in which they are serving and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to them by the chief of police

(b) Auxiliary policemen when on active duty in a municipality other than the one in which appointed shall have the same powers in such municipality as regular police officers thereof

(c) The powers herein conferred may be exercised by auxiliary policemen only after they report for active duty and until they are relieved from duty

Section 6 Upon the occurrence of any disaster or emergency other than a labor disturbance in any municipality the chief executive officer thereof may request the Governor for the emergency assignment of police equipment auxiliary police and members of the regular police forces from other municipalities for the period of such emergency If the Governor approves such request he shall direct the Commissioner of the Pennsylvania State Police to order the chief executive officer of as many municipalities as may be necessary to transfer and such officials shall transfer police equipment auxiliary police and members of the regular police force to the requesting municipality in sufficient numbers and amounts to aid in meeting the disaster or emergency During such period the transferred police and equipment shall be under the jurisdiction of the chief of police of the municipality to which they are transferred Such transferred police shall have the same powers as regular police officers of the municipality to which they are transferred

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. LANE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I just want to call to the attention of the Members of the Senate that in passing and approving the concurrence in House amendments that we, of the Senate, voted unanimously for another loyalty oath bill. I want to bring to the attention of the Members of the Senate of Pennsylvania the power of propaganda.

It so happens, Mr. President, that in this bill the oath is more severe than the oath which is contained in Senate Bill No. 27. It pertains to members of the auxiliary police, who are part of our civilian defense setup, and I want to call to the attention of the public press that I do not believe there was a Member of either side of this House who voted against this legislation, which in reality means just this. It means that members of the civilian defense setup and the auxiliary police must take an oath of office far more severe than that contained in Senate Bill No. 27, which pertains to public employees.

And now ..... the claimant by ..... [his] its solicitor or by the chief of its delinquent tax bureau or in counties of the second class by the county controller suggests of record that the above claim is still due and owing to the claimant and avers that the owner is still in default for nonpayment thereof The prothonotary is hereby directed to enter this suggestion and averment on the municipal lien or the proper docket of the claim and also to index it upon the judgment index and on the locality index of the court for the purpose of continuing the lien of the claim

Such suggestion and averment shall be signed by or have stamped thereon a facsimile signature of the solicitor or chief executive office of the claimant or the chief of its delinquent tax bureau except in counties of the second class in which case it shall be signed or have stamped thereon a facsimile signature of the county controller The prothonotary shall docket and index the suggestion and averments directed therein and for such service in all counties of the fifth class and the political subdivision in such counties shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar and in all other classes of counties and the political subdivisions thereof he shall receive the following fee to be taxed and collected as other costs in the claim

for taxes on municipal claims for one year and is directed to be indexed in one name only ..... one dollar ($1)
Each additional year included ..... one dollar ($1)
Each additional name included ..... twenty-five cents ($.25)

The filing and indexing of such suggestion and averment within five years of filing the claim or the issuing of any writ of scire facias thereon or of any judgment thereon or of the filing of any prior suggestion and averment of default shall have the same force and effect for the purposes of continuing and preserving the lien of the claim as through a writ of scire facias has been issued or a judgment or judgment of revival had been obtained within such period Provided That no writ of levavi facias shall be issued upon a claim for the purpose of exposing property lien to sheriff's sale except after a judgment shall have been duly obtained upon the claim as provided in this section and such judgment must have been obtained within five years of the issuance of the levavi facias Whenever the lien of a claim has been revived and continued by filing and indexing of a suggestion and averment of default the claimant may at any time within five years therefrom issue a writ of scire facias thereon reciting all suggestion and averment of default filed since the filing of the claim and shall proceed thereon in the manner herein provided subject to the right of the owner to raise any defense arising since the last judgment

If a claim be not filed within the time aforesaid or if it be one prosecuted in the manner and at the time aforesaid its lien on real estate shall be wholly lost

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section 17 of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 149) entitled as amended "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are practically and commercially suitable for use in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropriation" as temporarily amended by the act approved the twenty-sixth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1880) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 17 Refunds The Board of Finance and Revenue may refund to distributors taxes penalties and interest paid by them on liquid fuels delivered to the United States government or paid as the result of an error of law or of fact or of both law and fact Claims for such refunds shall be made under the procedure prescribed by The Fiscal Code.

Any person who shall use or buy liquid fuels on which the tax imposed by this act shall have been paid and shall consume the same in the operation of any non-licensed farm tractor or licensed farm tractor when used off the highways for agricultural purposes or non-licensed powered farm machinery for purposes relating to the actual production of farm products shall be reimbursed one-half the amount of such tax

All such claims for reimbursement shall be made upon a form to be furnished by the Board of Finance and Revenue and shall include in addition to such other information as the board may by regulation prescribe the name and address of the claimant the period of time and the number of gallons of liquid fuels used for which reimbursement is claimed a description of the farm machinery in which such liquid fuels have been used and the purpose for which such machinery has been used the size of the farm and part thereof in cultivation on which such liquid fuels have been used Each such claim shall contain statements that the liquid fuels for which reimbursement is claimed have been used only for purposes for which reimbursements are permitted that records of the amounts of such fuels used in each piece of farm machinery have been kept and that no part of such claim has been paid except as stated Each such claim shall contain a declaration that it and accompanying receipts are true and correct to the best of claimant's knowledge and shall be signed by the claimant or the person claiming on his behalf Every claim shall be accompanied by receipts indicating that the liquid fuels tax was paid on the liquid fuels for which reimbursement is claimed All records of purchases of liquid fuels and use in each tractor or powered machinery shall be kept for a period of two years Every such claim shall be made [quarterly for a period represented by the preceding three months] annually for the preceding year ending on the thirtieth day of June and shall be submitted to the Board of Finance and Revenue not later than the [fifteenth day of April July October and January following the end of each three-months period] thirtieth day of September of each year and the board shall refuse to consider any claim received or post-marked later than such date The claimant shall satisfy the board that he has paid the tax and that the liquid fuels have been consumed by him in the operation of a tractor or piece of powered machinery for purposes relating to the actual production of farm products The board may require any claimant to furnish such further information proof or fuller explanation as it shall deem necessary The action of the Board of Finance and Revenue in granting or refusing reimbursement shall be final The board shall deduct the sum of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) which shall be considered as a filing fee from every claim for reimbursement granted Such filing fees are hereby specifically appropriated to the Board of Finance and Revenue and to the Department of Revenue for expenses of any nature whatsoever incurred in the administration of the reimbursement provisions of this act The Board of Finance and Revenue shall have the power to refuse to the Department of Revenue for investigation any claim for reimbursement filed under the provisions of this act and it shall be the duty of the Department of Revenue to investigate such application and report to the Board of Finance and Revenue relative thereto Any person making any false or fraudulent statement for the purpose of obtaining reimbursement shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1000) or to undergo imprisonment for not more than six (6) months or both

All refunds and reimbursements of moneys allowed hereunder shall be paid from the Motor License Fund and the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund in amounts equal to the original distribution and payment of such moneys into said funds Provided however that reimbursement for taxes paid on liquid fuels consumed in the operation of tractors and powered machinery for purposes relating to the actual production of farm products shall be paid out of the Motor License Fund

As much of the moneys from time to time in the Motor License Fund and the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to the Board of Finance and Revenue for the purpose of making refunds and reimbursements as herein authorized Estimates of the amounts to be expended from these funds for refunds and reimbursements from time to time by the board shall be submitted to the Governor for his approval or disapproval as in the case of other appropriations to administrative departments boards and commissions and it shall be unlawful for the Auditor General to honor any requisition of the Board of Finance and Revenue for the expenditure of moneys hereunder in excess of the estimates approved by the Governor

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment and shall apply only to liquid fuels purchased on and after the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one and before the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three

BILL ON SECOND READING AMENDED

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1718, entitled:

An Act to amend Section twenty-one of the Act approved the twentieth day of June one thousand nine hundred nineteen (P. L. 521) entitled as amended "An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a nonresident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth or national banking association located therein to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association standing in the name of any such decedent until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid and providing penalties and citing certain acts for repeal" as amended by modifying the rates of commission which may be retained by registers of wills of their own use for collection of inheritance taxes as agents of the Commonwealth

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate, the amendments which I would like to offer to House Bill No. 1718 would make the commissions payable to the register of wills apply to the present or correspond exactly with the present commissions paid to them. In other words, the amendments would not permit an increase in the salaries or the commissions payable to registers of wills unless they would collect larger amounts than they presently collect.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, in regard to this piece of legislation, we had an agreement that the Chairman of the Committee would contact the Secretary of Revenue, and if the figures submitted by the spokesmen for the register of wills were correct and complied with the statements made, the chairman of the Committee would report the bill out. Now, I have not talked to Senator Stevenson since we had the meeting. I noticed the bill on the Calendar, and I thought that Senator Stevenson was satisfied as to the truthfulness of the figures and statements made by the spokesmen for the registers of wills.

Mr. President, I would like someone to answer that question for me. At this time I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Blair, Senator Mallory.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Mallory, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MALLERY. Yes, I will, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. Senator Mallory, you will recall that when we had the committee meeting we empowered Senator Stevenson to contact the Secretary of Revenue in regard to the figures submitted by the spokesman for the registers of wills, and it was our understanding that the bill would be reported out if the Secretary of Revenue certified to the Chairman of the Committee that the figures were in order. Now, can you explain to me the details of the meeting which you might have had with the Secretary of Revenue?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, in reply to Senator Lane, I wish to state that the Chairman of the Committee attempted to contact the Secretary of Revenue and was not able to get in touch with him. I called him today, and the Secretary of Revenue told me definitely that the bill, as reported out of committee, would give the registers of wills more money, it would give them an increase.

By the way, Mr. President, I want to state that of all the members in the court house at home, they are all very good friends of mine, but if I have any particular friend it is the register of wills, and I think everyone at home realizes that the registers of wills, considering the salary increase which they have received at this Session of the Legislature, together with the fees which they receive for collecting inheritance taxes, are the highest paid officers in the court house, exceeding by a great deal of money more than the commissioners whom I believe have more responsibility than any other member of the court house.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, may I further interrogate Senator Mallory?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Mallory, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. MALLERY. I have no objection, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. Senator Mallory, in the event these amendments are adopted, would you agree to carry the bill over as amended?

Mr. MALLERY. Gladly, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I want to say to the gentleman from Blair and to the gentleman from Washington with respect to carrying the bill over, we are adjourning sine die not later than Saturday. Now, I do not want to jeopardize any agreement that you gentlemen have made. I do not want to be the villain in the play. Any carrying over that is done is done subject to the sine die adjournment.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, that will be all right because we can pass it on Third Reading tomorrow, but what I want to do is look at the bill as amended.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I wish to assure my colleague, Senator Lane, and all other Members of the Senate, that the amendments will provide the same rate of fees as they have received and are receiving today. They do not stand to lose a penny.

Mr. MALLERY offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1 page 2, line 2, by inserting after the figures "521)" the following "entitled as amended "An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death, and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a nonresident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death; defining and taxing transfers made in contemplation of death; defining as a transfer and taxing the right of survivorship in property as to which such right exists; and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth or national banking association located therein, to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association, standing in the name of any such decedent, until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid; and providing penalties; and citing certain acts for repeal." Amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 3, by striking out the word "last"; Amend Sec. 1 page 2, line 3, by striking out the word "Act" and inserting in lieu thereof "act"; Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 21), page 3, line 2 to 20 both inclusive by striking out "(five) eight per centum upon" in line 2 and all of lines 3 to 20 both inclusive, and inserting in lieu thereof the following "five per centum upon the tax collected, if such tax shall amount to a sum of fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars or less; three per centum on the amounts collected in excess of fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars and not exceeding one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars; one per centum on the amounts collected in excess of one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars and not over two hundred thousand ($200,000) dollars; and one-half of one per centum on the amounts collected in excess of two hundred thousand ($200,000) dollars and not over one million ($1,000,000) dollars; and one-quarter of one per centum on the amounts collected in excess of one million ($1,000,000) dollars: Provided, That the total amount to be so retained by such registers of wills for their own use shall not exceed the total sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) during any year: Provided, further, That if any tax rate shall be increased over the rate in effect during the year 1950, the foregoing percentages shall be computed as though such increase had not occurred."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. NEFF. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

YEAS—31

Barr.	Kessler,	Pechan,	Wagner,
Berger,	Lane.	Peelor,	Walker
Blass,	Letzler,	Propert,	Watkins
Chapman,	Mahany,	Robinson,	Watson.
Diehn,	Mallery,	Snowden,	Wolfe,
Fleming,	McGinnis,	Stevenson,	Wood,
Freed.	McMenamin,	Taylor.	Hare,

NAYS—11

Byrne,	Leader,	Rosenfeld,	Stiefel.
DiSilvestro,	McCreesh,	Ruth,	Yosko.
Holland,	Neff,	Silvert,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The second section was read and agreed to.

The title was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the title?

Mr. MALLERY offered the following amendments:

Amend Title, page 1, line 1, by inserting after the word "To" the following "further"; Amend Title, page 1, last line, by inserting after the word "death" the following "defining and taxing transfers made in contemplation of death; defining as a transfer and taxing the right of survivorship in property as to which such right exists;" Amend Title, page 2, lines 5 and 6 from top, by striking out "as amended by modifying the" and inserting in lieu thereof "by fixing a further limitation on".

They were agreed to.

The title was agreed to as amended.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to, as amended,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

HOUSE BILL No. 587 CALLED UP

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I call up from the Third Reading Calendar House Bill No. 587 for consideration at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

AMENDMENTS OFFERED

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 587, as follows:

An Act providing a method for the reestablishment of townships of the first class from any city to which they have been annexed regulating the proceedings pertaining thereto and reestablishing the same as separate school districts

Section 1 Reestablishment authorized within ten years after the annexation of a township of the first class to a city a petition may be presented to the court of quarter sessions of the county wherein the whole or the greater portion of the territory of the former township is located for the establishment of the annexed territory as a township of the first class

Section 2 Petitions Petitions for the reestablishment of townships as provided in the preceding section shall be signed by registered electors equal in number to at least five per centum of the highest total vote cast within the former township of the first class boundaries for candidates for any office in the city affected at the last preceding municipal election. Where candidates for any city office have as yet not been elected by the residents of such former township then a petition for the reestablishment of any such township may be signed by fifty of the registered electors of such former township Such petition shall be sworn to and subscribed by at least three of the signers.

Such petitions shall set forth the name of the proposed township to be reestablished and shall specify the reasons for such reestablishment One such petition in each such proceeding shall be accompanied by an accurate map or plot prepared by an engineer showing the lines of the township to be reestablished Where natural marks are on such lines they shall be shown

Section 3 Confirmation Nisi of Petition Notice of Filing Upon the presentation of any such petition the same shall be confirmed nisi and the court shall by its order require that notice thereof be given by the petitioners to the residents of such former township and the city by advertisement once a week for three weeks in two newspapers in or circulated throughout the territory where such residents reside

Section 4 Exceptions Confirmation Absolute of Petition Within thirty days after the filing of such petition any taxpayer of the city affected may file exceptions to such petition questioning the sufficiency of the number of signers or the legality of any signatures or the accuracy or sufficiency of the map or plot attached thereto The court upon the filing of any exceptions shall fix a day for hearing of which such notice shall be given as the court may direct At such hearing the court shall hear all parties interested and their witnesses If the exceptions in the opinion of the court are sustained and the court deems the petition not amendable it shall dismiss the petition otherwise it shall confirm the same absolutely after any amendments permitted by the court have been made

Section 5 Elections When any petition is confirmed absolutely the court shall order an election to be held on the question of the reestablishment of such township which shall be held on the day of the next general or municipal election occurring at least ninety days after such order of court Such election shall be held at the regular polling places only within that part of the city which was formerly the township of the first class which was annexed to the city affected At any such election all of the registered electors of that part of the city which was the township of the first class prior to its annexation to said city affected shall have the right to vote The ballots or ballot labels at such election shall be furnished by the county commissioners and the question to be placed thereon shall be framed and printed on the ballots or on the ballot labels of voting machines as provided by the Pennsylvania Election Code

Section 6 Return of Election Decree The election officers of the consolidated territory or if they have not as yet been elected then the election officers of the former township after the polls have been closed shall count and certify the number of votes cast for and against such township reestablishment to the clerk of the court of quarter sessions who shall tabulate and compute the same and lay the result before the court If it shall appear that a majority of the votes cast in that part of the city which was the township of the first class prior to its annexation to said city affected are in favor of the reestablishment of the township the court shall order and decree the reestablishment of the township agreeably to the name and lines set forth in the petition and the government of the reestablished township shall be organized and become effective on the first Monday of January next succeeding such election If a majority of the votes cast in any such election are against the reestablishment of such township no further action shall be had upon said proceedings No new proceeding shall be entertained by the court for a period of two years

Section 7 Boundary Monuments The court may when deemed necessary cause the lines of any such reestablished township to be appropriately marked with stone monuments placed at intervals not exceeding fifteen hundred feet the cost thereof to be paid by the reestablished township

Section 8 Classification of Reestablished Townships Townships reestablished as herein provided shall be and remain townships of the first class unless and until by subsequent proceedings in accordance with law its classification shall be changed

Section 9 Costs When a township of the first class is reestablished as hereinbefore provided the costs of the proceedings shall be paid by such reestablished township and where any petition is dismissed or a majority of the electors shall vote against the reestablishment of any such township the costs of the proceedings shall be paid as the court may direct

Section 10 Property Debt and Tax Adjustment All property vested in such township as of the date of its annexation to the city affected shall again be vested in such township as of the date of its reestablishment as a township All bonded indebtedness of such township as of the date of its annexation shall be the debt of such township as of the date of its reestablishment as a township and the township shall not be liable for any part of the bonded indebtedness of such city existing prior to its annexation to such city All unpaid taxes assessed and levied within such township during such annexation shall continue to be due until paid to the taxing authority of such city

Section 11 Officers for Reestablished Townships Whenever a township of the first class shall be reestablished in accordance with the procedure in this act the court of quarter sessions shall divide such township into districts not in excess of fifteen nor less than two each of which shall contain not less than three hundred and fifty registered voters The said court shall appoint five commissioners and the other elective officers to which a township of the first class is entitled and fix the polling place or places in such township The officers so appointed shall hold their offices from the first Monday of January following the election reestablishing such township until the first Monday of January following the municipal election at which officers of the township are elected as hereinafter provided

Section 12 Election of Commissioners in Reestablished Townships At the first municipal election following the reestablishment of a township as hereinbefore provided there shall be elected by the registered electors of each district of the township one township commissioner who shall reside in the district for which he is elected At such election the township commissioners elected in even-numbered districts shall be elected for terms of two years each and those in odd-numbered districts for terms of four years each from the first Monday of January next following such election The ballots or ballot labels at such election shall designate the term for which each commissioner is elected Their successors shall be elected for terms of four years

Section 13 Election of Treasurer in Reestablished Townships At such municipal election the qualified electors of such reestablished township shall elect a township treasurer for a two or four year term so that his term shall expire at the same time as the terms of treasurers of other townships of the first class as provided by law Thereafter the term of treasurer of said township shall be four years from the first Monday of January next following his election

Section 14 Election of Township Assessor and Assistant Township Assessor in Reestablished Townships At such municipal election one township assessor shall be elected for a term of four years and one assistant township assessor for a term of two years Thereafter the terms of such township assessor and assistant township assessor shall be four years from the first Monday of January succeeding their respective elections

This section shall not apply to townships in counties having county boards for the assessment and revision of taxes where assessors under existing laws are appointed

Section 15 Certificate of Creation of Townships to State Departments Whenever a township of the first class is reestablished the clerk of the court shall certify such reestablishment to the Department of Internal Affairs and Department of Highways of the Commonwealth The clerk of the court shall be allowed a fee of three dollars and fifty cents for his services to be paid as part of the costs of the proceedings

Section 16 School Districts Upon the reestablishment of a township of the first class the territory comprising the same shall be reestablished as a separate school district of the class to which it is entitled

And said bill having been read at length the third time,
On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, the bill on which we are about to vote sets forth the proposition that after a township is annexed to a city in Pennsylvania, the township by the vote of that municipality alone may at anytime within ten years after annexation vote to secede or withdraw from that city. Now, we know that in order for the annexation to have taken place, both the city and the township must have voted for it; that is, a majority of the voters of each of the municipalities must have been in favor of annexation.

Mr. President, this bill would allow the vote of the voters in the township alone to withdraw from the city, as I say, anytime within ten years thereafter. Now, it seems to me that this is a unilateral rescission of a contract, and I do not think there is a man in the Senate who would agree that this is sound legislation, and that is one of the things I would like to explain. I am first going to offer amendments which would provide that before such a vote could be had, both the voters in the city and in the township must vote on the proposition of whether or not to break up the enlarged municipality.

Mr. President, another feature of the bill which is very bad is that a vote could be taken on petition or placed on the ballot on petition of five per cent of the total registered voters who voted for any candidate for any one office at the last primary election. This bill very definitely affects Scranton as a local situation Lackawanna County.

Mr. President, in the election of 1949, the voters of the city of Scranton and the voters of Lackawanna Township, which lies directly south of Scranton, by a majority vote in each municipality, agreed to an annexation. There are at the present time approximately 1100 registered voters in Lackawanna Township, 1000 to 1100. Under the terms of this bill, by a petition, signed by a mere five per cent or perhaps less than fifty, depending on how many voted at the last election, for each year for ten years, the political structure of the city of Scranton and the former township of Lackawanna could be undermined and kept in complete confusion. This is true not only of the police force, and the fire department and the various city agencies, but also in the consolidated school district. I do not see any sense in providing legislation which would endanger or make uncertain the conduct of the schools in the city of Scranton in so far as the benefits to the school children are concerned. How any municipality, how a city, either the city or school board, could frame a budget in each year, not knowing whether at the end of that year they were to have twenty-three or twenty-four wards in it, is something that no one could hope to figure out.

Mr. President, this is as vicious a piece of legislation as has yet come to the Senate. It is interesting to note that it arrived in the Senate on April 3 of this year, and was first reported out of committee on June 20. Since that time it has been back and forth to the committee and out on the Calendar. I think the fact that it has been so long in the Senate without any prior final action being sought on the bill is evidence, some evidence, of the basic and inherent unsoundness and unfairness of this legislation.

Now, Mr. President, as I have said before, I do not want to ask anybody in this Senate to vote on this bill without knowing all of the facts involved, and I do not want anybody to vote on this bill on the matter of party lines. I think this bill, as it is drawn, applies only to our situation in and around the city of Scranton, and I think it is a nonpartisan problem. I think it is a question of good government, and I am not asking any of my colleagues to vote for or against the bill on my wishes, and I appeal to the high-minded, independent Republican Members of the Senate on the other side of the aisle to give it the same impartial approach.

At this time, Mr. President, I offer the amendments which will provide—the amendments do but one thing—that in the event a vote is taken to break up the city of Scranton again into the two former municipalities, the people of the city of Scranton shall have a vote on that question. Since the township has been annexed, the city has made a considerable investment of money in the former township. A fire and police alarm system has been installed, streets have been paved, and playgrounds have been placed therein. Certainly it is unsound for any smaller municipality to seek to attach itself to a larger one, to remain for a period of a few years, accept a good many benefits and investments, and then pull out on its own vote or the vote of the former municipality alone.

Mr. President, this bill, or these amendments, would merely provide that in the event such a petition is placed on the ballot, that the secession or breaking up of the city could not be accomplished unless a majority of the voters in each of the two municipalities vote in favor of such secession.

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Sec. 5, page 4, line 14, by striking out the word "only"; Amend Sec. 5, page 4, lines 14 and 15, by striking out the words "that part of the city which was formerly the township of the first class which was annexed to"; Amend Sec. 5, page 4, lines 17 and 18, by striking out the words "part of the city which was the township of the first class prior to its annexation to said"; Amend Sec. 6, page 5, line 5, by striking out the word "township" and inserting in lieu thereof: "separate territories"; Amend Sec. 6, page 5, line 9, by inserting after the word "cast" the following: "in the entire city affected as well as a majority of the votes cast."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, when this Session is over and the captains and the kings depart, I would suggest to my colleagues that they spend Christmas in reading a very interesting book entitled, "Farmer's Hotel." That book is set in Pennsylvania, and describes the experiences of a group of ladies and men who are snowbound in Pennsylvania. Now, tonight being snowbound and in this torrential rain, I believe that the atmosphere is conducive to make a few observations, and I desire to make them.

Mr. President, if I would have to write a book about my experiences at the current Session of the General Assembly, the title of the book would read as follows: "Simmering Alembics and Exploding Pressure Cookers." For many months bills were in committee just simmering and then toward the end of this Session they are beginning to explode, and who can form a careful opinion as to what to do? Twice during the evening we are called upon to vote on important measures, and how can one peruse the bill, form an opinion and then cast an intelligent vote? I, for one, do not know what to do, and I resent this policy of saving important bills until the dying days of the Legislature. For this reason, many of our acts may not be phrased in the best language or judgment.

Mr. President, I feel that this measure is so important that it requires very careful consideration, and at the same time I want to voice my protest against considering a measure of this type at the last moment.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Doctor Stiefel, who in my opinion is one of the most learned men who ever sat in this august Body, very carefully mentioned a book that he advised us to read. In his humility, the Doctor failed to mention one of the finest books which will be presented to the intellectual people of this great Republic, a book which will shortly be on the newsstands all over the United States, a book entitled, "Balls of Brass," and the author will be that eminent Member of this august Body, Doctor Stiefel.

Mr. President, the eminent characters in that book are people who occupy public office, who have the courage of their convictions. In the light of the high esteem in which the gentleman from Philadelphia, Doctor Stiefel, holds us, I suggest to my colleagues on this side of the aisle that with all due respect to their friendship, to the distinguished gentleman from Lackawanna, we vote the amendment down.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, the bill which Senator McMenamin spoke on is one bill that I failed to read in detail, but he called my attention to something which I feel is very very important. You must remember if we pass this legislation it is going to apply to any city within this Commonwealth, as long as the township is a township of the first class.

Now, Mr. President, we must also remember this. We have fiscal problems in our political subdivisions the same as we have here in the Commonwealth. If we do not lick this legislation, when we realize that cities have gone to the expense of expending large sums of money in order to bring about improvements and then permit them to separate themselves from the metropolitan area, we are doing an injustice to the political subdivisions. I say to you that we should support the Senator's amendments, because I believe they will rectify this condition by permitting the populace of the city to also participate in this election.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not think it is a question of whether the bill or the amendments are up before us. The whole problem should be reviewed, and one thing which is very serious here is that we are giving character to a shotgun wedding. In every instance in a contract, two parties make the contract. We have never allowed one party to run out on a contract without allowing the other party to at least state its position.

Mr. President, this community joined another community by mutual and vocal contract, an election was held, and the people of both communities voted for annexation. Tonight we are saying in the Senate of Pennsylvania that contracts from now on are just mere pieces of paper. You are talking about Scranton tonight, you are talking about Minooka, but you might be talking about any community in Pennsylvania, any of our home towns. My home town has taken in communities, we have given them streets, we have given them sewers, we have given them things that go with large city government. Tonight we are establishing a precedent whereby five per cent of any community which has been attached to a larger community can go before the people in its own community, after it has received the benefits of the marriage, and disown the children. There is a word for it, and I will not use it on the floor of the Senate.

Members of the Senate, you just cannot do these things and hold your head up. This is a political pressure proposition, because somebody thinks that if we dissolve this marriage we can gain a political advantage, but what you are doing, you are setting something up that goes far beyond Scranton, far beyond Minooka. You are going into a proposition whereby every community in this State which has taken into its boundary lines a first class township may be faced with an election where that first class township may remove itself from the common bond.

Now, Mr. President, you can vote "no" or you can vote "yes", because you feel that somebody on your side wants you to vote one way and somebody on our side wants you to vote the other way, but in simple justice to yourselves, this particular problem is as serious as any problem that has faced this Senate during the entire Session. You are setting a precedent, you are now establishing a new basis for operation in government. Along comes a first class township, a large sprawling community, a large city established next door to it, with all of the conveniences of a big city; its parks, its museums, its waterworks, its transportation systems, its communication systems, its great street empire. The township comes in and says, "Will you take us into your system," and you do. Then after two years you have spread your street system, you have established a new bonded indebtedness or you have used your power of expenditure in your local government and you have built for them a communication system, you have built for them a transportation system. You have given to them the best that is in your city, and then two years later they say, "Here we are, new streets, new industries come in because we have the address of a big city," industries that would never even have thought of moving into a township, people who live in the city, who did not want to leave the city government, have moved into the co-called annexed area which is now part of the city. Two years later, because some individual, we might say, in the community, in the township, maybe a tax collector has lost his job as a tax collector, so he wants his job back and he agitates, and you all know that one agitator can do more harm than a thousand singing the gospel, and the township removes itself by your vote tonight from the parent body that it joined.

Now, Mr. President, you think this is just a silly little bill, it has no repercussions, it does not mean anything in your district, you can go along and vote, but I am telling you that you are setting up a precedent which will come back into these halls time and time again, because I know some communities that are going to be embarrassed by the passage of this act. If you Members of the Senate just study your own districts, if it is right for a first class township to remove itself from the city, what is wrong with a second class township? Is the logic right, is there any difference in it? Is there anything wrong with a second class township taking itself away from the marriage which it has promulgated in friendship and in mutual agreement, and then saying to itself, "I want to get out after I have received the benefits of the marriage"?

Mr. President, I know I cannot change a vote on the Senate floor tonight, but I am going to have this say because I know that I am right. You are setting a precedent here that is going to come back and haunt every Member of this Senate. This bill is born in inequity. It has no soundness, it has no logic, it has no justification for appearing on this particular Calendar tonight. There we are, after a long and tiresome Session of this Legislature, creating another bugaboo which will come up and tell us again in the future that we are wrong, and we were so wrong that it is unbelievable that men in this Senate Body would even consider this legislation at this point.

Mr. President, what you are doing here tonight is saying to every township in Pennsylvania, "Go ahead, you backward townships, attach yourselves to a large body politic next to you, a progressive community, attach yourselves and get all the benefits of it and then withdraw." A contract made by two persons, a contract made by two communities, a contract made by two companies or corporations, to my mind, is a contract and that contract ought not be violated by the Legislature saying that one party to the contract can withdraw without permission or without at least the right of recourse to the other party to the contract. You are saying to yourselves tonight that when you write a contract with another individual, that individual can abrogate the contract, can walk away from it and you cannot go to court. That is what you are saying to the city of Scranton tonight. You are saying, "You made a contract with Minooka by a mutual vote of both of the parties involved," but you are saying to the township, "You do not need to worry about the contract. You do not need to worry about the vote of the people in the city of Scranton. You have your own right to abrogate. You have your own right to walk away."

Mr. President, supposing that tomorrow I made a contract with any one of you whereby both of us were to put certain of our assets into an endeavor, and when the endeavor became prosperous you would decide that you would receive the most out of the bargain, and you would take the contract, jut like you are doing tonight, and tear it up; just tear the thing up, and I would not have any say about your tearing it up. Remember that as Members of this Legislature the precedent that we set up in government filters down through to every phase of life, business, civic and political. If we tonight say that a contract is not valid in government, then it is not valid in business, and I want to tell all of you here tonight that you are making the most serious mistake that you have ever made in this Senate when you say that a contract between two communities has no standing in the eyes of the law.

Mr. NEFF. Mr. President, although I realize that the words of the Minority Leader, Senator Dent, are perhaps too true and not a vote will be changed regardless of what we say on this side of the aisle, I think that certainly this bill is deserving of all the deep consideration that the Senate of Pennsylvania can give it.

Mr. President, here tonight we are debating a problem that is probably the most serious matter to come before this Body this Session, affecting one of the great cities of the Commonwealth, the city of Scranton, a community which has made a valiant struggle to rise from the depths of depression, due to a lack of industry and the departure of many of the workers the area, and in the dying days of the Session, with little consideration, bound by caucus, the majority Members of this Body are going to vote on the measure without regard to the true facts of the situation. I did not take too well the remarks of the Majority Leader, in a situation as serious as this one to the citizens of the city of Scranton. He found a time and a place to get up and give his usual dissertation in a fashion in which he is so well versed.

Mr. President, I would say that John Walker, the Majority Leader, here tonight has sensed a place on the Olympic Team, if there is such a place, as the spot for a man who is a champion double-talker. He did it tonight, taking time to digress with levity in a situation that is of serious consequence—

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman yield the floor a moment? The gentleman is distinctly out of order. The question is on the motion to adopt the amendments.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred:)

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Request has been made to have the roll verified. The Clerk will call the names of those recorded as having voted in the affirmative.

The Clerk read the names of those recorded as having voted in the affirmative as follows:

Barr,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Rosenfeld,
Byrne,	Holland,	McGinnis,	Ruth,
Dent,	Lane,	McMenamin,	Silvert,
DiSilvestro,	Leader,	Neff,	Stiefel,
			Yosko,

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Are there any corrections? The Chair hears none. The affirmative roll will stand as verified.

The Clerk will call the names of those recorded as having voted in the negative.

Berger,	Kessler,	Propert,	Walker,
Blass,	Letzler,	Robinson,	Watkins,
Chapman,	Mahanay,	Snowden,	Watson,
Crowe,	Mallery,	Stevenson,	Wolfe,

Fleming,	Pechan,	Wade,	Hare,
Freed,	Peelor,	Wagner,	Presiding Officer

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Are there any objections? The Chair hears none. The negative roll will stand as verified.

The vote on the question: yeas 17, nays 27, and the amendments fall.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. McMENAMIN and Mr. DENT and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—17

Barr,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Rosenfeld,
Byrne,	Holland,	McGinnis,	Ruth,
Dent,	Lane,	McMenamin,	Silvert,

--	---	---	--

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McMENAMIN. Mr. President, I would like to take just a few minutes to discuss the merits of the bill without the amendments. Personally, I am rather shocked and surprised to see that a vote on such a measure as this was taken along party lines, that this is the kind of a Christmas present midnight justice is giving to the people of Scranton. I can anticipate fairly well now what the vote on the bill will be, but I would like to make a last minute appeal to reason.

Mr. President, speaking for the people of Scranton, it is important, I think, to understand why the annexation of Lackawanna Township and the city of Scranton came about. As has been mentioned here, the township is familiarly known around Scranton as Minooka and this has gotten to be known as the "Minooka Bill." As we all know, the coal regions in general, and Lackawanna County as much as any of the other anthracite counties, have suffered a gradual decline in economic prosperity for almost two decades. That largely results from the fact that the coal reserves in these counties are gradually being depleted. As a result, a great many people have moved out of the area. Business conditions in general have suffered to a much greater extent than in other parts of this State and the Nation.

Mr. President, following World War II, many civic-minded groups, under the leadership of the Chamber of Commerce, formed a number of committees and organizations which had as their purpose providing for the means to rehabilitate, from an economic standpoint, not only Scranton but all of Lackawanna County. Among other things, these organizations sponsored public fund-raising drives for the purpose of building factories which could be rented to concerns willing to come in there and install machinery and operate plants. A total of more than $4,000,000 has been raised in Scranton and Lackawanna County since that time by these different drives. These drives have been spearheaded by various groups of people in the community, not only civic groups, but church groups, officers and members of organized labor, public officials and just plain citizens. They have contributed in large measure, many times at great personal sacrifice, not only time but also money to the success of these drives.

Mr. President, sometime ago I distributed, or caused to be distributed, copies here in the Senate of a bulletin put out by the Scranton Chamber of Commerce outlining some of the highlights of that drive to provide new employment in Lackawanna County. Mr. President, the "Scranton Story," incidentally, has come to be well-known all over the Country. Scranton's efforts to rehabilitate itself have been publicized in national magazines and in many financial journals such as Barrons, Business Week and that sort of thing. In the five years since World War II ended, thirty-nine new plants have been built in Scranton, many of them with the funds raised by these public drives, and fifty-five plants have been expanded. Scranton has come a long way out of the slough of the depression in which it found itself in the latter part of the 1930's. But, the job is not yet finished.

Now, Mr. President, as a part of this drive to rebuild Scranton, those who were spearheading it decided that one of the places in which new factories could be built close to Scranton was in Minooka. Now, it so happens that Scranton is located in a valley and there is not a great deal of level ground that is vacant on which new buildings could be built. It is also somewhat of a problem to secure level ground which is not undermined. Therefore, it was decided to try to interest the people in Lackawanna Township in joining the city of Scranton because they do have a great many acres of level ground which is free from undermining in this particular township. Since that time, at least five factories have been built in Minooka. They include a plant of the Trane Company, which has its headquarters in the State of Wisconsin, which company manufactures radiator and heating equipment, a subsidiary plant of the General Electric Company, as well as others. These factories have already provided thousands of jobs, and their employment potential is even greater. They are important factors in Scranton's drive to attract new industries.

Mr. President, as I have said before, those plants were built in part by public moneys, that is money raised publicly, and some of them have been partially financed by loans from local banks. Both the people of Scranton and the people of Minooka voted to consolidate into one municipality, and Minooka became the twenty-fourth ward of the city of Scranton. Prior to that time on one previous occasion, the people of Minooka voted to merge with the city of Scranton, but the measure did not pass in the city. So, the people of this township have twice expressed themselves as being in favor of joining with the city. I might say that I understand as a part of the continued efforts to industrialize Scranton, plans are being laid for further drives to annex other surrounding boroughs and townships to the city of Scranton.

Mr. President, to say that this bill has attracted considerable attention in the city of Scranton since it was introduced is an understatement. It has been very much a key issue, and it seems to give a fair recital of the history and facts surrounding the annexation of this particular township and the reasons why it was annexed. Now, I would never ask any Member of this Body to vote for a bill in which I was interested, or to vote against it, unless I gave him the benefit of all of the facts which I had at my command. It has been rumored that this bill has a political tinge. For the benefit of those Members who are not familiar with the political situation involved, I want to explain it to you so that you will not be voting under a misapprehension. I will explain it as impartially and as frankly as I possibly can.

Mr. President, Minooka is largely a Democratic area and has been for years. At the last election, the vote was something like 850 for the Democratic candidates and 150 odd for the Republican candidates. The majority in Minooka, now the Twenty-Fourth Ward of the city, will run 800 to 1,000, or has in elections in recent years, for Democratic candidates. Now, the city of Scranton at the present time has a Democratic registration lead, and the officers in City Hall and Council are members of the Democratic Party. Why then this bill? Certainly there must be a motive, certainly there must be an ulterior aspect to it which does not appear on the face of it. For certainly on the face of this bill it is unsound in principle. From the standpoint of those in Scranton, who are trying to rebuild Scranton, it is an unfair, an unreasonable and an unconscionable bill. It is a fraud on every person who has contributed one penny by way of buying new factories.

Mr. President, let us examine for a moment who will be the chief beneficiaries of such a bill. First of all, of course, the former officials of the township, perhaps we can say, would like to get their jobs back. If that is true, I am sorry to say that they are members of my own party. If they are interested, if that is their motive, I consider it very selfish, very cheap politics. Now, it may hurt me, if I should ever run for any other public office to say that about members of my own party. But whether or not I am a political casualty it seems to me is immaterial. The welfare of the great majority of the people of Scranton and Lackawanna County is much more important than the welfare or a place at the public trough of any politician.

Mr. President, it is also well to examine the possibility of whether or not the sponsor of this bill would benefit. One of the sponsors, Representative Spencer, is a Republican Member of the House from Lackawanna County. Now, the particular district in which he runs, in which this former township is located, to my knowledge has never sent a Democrat to the Legislature. What possible benefit it can be to him in future elections in that district I cannot conceive. Whether or not there is any political deal here, I do not know, but certainly we have got to consider that aspect of it.

Mr. President, it has also been said that perhaps some members of the Republican Party in Scranton would be interested in seeing this township removed from Scranton because of its heavy Democratic registration. Well, I leave it to your judgement as to whether or not that is a sound motive for such a bill as this. It is a fact that the last time a mayor was elected in the city of Scranton in 1949, the Democratic candidate was elected by a majority of 12,000 votes. I do not see that a mere 800 votes one way or the other would have made much difference. It is also true that last month the County Commissioners and the majority of the county candidates on the Democratic ticket carried the city of Scranton by 3,000 to 3,500 votes. It could not have made any difference in that election. It is true, however, that at least one of the candidates, the candidate for tax collector in the city on the Republican ticket, would have been elected without the vote in the twenty-fourth ward.

Now, Mr. President, certainly any politician, I do not care what party he is a member of, who comes down here to this body and says, "Please vote for and pass such a bill as this because this will help us or can conceivably help in the future," to my mind is not a wise or a sound politician. I do not think it is helping your party if some of your leaders from Scranton have said that to you and pointed out to you that it would have made a difference in one particular election for one particular office. I happen to know the Republican candidate for tax collector. He is a young man, well known and a very high type fellow, and I think he would have gotten a good vote no matter what happened. I think perhaps everybody in the room here is a more experienced politician than I am, but certainly you know that each election is different. Just because somebody voted one way five years ago, ten years ago or one month ago is no guarantee that the vote will be the same next year, or five years from now or ten years from now. Regardless of what we might feel or the desire we might have to gain partisan political advantage, that is certainly no reason to ask intelligent men holding a position of responsibility such as we have, to become a party to a cheap, ward-level, selfish, vicious political deal. Such measures and such motives have no part in the reasoning or the thinking of the Members of the Senate of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, this bill has been opposed by every worthwhile civic, independent, charitable, church, labor management and every other possible type of group in Scranton which has the welfare of the people of Scranton at heart. Both newspapers have opposed it editorially. Let me read to you just part of an editorial, one of a series that appeared in the Scranton Times, on August 16 of this year.

"The measure, introduced in the House at the instance of a group of disgruntled jobholders and politicians in Minooka (now the 24th Ward of Scranton), would make it possible for the old township to secede from the city by a vote of the people of this locality. It is pointed out that annexation was brought about by the joint vote of the people of township and city."

I repeat, Mr. President, that if I should ever run again for any public office, I am not interested in securing votes from the type of politicians who might sponsor such a bill and whose level of political thinking is so low.

Mr. President, the Scranton Times is a normally Democratic newspaper. Let me read now from our other daily newspaper, the Scranton Tribune, which is a Republican newspaper in the city of Scranton. Incidentally, I believe that the Chamber of Commerce had these editorials lithographed and sent to every Member of the Senate. I personally have written a letter to every Member of this Senate explaining in some detail the background of this bill, and I am going into it here tonight because I have the utmost respect for every Member of the Senate on the other side of the aisle. Much as we might disagree on some measures, I believe the Members are reasonable, intelligent and inherently honest. I am trying to be as fair as possible with you in my effort to explain all of the surrounding circumstances in connection with this bill. The editorial in the Republican newspaper, and it is only one of many which has appeared on the subject, reads as follows:

A FALSE FACE BILL

"Members of the State Senate at Harrisburg are expected to be asked shortly to vote upon a measure which would allow the electors of Scranton's 24th Ward, formerly Lackawanna Township, to vote themselves out of the City of Scranton and back into the status of a township.

"This would be a one-sided referendum in that the people of the City of Scranton as a whole would be denied an opportunity to express themselves on the issue. Only those of the 24th Ward would be allowed to vote.

"The measure was introduced in the House by Republican Representative Henry C. Spencer, Lackawanna's lone GOP Representative. It was subsequently passed by the House and sent to the Senate.

"To the best of our knowledge Representative Spencer has never publicly advanced any reason for the introduction of this bill. He has never named anyone directly interested in this legislation nor cited a good or sufficient cause for placing this legislation on our statute books."

This, may I remind the gentlemen of the Senate, is the Republican newspaper in the city of Scranton. It goes on:

"However, because he is a Republican there unquestionably will be those in the Republican majority in the Senate who will assume that this bill has the blessing of the Republican organization of Lackawanna County.

"That is not the case.

"No Republican Party leader in Lackawanna County has ever publicly endorsed or approved or even spoken favorably for the enactment of this measure.

"To the contrary, scores of prominent Republicans, active civic leaders, substantial and representative citizens, have publicly condemned this proposed legislation as injurious to the economic welfare of a community which is endeavoring to rehabilitate itself by inducing new industry to come to Scranton and particularly to the 24th Ward of Scranton which offers many splendid industrial sites.

"We fully realize that busy Senators now somewhat weary from sitting through one of the longest legislative sessions in the history of the Commonwealth will be inclined to accept as "local" legislation such measures as this and take them at their political face value. If they are Republican sponsored they will usually get Republican support and if Democratic sponsored, Democratic support.

"But the political face on this piece of legislation is a false face and we ask the Republican members of the State Senate that they be not fooled by it.

"Frankly, we don't know who this false face represents. Mr. Spencer has not told us. There are several reports and rumors and whatnot about it. One is to the effect that the Democratic set of officeholders who formerly controlled Lackawanna Township for years on end are desirous of getting back into power. Another report has it that some "special interests" are looking for special tax benefits.

"But whatever the motive, the members of the Republican Party in the Upper House at Harrisburg may be certain that this is not Republican Party sponsored legislation and they are under no party obligation to support it. Rather, because the electors of the City of Scranton who voted for the consolidation of the Township with the city, are in the majority Republican," (that was true, incidentally, at that time, but at the last registration drive by a slight majority the city became Democratic) "the Republican Senators would be sustaining their judgment and their desire in keeping the status quo.

"The Tribune respectfully requests the Republican members of the Senate to reject this bill.

Members of the Senate, the hour is getting late. This bill is perhaps of no interest to many Members of the Senate. But, as Members of this Senate we are duty bound by our oaths to pay equal attention and give equal consideration to every piece of legislation on which we are called upon to vote, regardless of whether it affects one citizen, five thousand citizens or all of the citizens, for instance, in the largest city in the Commonwealth, Philadelphia, with more than a million population. It seems to me that from a political standpoint it is not an adroit thing for the Republican Party to steamroller and railroad through this Senate tonight. It seems to me that every possible vote that any Republican candidate in the future could gain by whatever sordid, cheap, political deal has been concocted by the ward-level politicians of both parties will be more than offset, double or triple or quadruple, by the independent and high-minded voters of either party, particularly those many independent high-minded registered Republican citizens in the city of Scranton and the businessmen who live in the other suburbs who would certainly reject this legislation. Certainly for every vote that a Republican candidate could hope to gain in Minooka, they would lose three, four or more in the other towns involved in this development of Scranton.

Mr. President, if there is any one fact that seems to be clear or seems to be a trend in post-war politics in America, it seems to be that the day of the independent voter has just about arrived in the United States. Looking back through American history we can come to the conclusion that we have especially blessed by Providence, for just as we face a seemingly insurmountable crisis, as has happened so many times in our history, some circumstance, some leader, some factor, something comes along and gets us through that crisis. We are now entering perhaps the most troublesome and crucial period of American history, a period which will continue for five, ten or twenty years in a state at least of an armed camp while atheistic communism runs rampant through much of the world. It is fortunate that in this day, thanks to America's public school system, we are producing in America an independent class of voters who cannot be controlled by ward heelers of any party. That is one fact which to my mind stands out in election after election in post-war America, from coast to coast. Certainly it was true in New York City in recent years, and it has been true in cities in Pennsylvania and it has been true in other cities and states throughout the Nation.

Mr. President, a bill such as this is a slap in the face of every right thinking independent-minded citizen in the city of Scranton. This can only drive voters away from the Republican Party, and I say that, of course, with mixed emotions. But I so strongly feel for the people who have invested money, who have invested hopes, who have decided to raise their families in the city of Scranton, that I must appeal for the defeat of this measure tonight. You just cannot keep on ignoring independent voters. As somebody has said here before this year, you can pass this measure, of course you can. You have the votes. You have thirty and we are but twenty, and I see by the vote that was taken on the amendments that party lines were drawn. But I say to the Republican Members of this Senate that you just cannot keep up this railroading and steamrolling of unsound legislation, repugnant to every decent citizen, in the hope of picking up one hundred or two hundred votes willy-nilly here and there throughout the Commonwealth.

Mr. President, at the rate that we have been going throughout this Session each day and each week, I have renewed hopes that before long I will be able to come down here and see that we are not limited to twenty votes on our side, because throughout this Session the Democratic Party and the Democratic Senators have consistently tried to place themselves on the side of good government. This sort of thing has got to stop in America. We cannot have this type of selfish, vicious legislation which ignores the general welfare of the many for the political welfare of a few.

Members of the Senate, in all good conscience, I ask you now to cast your vote against this cheap political trick, this false face bill," this vicious piece of legislation.

Mr. MCGINNIS. Mr. President, this bill is abhorrent to me. I have stood here the last couple of days and have seen this Legislature trying to dominate the county of Allegheny, the city of Pittsburgh. I think it was last night that this Legislature tried to dominate the city of Phila. Not on a wage tax, that was not the question at all; it was a question of dominating and ruling the council of Philadelphia on their own problems. I never voted for a wage tax in my life or a sales tax, but I am telling you that if I lived in the city of Philadelphia and my city was going to ruin and disgrace, I would vote for a wage tax to save it. I say this Legislature has no right to throttle the people of Philadelphia or Pittsburgh or Scranton. Let them rule, that is democracy.

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, I learned a long time ago how exasperating and frustrating it can be when you are talking into the wind or talking into closed minds, and I do not intend to aggravate myself by making any attempt to do so tonight. I just ran through the Legislative Directory of the Senate in order to determine who on the other side were bankers, and while I thought I knew that some were or were connected with banks, I did not note in the Directory that any of them were so listed. This thing is so utterly ridiculous that I cannot imagine our wasting so much time discussing it.

Mr. President, I am sure some of the gentlemen on the other side know something about municipal bonds. I am sure some of them on the other side probably own some or belong to banks or run banks which have some, and I wondered whether you had seriously considered what was behind a municipal bond. Now, here we have the city of Scranton, and apparently this bill refers to the city of Scranton, although it can refer to any city. What is back of a municipal bond? It is the real estate value, it is the interest, it is good work. Those who are bankers know what a study is made before you will go into buying municipal bonds, and yet here tonight you are beginning to permit a separation, a taking away of the security behind municipal bonds that is just going to ruin the bond market if you do not stop it.

Mr. President, this kind of a bill can be expanded and expanded until the bond that a city gives out is not worth what it is written on, and I say to you this is purely a question of the tail wagging the dog. Fifty people in this township are going to be able to hold a gun at the head of the city of Scranton, and every two years say, "If you do not give us what we want, we are going to secede." Now, if you have not considered that point up to now, I say consider it very very carefully or else you are going to kill the municipal bond market in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President. I would like to ask the Chair if there is anyone on the Majority side who would like to be interrogated to defend this bill?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, behold a sacrificial lamb is placed upon the altar. I will submit to the interrogation by the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr.

Mr. BARR. Senator Walker, could you tell me why this bill laid on the Senate Calendar for four months and five days?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, this bill was on our Calendar for that period of time because of the many controversial measures which were before the Senate, and we believe in picking up one tack at a time.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I desire to further interrogate Senator Walker.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Senator Walker, during that time we have had several, what you may call, vacations. Did you study this bill during any of those supposed vacations?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I refuse to answer the question until the gentleman defines his word "vacation."

Mr. BARR. Well, Mr. President, perhaps I should be more definite by saying that we took time off for the general election and time off for a primary election. Did you, Senator Walker, at any time while you were at home take this bill along with you and peruse it and study it?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, is the gentleman attempting to suggest that during the time I was a candidate I had time to read a bill when I was trying to get elected to public office, and successfully so?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, he has answered my question.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, in spite of the gentleman's personal attacks—

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, the gentleman has answered my question. He has not studied the bill.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, during that time I had not. I have studied the bill in the meantime. If the gentleman wants to interrogate me about the bill, I am perfectly willing to be interrogated.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, the interrogation is over. The gentleman may sit down.

Mr. President, it appears to me that these punitive bills that arrived on our Calendar in the past two weeks, all of them involve three metropolitan areas of Pennsylvania; namely, Democratic Pittsburgh, the new Democratic Philadelphia and Democratic Scranton. I would like to refer to these bills more as the Fleming Bills, because every punitive piece of legislation regarding the city of Pittsburgh and county of Allegheny has been guided by the "Reverend Fleming." I would like to add further that the gentleman does not even live in the city of Pittsburgh.

I would like to also state that the reason I am saying these things, Mr. President, is that I know I am not going to change a vote, but what happened in this Senate on Monday night of this week has never happened in my history of twelve years before, and which I do not think, and I hope, will happen again, but there is a certain Senatorial courtesy. It is true that I was not in the Senate on Monday night; I was confined to my room at the hotel, and there was a punitive bill, which the House of Representatives had sense enough to kill, brought up before this Senate, the very bill that can be compared to such a thing as this bill, House Bill No. 587.

Mr. President, some of my colleagues asked that that bill, Senate Bill No. 893 be carried over until I could return the next day. The gentleman, in his eagerness to pass this punitive legislation, denied that courtesy to my colleagues and to me. I have been wanting for several days to mention that fact.

Mr. President, we have here in my opinion one of the worst bills which has ever been introduced. This bill is what I would call a steal. When I say "a steal," I mean reaching into the pockets of the citizens of the city of Scranton. The people of Scranton have spent their money building streets in this Lackawanna Township, or in what now is known as Minooka. They have spent their money building, I think, a police and fire alarm system. The Chamber of Commerce, I also might say, Mr. President, through the aid of the Federal Government, conducted a research in order to find new industries to move into the hard coal region, because it was only presumably a one industry part of our Commonwealth. Through their research and through the action of the city fathers of Scranton, the Chamber of Commerce of the city of Scranton found one flat spot near the city of Scranton where they could develop some factories. It is my understanding that in this large township, since they have been absorbed into the city of Scranton, they have built some five major factories. These men who brought these factories in there, Mr. President, built them on good faith. They built them because they thought they were a part of the metropolitan city.

Mr. President, if we pass this bill tonight, I do not know whether they will stay. I cannot say that. I cannot speak for them, but look one step further as to what is in this bill. This is the tail wagging the dog in government. Here is a major city. It voted, and the people in Lackawanna Township voted, to annex to the city of Scranton. That was the beginning of the animal. Now, Mr. President, you have this punitive thing. You have this one little portion of people living in Minooka, or what was known as Lackawanna Township, and you say they can secede from the city of Scranton. In doing so, Mr. President, the people who bought the bonds, the bankers, that were sold by the city of Scranton are being short-changed. I do not know who is the master mind behind this. I know Senator Walker is not, but he took—I admire him for it—but he took the blunt to get up and answer, and I really want to ask the Majority Leader, if I may have the permission to interrogate him again, just one question.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Senator Walker, could you tell me who is the master mind behind this piece of, I will not call it legislation, this despicable piece of, I just can't find the word to describe it, but I think he knows what I mean?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, until the gentleman completes his question, I will have to stand here and wait.

Mr. BARR. Senator Walker, shall I word it again?

Mr. WALKER. Senator Barr, you can do better than that.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, being a gentleman, I do not want to use the word which I think fits the bill.

Mr. WALKER. What is the question, Mr. President?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to know who on the Republican side is the master mind or the pusher of this punitive piece of legislation.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, House Bill No. 587 was sponsored by two distinguished gentlemen of the House who have long records of efficient, efficient statesmanship in the legislative halls of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and they have advanced this measure as a constructive contribution to better government in Pennsylvania.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, that is part of the answer. Now, I want to ask the gentleman, I was over in the House today and tried to get action on some bills, some of which had your name and my name on, and we have sponsored some good legislation. I would like to know who in the Pennsylvania State Senate was the pusher, the instigator, in having this bill called off the Postponed Calendar.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, in answer to the gentleman's question twenty-nine—twenty-eight, excuse me, I do not want to exaggerate at a time like this, twenty-eight Members of this Senate, impressed by the necessity for this bill in order to promote better legislation, better government in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, decided that the time had arrived to present this bill to the people of the county involved.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, may I interrogate the Chairman of the Finance Committee, Senator Newell Wood?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Wood, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOOD. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Senator Wood, this town I presume touches Luzerne County. Am I correct?

Mr. WOOD. Mr. President, the gentleman, as usual, is not properly informed. Minooka is in the county of Lackawanna. It does not border on the county of Luzerne. It is commonly referred to by the people in Luzerne as the suburban part of Luzerne County.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, may I further interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne, Senator Wood?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Wood, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. WOOD. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I appreciate the fact that Luzerne County is a fine county, the Governor of our Commonwealth comes from there, but I would like Senator Wood to answer the question, does this county border on your county of Luzerne?

Mr. WOOD. Mr. President, the county borders on Luzerne County. You all know enough geography to know that.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, does the township of Lackawanna, now known as the Twenty-fourth Ward, border on the line of Luzerne?

Mr. WOOD. Not that I know of, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Well, Senator Wood, I presume you are aware of where this Lackawanna Township was.

Mr. WOOD. Mr. President, I have a faint idea.

Mr. BARR. Senator Wood, are you interested in passing this bill?

Mr. WOOD. I beg the gentleman's pardon, Mr. President?

Mr. BARR. I said, Senator Wood, are you the prime mover in passing this bill?

Mr. WOOD. Mr. President, it is all I can do to concern myself with legislation dealing with Luzerne County and a few slight errands the Governor asks of me from time to time. I cannot get up into Lackawanna County, I am sorry.

Mr. BARR. In other words, Mr. Wood, you have no interest in Lackawanna County?

Mr. WOOD. No. Mr. President, just a political interest.

Mr. BARR. That is all I want to know, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. LANE. Senator Walker, at the Republican Majority Caucus—

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, what happens in the Caucus of the Republican Party is confidential, and I am sorry that up to this point the gentleman has not qualified as a member.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, it seems to me that since the Majority Leader is so reluctant to make a definite statement, the Republican Majority has caucused on this legislation, and I am not politically naive enough to think that anything I might do would change one vote, so we might as well go on with the vote.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I was sorry that the Republican Caucus decided to support this bill, but out of respect to our distinguished colleague, Senator McMenamin, considering the arguments that he presented here tonight, considering the information that he conveyed to us here tonight, reflecting the opinion of the newspapers as well as the general public in the city of Scranton and the surrounding area, frankly I think, out of respect to him, we ought to recess. I am going to ask the Republican side to call a recess and caucus on this bill again, and consider the arguments which Senator McMenamin presented here tonight. After all, this bill affects only his district, not my district, not the district of any one of the other forty-nine Senators in this Chamber, and he is in here fighting to keep his district intact. I am sure if a similar bill were presented here affecting the district of any one Member of this Senate, he would want the same consideration extended that he is asking you to extend him, on his arguments here tonight.

Mr. President, I respectfully request that the other side reconsider its action on the basis of the arguments which Senator McMenamin presented here this evening.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LEADER. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Request has been made to have the roll verified. The Clerk will call the names of those recorded as having voted in the affirmative.

The Clerk read the names of those recorded as having voted in the affirmative as follows:

Berger,	Kephart,	Peelor,	Wagner,

Byrne,	Lane,	McMenamin,	Silvert,
Dent,	Leader,	Neff,	Stiefel,
DiSilvestro,	McCreesh,	Rosenfeld,	Yosko,
Haluska,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, during the debate on the the distinguished gentleman from Lawrence, Senator Neff, bill which has just been passed by this Senate, my friend, was engaged in a vehement, vicriolic attack upon me personally. I now ask unanimous consent of the Senate for the gentleman to continue that contemptible cowardly statement.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, the gentleman is condemning a statement made by one, but he is also making statements which are just as derogatory and just as inflammatory or more so than any that were made prior to his statement.

Mr. President, an individual may, in the heat of an argument, say things without premeditation, but when a man says things later with premeditation and deliberation, that gentleman may find that his remarks are less excusable than those made prior. I do not think that it does him or any other individual any good in the Senate to use the Senate floor for a political or personal discussion, rather, and I think if there are any differences between the gentlemen, they can iron them out outside of the Senate floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. For the information of the Members of the Senate, no person in speaking is to mention a Member then present by his name, but to describe him by his seat in the house or who spoke last or on the other side of the question.

The Chair further rules that there is nothing now in order but the Calendar, and we will proceed to that order of business.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I think I asked for the floor on the question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. That is correct.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I accept the suggestion of the gentleman from Westmoreland, and I agree with him that the gentleman from Beaver and I will continue the discussion in the latrine where the conversation will probably seek its proper level.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. NEFF asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. NEFF. Mr. President, I would like to say in answer to the remarks made by the gentleman from Allegheny that when talking to a sewer inspector, the latrine is the proper place to hold such a discussion.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman is out of order.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I rise on a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I notice there is a bill which passed in the House of Representatives, namely House Bill No. 106, and I would like to know if it has gone over the desk as yet.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. For the information of the Chair, when did the bill pass?

Mr. BARR. It passed yesterday, Mr. President.

(The Senate was at ease.)

The PRESIDING OFFICER. For the information of the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr, the bill is presently in the Senate Committee on State Government. Does that answer the question of parliamentary inquiry?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, may I ask when it was referred?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. It was referred yesterday.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I think you must be wrong.

(The Senate was at ease.)

The PRESIDING OFFICER. For the information of the gentleman from Allegheny, the bill in question passed the House on December 19 and was referred to the Senate Committee on State Government on December 19.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a short statement, about three lines.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Allegheny may proceed.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, we passed a bill in the Senate last week, sponsored by Senator Wade, and we often referred to it as the "Little Hoover Commission." The House has passed now a similar bill. In my opinion it is one of the most necessary bills in this Session of the Legislature. It appears to me that this is one of those games of ping-pong, back and forth, and nothing is going to be done.

It appears now Mr. President, that Senator Wade's bill is dead. If nothing is done by the State Government Committee tonight to bring that bill out into the light, the many many bureaus which we have here in the State Government will continue and the tax load will increase, and, God only knows, we have been here for twelve months this year and with 333 and 334 on the books, the next Session of the Legislature will probably be here a year and a half unless something like this is accomplished.

HOUSE BILL No. 1742 CALLED UP

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I call up from the Second Reading Calendar House Bill No. 1742.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON SECOND READING AMENDED

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with, the following: "in addition"; Amend Sec. 2, Section 24, page 4, line 14, by inserting after the word "premiums" and before the word "of" the following: "premium deposits and assessments".

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1742, entitled:

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The third section was read and agreed to.

The title was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the title?

Mr. WOOD offered the following amendments:

Amend page 1, line 5 of the title, by striking out at the end of the line after the quotation mark following the word "nine" the following: "by providing for"; Amend page 1, line 6 of the title, by striking out at the beginning of the line before the word "State" the following: "a" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "with respect to the".

They were agreed to.

The title was agreed to as amended.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to, as amended,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BIILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1551 as follows:

An Act requiring approval of the interested electorate to initiate housing projects by housing authorities in certain political subdivisions

Section 1 After the effective date of this act no new housing project shall be initiated in any political subdivision except cities of the first class by any housing authority by whatever name it may be called unless the question of whether or not the instrumentality may initiate such project is first submitted to and approved by the electors of the political subdivision within which the proposed housing project or any part thereof shall be located The governing body of any political subdivision upon resolution duly adopted or electors equal to at least five per centum of the highest vote cast for any candidate in the political subdivision at the last precedinb municipal election may petition the county board of elections of the proper county to have a question of whether or not a housing project may be initiated by the instrumentality as hereinbefore provided submitted to the electors of the political subdivision and the county board of elections shall cause a question to be placed on the ballots or on the voting machines and submitted to the electors of the political subdivision at the first general or municipal election occurring at least sixty days thereafter in the manner provided by the election laws of the Commonwealth. If a majority of the persons voting on such question vote "yes" then the project may be initiated and carried out by such instrumentality within the political subdivision. In case of a tie vote or if a majority of the persons voting on the question vote "no" the right to initiate and carry out the project shall be denied and the same question shall not be voted upon again prior to the election occurring approximately two years thereafter.

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred fifty-three

NOT VOTING—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 187, entitled:

An Act to fix the salaries and compensation of the judges of the Supreme Court the judges of the Superior Court the judges of the courts of common pleas the judges of the orphans' courts the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court of Allegheny County certain associate judges not learned in the law and repealing certain acts inconsistent herewith

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Messrs ANDREWS, KENT and TOMPKINS asked unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Sec. 4, page 3, line 7, by inserting after the word "in", where it appears the second time in said line, the following all other

Amend Sec. 4, page 3, lines 7, 8 and 9, by striking out the word "having" in line 7, all of line 8, and the words "than one million inhabitants" in line 9

Amend Sec. 4, page 4, lines 1 to 4, inclusive, by striking out all of said lines.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I think it well that we should endeavor to explain the import of the amendments which we are offering.

Senate Bill 187 is a general salary increase for the judiciary. Under the bill which you are considering, the first district Philadelphia, judges would get $18,500. We are changing that.

The issue which the House confronts is whether rural members want to please the judges in the rural districts on a comparable basis with the "city slicker" judges in the big cities.

All of the rural Members whose districts would be affected by this bill are, as far as I am concerned, privileged to return to their counties and say: "Your Honor, we are sorry but you just do not qualify on a city slicker basis as far as salary is concerned, but when the bench in Allegheny County or when the bench in Philadelphia County, or when the bench in Dauphin County needs a judge, they will send for you. And you will have the privilege of a $14,000 judge of sitting on the right hand or the left hand of an $18,500 judge."

Maybe you come from a county which you serve in which the population is 50,000, 60,000, and maybe your judge is sitting on the bench beside an $18,500 judge. When the Philadelphia situation is averaged out the judges there are only responsible for a little over 50,000 people.

Lancaster—that is a prosperous county—has a $16,000 judge in the bill and we would not change it. Northampton has three $16,000 judges and we would not change it.

Here comes little Tioga—it has only about 37,000 people or so—maybe it is 38,000—they have just a little $13,000 judge. They do not have any Orphans' Court judge like these other fellows have; they do not have any assistants in handling domestic relations cases; and he can have just as much business, spend just as many hours as one of these city slicker judges at $18,500.

Maybe he is not busy all the time, but do you hire a judge on an assembly line basis? Do they work by the hour? Is a common pleas judge a common pleas judge in every district in this Commonwealth? Does any common pleas judge outside of Dauphin County have any greater jurisdiction in any of the larger counties than they have in the smaller counties?

In Allegheny County they have twenty-six $18,500 judges and my amendments do not touch them. And because it does not have a full time working bench, because one of its judges has not done anything in the last nine months to amount to anything, every now and then they need one of these $13,000 or $14,000 judges.

Erie, that is in the $16,000 class—three judges; those three judges, $16,000 judges, only serve on an average about 63,000 people.

Bucks, that is another $16,000 judge. The judge there only serve about 53,000 people. You are in the $16,000 class.

Northumberland, $16,000 class. Their judges serve about 64,000 people.

Cumberland County, poor Cumberland County, they had so much trouble disposing of it in the Reapportionment Bill. They are kicking her around. Nobody wanted poor Cumberland County. Well, maybe no one wanted poor Cumberland County because under the bill you are considering, it would only have a $14,000 judge and a $14,000 judge has to take care of 76,000 people.

I am asking you if an $18,000 judge in Philadelphia has only a little over 50,000 people to care for and in Cumberland County the judge has 74,000 or 75,000 to care for, why do you keep him down in the $14,000 class? If the representatives from Cumberland County think their judge, caring for 74,000 people, is not entitled to a $16,000 salary along with Erie and Bucks and the others, they can go home and say to their judge. "Sorry, Judge, you do not rate—you are a $14,000 guy."

Westmoreland, of course they have Orphans' Court judges there, and their judges have to look after a little over 60,000 people.

Luzerne, that is another $16,000 classification and they have to look after about 74,000 people.

Now we are not changing any of that. Mind you, we do not propose to change that. We would bring the Cumberland County fellow up. Dauphin, they have $16,000 judges and we are not changing that. Along comes poor little Greene; he is a $13,000 fellow under the bill which I am trying to amend, and a very eminent jurist, of high standing and rated as a desirable substitute in all the populous counties which need a spare judge every once in a while; and so a little $13,000 Greene County judge is a welcome visitor in the judicial chambers of Allegheny, Philadelphia, Dauphin, and many other counties.

Fayette, $16,000 class.

Chester, $16,000 class, and the judge there only has about 52,000 to care for. 52,000 compared with these other counties which are now compared with Cumberland which has 74,000.

Chester 50,000; Somerset, they have a $14,000 guy and he has 85,000 people to care for. If you want to go back to Somerset County and say "Sorry, you care for 75,000 people, these other judges 50,000, 60,000, but we are going to keep you in the $14,000 class," you can do so. I would raise him to $16,000.

Union and Snyder, they care for 42,000 or 43,000 and Union and Snyder are $13,000 people. If the Members from Union and Snyder want to go back and tell their judges "You are a $13,000 guy," it is all right with me.

Clarion is another in the $13,000 class. My amendments would raise them to $16,000 with the other guy.

York, a $13,000 jurisdiction, cares for 41,000 people.

Schuylkill, $16,000.

Wayne, there is an exception to the rule. Wayne only has to look after 30,000; but as I say he has no Orphans' Court judge; he has nobody to help him with domestic relations. He is in the $13,000 class. My amendments will put him up in the $16,000 class.

Berks, $16,000.

Blair gets $16,000. There is a remarkable case. Blair with one judge—no, I guess they have two now—How about that? I could ask my friend from Cameron—and he cares for 150,000 people. If I had my way I would put that judge in the $18,500 class. He keeps a clean office and has 150,000 people to look after.

Clinton, Cameron and Elk have a little $14,000 guy up there. If the Representatives from Clinton, Cameron and Elk want to go back and tell their judge, "You are a $14,000 guy," it is all right with me. I have only given them a chance to give their judge a break. If they do not want to give him a break, that is up to them.

Columbia and Montour, $13,000; They care for 66,000 people. I would raise them to $16,000. I am taking too much time.

The only other counties which the amendments would affect would be Venango, where they have very little to do, and he is not busy all the time. That judge has 63,000 people to look after. He is a $13,000 guy.

Lycoming is a $14,000 guy.

Crawford is a $14,000 guy. He has 71,000 or 72,000 people to look after—one of the ablest judges in the Commonwealth, works more hours than any other judge that I know of. He has 71,000 people to look after, $14,000 salary. I would put him up to $16,000.

Armstrong, he is a $14,000 guy and I think he has about 82,000 people to look after and I would put him up to $16,000.

Susquehanna is a $13,000 guy. He only has about 34,000 to look after.

Mercer, there are 101,000 people he has to look after and he is in the $16,000 bracket.

Beaver is in the $16,000 bracket.

Warren and Forest, the bill keeps them in the $13,000 bracket and I would raise them to $16,000.

Indiana is a $14,000 fellow, and he has 80,000 people to look after.

Are the lawyers in this House to say that an Indiana judge, who does not have, as I understand, an Orphans' Court judge in the county, has to look after 80,000 people for $14,000 while the judges from the larger centers get $18,500 for looking after 55,000 people?

Bradford has a $13,000 judge. I would raise him. He has to look after 50,000 people.

Monroe has a $13,000 fellow with 37,000 people to look after. I would raise him to $16,000.

Wyoming and Sullivan, each $13,000. That fellow only has 24,000 people to look after. I would raise him just the same, because he is a judge and I would pay him according to the function.

Clearfield pays $14,000, 92,000 people to work for. Why does he not classify with Bucks and these other counties that are in the $16,000 class with a far less population per judge? 92,000 for a judge in Clearfield.

In Cambria, we have four judges. They are in the $16,000 class. I am safe. I can go back. My bill puts them up.

McKean, he is a $13,000 fellow. I would raise him to $16,000. Centre the same.

Butler is a $14,000 fellow and he cares for at least 87,000 people.

Lebanon, he is a $14,000 fellow and he cares for 73,000 people. I would raise him to $16,000.

Potter—$13,000.

Carbon—$13,000.

Bradford—$13,000.

Mifflin—$13,000.

The amount of money needed to equalize judicial salaries is inconsequential, it is a small amount.

I want to call the attention of the lawyers in the House to this fact: when we adopted the present Constitution there were no provisions in it fixing salaries. The practice at the time the Constitution was adopted did not base salaries upon population. There were four classes, and the salaries within those four classes were uniform. When the Constitution was adopted presumably the Judiciary and the Legislature at the time endeavored to follow the mandate of the Constitution. So, outside of Philadelphia, Allegheny and Dauphin Counties the judges at the time the Constitution was adopted all received $4,000 a year.

I submit to the lawyers of this House that under Section 26, Article 5, of the Constitution the inference would be—and some eminent lawyers tell me the conclusion would be—that the intent of the Constitution was to base judicial salaries upon functions within given classifications that have no reference to population.

In closing, the Members representing $13,000 and $14,000 districts as specified in the bill you are considering can, if they want to, put my amendments in the bill and my amendments would give their judges $16,000 a year and it would not take a penny from anyone else listed in the bill.

I am submitting my case to the rural Members because for once you stand in a position where, if you want to, you can say to the leadership of this House, "We want our judges in the $16,000 classification with the other fellows." They will have to take you because they cannot pass this bill without you. If you do not want your judges in the $16,000 classification; do not believe that a judge does as much work in a rural district as a judge does in a metropolitan district and is not entitled to the same salary; if you have an inferiority complex, do not support my amendments. If you feel otherwise, for once in a long legislative history you are in a position to write a judicial salary bill. No occasion like this has ever arisen before. If you do not want to write a judicial salary bill. No occasion like this has ever arisen before. If you do not want to write a judicial salary bill on terms acceptable to the rural delegation, you do not have to do so.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the opposition floor leader.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I am always pleased to sit at the feet of the distinguished gentleman who proposes to interrogate me, and if he stumps me, I will refer his inquiry to the gentleman from Crawford, who I think is an expert and who will answer for me.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the gentleman for his fluent compliments which I accept with a grain of salt.

Mr. ANDREWS. That was not salt, it was pepper.

Mr. REAGAN. I would like to ask whether the gentleman's amendments raise the judicial salaries to a minimum of $16,000.

Mr. ANDREWS. My amendments raised the judicial salaries in all of the counties outside of Philadelphia, Allegheny and Dauphin to $16,000.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker. These are amendments are they not?

Mr. ANDREWS. Those are amendment's Mr. Speaker, and the amendments apply to those counties where, under the present bill, the judge would receive either $13,000 or $14,000, and in every instance in the bill where the judge would get $13,000, I raise him to $16,000; where the judge under the bill would get $14,000, I raise him to $16,000 in the amendments I have offered.

Mr. REAGAN. If we pass these amendments to this bill, the bill itself remains to be voted upon, does it not?

Mr. ANDREWS. That is right. The bill would then re-occur in its present form with the exception I think of Section 3, which is the only one I am amending.

Mr. REAGAN. According to that bill, if it is passed, all the judges above $16,000 would also receive a $2,000 increase right across the board.

Mr. ANDREWS. The judges in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Dauphin would get $18,500. Is not that right, Mr. Kent?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews yields to the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Kent.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I think Mr. Andrews is correct. Except for Dauphin County which would get $20,000, because of the extra jurisdiction those judges have in Commonwealth cases.

In further reply to Mr. Reagan, under the amendments the Common Pleas Judges in the other counties would not receive the $2,000 in addition to what the amendments provide for.

Mr. REAGAN. Does not that bill raise the judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts and other judges above the $16,000 class, $2,000 across the board?

Mr. KENT. The bill as it stands now Mr. Speaker, raises all judges including the appellate courts, Superior and Supreme Courts $2,000.

Mr. REAGAN. These amendments do not have anything to do with judges who now are receiving the higher amount. If we passed the bill, the judges not included in these amendments would receive $2,000 additional to what they are now getting.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, under the bill the members of the Supreme Court get increases. Their salaries, I believe, would be $25,000. Your judges of the Superior Court get increases. Under the bill their salaries would be $23,500. The president judge and the associate judges would get $23,000.

My amendments have nothing to do with the Supreme Court, the Superior Court, or Allegheny, Dauphin or Philadelphia. The only counties that my amendments affect are the counties where under the bill we are considering, the judges would receive less than $16,000. In every instance of that kind my amendments would raise the salary to $16,000.

Mr. REAGAN. I understand that, Mr. Speaker. But the question I am asking is aside from these amendments, judges above that classification will all receive a $2,000 increase across the board.

Mr. ANDREWS. As to the amount of the increase, whether it is a $2,000 increase—I believe it is, but I would refer that to the legal experts who wrote the other part of the bill. The only part of the bill in which I am interested, is the part that applies to Common Pleas Judges in the rural districts.

Mr. REAGAN. May I call the gentleman's attention to the fact that when he mentioned Union and Snyder Counties, that being my district, the judge only receives $11,000 instead of $13,000.

Mr. ANDREWS. That is right at the present time, and the bill would raise him. The bill as reported from Committee would raise him to $13,000 and I am giving him another hike and I would raise him to $16,000.

Mr. REAGAN. I admire the gentleman's generosity.

I do not know who wants to answer this question, but can either of the gentlemen, Mr. Andrews or Mr. Kent, inform the House as to what would be the total increase in order to accomplish these raises? The entire increase in appropriations which would be necessary to raise this amount?

Mr. ANDREWS. I can only answer for the amendments which I propose. The amendments which I propose would raise the cost of the bill we are considering by less than $65,000 a year. What the total increase the bill as a whole carries, is a matter that I have not calculated. I refer that to the Majority Leader or anybody else familiar with the bill. The cost of the amendments that I am offering is less than $65,000 a year. That would have to be added to the cost that is increased by the bill.

Mr. REAGAN. The bill as originally instituted was said to have amounted to about $641,000.

Mr. ANDREWS. Absured. I mean if you mean increase. The total increase carried would be less than $130,000.

Mr. REAGAN. The gentleman is surely mistaken there. That has already been thrashed out in our caucus.

May I inquire from Mr. Kent, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Kent, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KENT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. REAGAN. Can the gentleman give the House the information as to what the total appropriation would be necessary to fulfill the bill itself and to take care of the amendments which the gentleman on the other side has offered?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I can only give what I have been advised by the Appropriations Committee. I understand, and my best information is, the appropriation that would be necessary to cover the increase in the salary as the bill now stands is in the neighborhood or very close to $650,000. The additional increase to cover Mr. Andrews' amendments to the best of my knowledge is as he has stated it would be.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I received several letters from judges, and in their calculation they all said we need $83,000. I do not know whether Mr. Andrews' amendments correspond to those which the judges wanted.

Mr. ANDREWS. There are some 34 or 35 Common Pleas Judges that are committed to the principle that salaries should be equalized on a functional basis. Some of these Judges live in the so-called smaller counties, some of them are in the larger counties. My latest calculation, and I believe it is within a few dollars of being right, for the total cost of the amendments which I am offered over and above the amount in the bill is approximately $65,000 a year, because we are only affecting 13 or 14 districts.

What the cost of the bill is over and above the present salaries, I have not calculated.

Mr. REAGAN. Does not the gentleman think the House is entitled to know what this is going to cost them?

Mr. ANDREWS. The House is entitled to know and it is a strange situation if they do not know. But having been willing to accept the bill as reported by the Appropriations Committee, other than with the section I am trying to amend, I did not come on the floor prepared to state the total amount of the bill. I am only interested in amending one section.

Mr. REAGAN. I do not know which of the gentlemen wishes to answer this question.

Have they taken into consireration in the total cost of this bill the additional cost of putting these judges on the pension or retirement system?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I have just been suplied with some figures from the Appropriation Committee which possibly can clarify the matter for Mr. Reagan.

The increase in dollars so far as the Supreme Court is concerned will amount to $19,835.

For the Superior Court the same amount.

For the Common Pleas Courts under the bill that is now drafted it will be $417,925.

Then the amendments which are now before the House will be Mr. Andrews' figures of $65,000 more. The total will be abut $520,000.

Mr. REAGAN. Well, Mr. Speaker, did not the gentleman a moment ago say that according to figures submitted to him by the Appropriations Chairman, it would be $650,000, without any consideration of retirement?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, that is correct, I did. That was an approximation that was given to me. Since that I have been supplied with the actual figures.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman think that the Appropriation Committee's figures are more nearly correct than any other figures you might pick up along the side lines.

Mr. KENT. I certainly do, Mr. Speaker, and I am glad that they supplied me with the correct figures rather than the approximate figures because it is much less.

Mr. REAGAN. Was the gentleman supplied that by the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee?

Mr. KENT. I was, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask does that include the retirement?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I cannot answer that. I am not discussing retirement now, I am discussing salaries. I do not know what the retirement will cost the state for judges, I have no knowledge on that at all.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I think the House is interested in knowing what the over-all picture is. If you break it down piecemeal, of course, it does not sound like much, but I am taking the figures which I got from the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee as being about $650,000. How much more Mr. Andrews' amendments will raise this I do not know, because the judges themselves said it would be $85,000. I do not know whether it corresponds with his amendments.

But the point is, I think the proponents of this bill ought to be able to tell the House, not little items here and there, but the over-all cost of what they propose to do.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me we are getting very far afield here. We were discussing amendments which Mr. Andrews and I co-sponsored and presented. Now we are getting into the matter of retirement; how much it is going to cost the state. How much it is going to cost each judge in contributions to the retirement fund. We are certainly far afield and I believe that it certainly has no bearing on the question before the House at this time.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I am calling the gentleman's attention to the fact that we are not considering the bill. We are only considering the amendments which I offered to the bill.

I am submitting amendments to the Members of the House, if the gentleman will permit me at this time to make the remark. If the membership of this House can swallow a $420,000 mountain in connection with judicial salaries, I see no reason why they should strain at a $65,000 gnat.

Mr. REAGAN. That may be true Mr. Speaker. But the gentleman from the other side of the House seems to be bewildered with the figures that he is giving us.

I want to state this and I believe all the Members of the House have read it. It was publicly stated the the newspapers and some of the officials around the Capitol that the over-all cost of the original bill was over $800,000. Oh, pardon me, does anyone want to reply to that?

So far as straining at a gnat and swallowing a camel, all we Members are in fear that we have already appropriated considerably more money, in fact millions more, than the taxes are going to bring in. This measure was not even considered in the Governor's budget.

When he said he needed $119 million to balance the budget, that amount of money or taxation has been greatly reduced and we have legislation before us today which further reduces it. I think just for our own benefit so that we can go home and say that we have not done a foolish thing and appropriated more money than we had, exact figures should be submitted to this House before they vote on the amendments.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I do not see how I can be any clearer and submit any more accurate figures than the ones I have submitted. Certainly the figures I have submitted are not anything like $800,000. There have been provided in the budget already for judges' salary increase, the sum of $457,000, odd dollars.

The only issue before the House at this time is an increase over that provision already in the budget of approximately $65,000.

I think Mr. Reagan has gone far afield and is arguing the bill itself; whether the judges are entitled to any increase at all, or whether they are not. Certainly I am only speaking of the amendments now and I think I have provided the House, together with Mr. Andrews, with the most accurate figures that are available.

In conclusion, I do not want to prolong this, I certainly think Mr. Andrews has shown very clearly and very specifically the glaring inequality that exists in judges' salaries throughout the Commonwealth. I would ask that these amendments be voted upon favorably.

Mr. STONER. Mr. Speaker, I want to say that I do appreciate the remarks of the Minority Leader.

I would like to correct his figures on Cumberland County. He quoted us as having 74,000 people. We are a much faster growing county than that, we have 95,000.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I will be very brief.

First in answer to the statement that my good friend Bob Kent made about Mr. Reagan wandering far afield, I take a little exception to that because I do not believe he did wander. I think what he said pertained directly to the amendments whether or not they were exorbitant; whether the judges were entitled to that amount of money.

In the last figures the gentleman from Crawford gave, he mentioned $457,000 as the amount appropriated to take care of the salary increases. According to the other figures it was something in excess of 500 I think, was it not?

So there is a discrepancy of 50 to 100 thousand there, is not that right?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse, yields to the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Kent.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, if I can clear up the point, the figure of $522,000 includes Mr. Andrews' amendment; that is the addition of $65,000 on top of $457,000.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, the thing that really, I think, has not been exactly brought to the Members' minds, is there is no question but what there is a variation in the amount of money that is paid. But one particular phase of the picture has not been clearly brought out. That is this: many counties have held no court at all this year and will not hold any.

Venango County I am reliably informed has three cases on their trial list.

Perry and Juniata I am quite sure has not held court this year. That holds true with many of these counties that are paying their Judges $11,500.

When we start to compare the duties of those judges with the duties of the judges who possibly do not have time to even take a vacation, then I think that is out of line, and I think the amendments for that reason are not reasonable. It certainly is a fact that in the small counties you can live much cheaper, and if you are going to live in Pittsburgh or one of the larger cities, where the population is heavy, the living expenses and the expenses that go with it, are much greater.

So, I just cannot see the idea that the fellow who is working may be thirty to sixty days on trials and what have you, should draw the same amount of money as the fellow who is working eleven or twelve months.

I say this with a little humility and with all due respect to my good friend from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, but if my memory serves me correctly in the recent session, he and my good friend Homer Brown had quite a bit of discussion over this issue. At that time my good friend Hi was quite opposed to a judge's raise but now we are talking about giving a man who is getting $11,000 a $5,000 increase I certainly believe that the House should vote down the amendments. I believe the amendments have every possibility of killing the bill and I am not opposed to the bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I must beg the indulgence of the House by reason of the comment the gentleman has just made.

For years special groups, population groups, represented by their judges have come into this House for salary increases. This population group wanted an increase, that population group wanted an increase. As a result of that pressure, the salary structures for our judiciary has become inequitable.

If we are to reform and bring our judicial system into keeping with the times and the needs, we must do two things. We must first of all equalize judicial salaries and then we must reorganize judicial districts and then make the judges who have the uniform salaries, as nearly comparable to the judicial districts as possible, more largely responsible to the Supreme Court for assignment in any part of the state where they maybe needed when their own calendars are not overcrowded. This readjustment of salaries which we can make at a very small cost is the beginning of a program. We should readjust our judicial system in keeping with the needs of the people.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I should like to clear up perhaps some misconceptions that might have come from the remarks of the gentleman from Erie regarding the work load of a judge.

To the lay mind I suppose the work load of a judge consists of the number of jury trials he has through the course of a year. Unfortunately a jury trial list may be the smallest part of his load in many cases. Domestic relations problems do not go before a jury. Your exceptions to Orphans' Court accounts and the passing upon them and the necessity many times for rendering opinions do not go before a jury. Rules and motions which find themselves in the court in connection with pleadings do not go before a jury and in many cases require the court to grant opinions.

In my own judicial district recently, due to a gas boom, our court has been very busy with suits to quiet titles which do not go before a jury. There are so many things.

I should say that 75 percent of the work of your judge is not before a jury. The work of your judges is in other matters solely and entirely arguments on point of law by counsel before the court, and the rules and motions which he must entertain; adopting proceedings, and what have you; a great big long list of the things which constitute the duties and responsibilities of a judge which do not find themselves in a jury trial. So let us not judge the work load of the judge based upon the number of jury trials he might have during the course of a year.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, am I entitled to say anything more?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is recognized.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank my good friend, Mr. Waterhouse, for calling my attention to the fact that his eminence on the other side at one time in this judicial debate was on the right side. I can distinctly remember him in a very sarcastic manner talking about the "gypsy" judges, who had nowhere to go in their own town and invaded the cities and assisted the judges who were supposed to be overworked.

I, frankly, after hearing the various figures submitted by Mr. Andrews and Mr. Kent, have no conception of which is right. They have varied quite a bit and I do not believe the House recognizes any of the figures as the correct figures. I think from information which I have $800,000 to a $1,000,000 will be required to cover these bills.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, in connection with the additional cost provided for in the bill, before we had those amendments and the cost which will be involved afterwards, these figures come from the Appropriations Committee. I do not know where we can get a better authoritative source of the additional cost than from the Appropriations Committee.

I would also like to call your attention to the fact that the provisions of this bill become effective as of January 1, 1952. These figures are based upon a 24 months basis or biennium and the amount which would be required for the balance of this term or biennium is only 17 months. So it is only going to take seventeen-twenty-fourths of the amount that we have quoted to carry it out for the balance of the biennium.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I suppose the Members clearly understand they are voting on the amendments, not on the bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Reagan and Mr. Waterhouse and were as follows:

The Commission in its discretion may vacate any portion or all of the land condemned either prior to or after physical entry upon the land or any part thereof and prior to final determination of damages. In such cases the Commission shall be under no obligation to accept and pay for any property condemned and subsequently vacated. Provided however That in any such case the court having jurisdiction of the suit action or proceeding may make such orders as may be just to the Commission and to the owners of the property and may require an undertaking or other security to secure such owners against any and all loss or damages occasioned to the owner from the time of the original condemnation to the time of the modification thereof but neither such undertaking or security nor any act or obligation of the Commission shall impose any liability upon the Commonwealth except such as may be paid from the funds provided under the authority of this act.

(b) In addition to the foregoing powers the Commission and its authorized agents and employes may enter upon any lands waters and premises in the State for the purpose of making surveys soundings drillings and examinations as it may deem necessary or convenient for the purpose of this act and such entry shall not be deemed a trespass nor shall an entry for such purposes be deemed an entry under any condemnation proceedings which may be then pending. Provided however That the Commission shall make reimbursement for any actual damages resulting to such lands waters and premises as a result of such activities.

(c) All counties cities boroughs townships and other political subdivisions and municipalities and all public agencies and commissions of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania notwithstanding any contrary provision of law are hereby authorized and empowered to lease lend grant or convey to the Commission upon its request upon such terms and conditions as the proper authorities of such counties cities boroughs townships other political subdivisions and municipalities or public agencies and commissions of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania may deem reasonable and fair and without the necessity for any advertisement order of court or other action or formality other than the regular and formal action of the authorities concerned any real property which may be necessary or convenient to the effectuation of the authorized purposes of the Commission including public roads and other real property already devoted to public use.

Section 10 Whenever the Commission has condemned any lands rights rights-of-way easements and franchises or interests therein as hereinbefore provided and has tendered a bond or other security to secure the owner or owners for damages and the same has been accepted or if the acceptance of said bond has been refused and the same has been filed in and approved by the court of common pleas of the county in which the property is located or in the case of property located in two or more counties then in any one of such counties the Commission shall have the right to immediate possession of the property covered by the bond and may enter thereon in the name of the Commission. If the owner lessee or occupier of any of said premises or any building or structure thereon shall refuse to remove his personal property therefrom or give up possession thereof the Commission may proceed to obtain possession in the manner now provided by law for the obtaining possession by the Secretary of Highways of occupied structures.

Section 11 (a) The Commission is hereby authorized to provide by resolution at one time or from time to time for the issuance of turnpike revenue bonds of the Commonwealth for the purpose of paying the cost as hereinabove defined of the turnpike which resolution shall recite an estimate of such cost. The principal and interest of such bonds shall be payable solely from revenues of the Commission including tolls or from such funds as may be available to the Commission for that purpose. The bonds shall be dated shall bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding six per centum per annum payable semi-annually shall mature at such time or times not exceeding forty years from their date or dates as may be determined by the Commission and may be made redeemable before maturity at the option of the Commission at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the Commission prior to the issuance of the bonds. Provided however That the amount of premium on any bonds shall not cause the yield to be more than six per centum per centum from the date of such bonds to the date of their redemption. The bonds may be issued in series with varying provisions as to rates of interest maturity and other provisions not inconsistent with this act but all bonds of whatever series shall share ratably in the tolls hereinafter pledged as security therefor. The principal and interest of such bonds may be made payable in any lawful medium. The Commission shall determine the form of bonds including any interest coupons to be attached thereto and shall fix the denomination or denominations of the bonds and the place or places of payment of principal and interest thereof which may be at any bank or trust company within or without the Commonwealth. The bonds shall bear the facsimile signatures of the Governor and of the chairman of the Commission and the facsimile of the official seal of the Commission shall be affixed thereto attested by the secretary and treasurer of the Commission and any coupons attached thereto shall bear the facsimile signature of the chairman of the Commission. In case any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds such signature or such facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery. All turnpike revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall have and are hereby declared to have all the qualities and incidents of negotiable instruments under the negotiable instruments law of the Commonwealth. The bonds may be issued in coupon or in registered form or both as the Commission may determine and provision may be made for the registration of any coupon bond as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest and registered and coupon bonds shall be interchangeable. The Commission may sell such bonds in such manner and for such price as it may determine to be for the best interest of the Commonwealth but no such sale shall be made at a price so low as to require the payment of interest on the money received therefor at more than six per centum per annum computed with relation to the absolute maturity of the bonds in accordance with standard tables of bond values. The proceeds of such bonds shall be used solely for the payment of the cost of the turnpike and shall be disbursed upon requisition of the chairman of the Commission under such restrictions if any as the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or the trust indenture hereinafter mentioned may provide. If the proceeds of such bonds by error of calculation or otherwise shall be less than the cost of the turnpike additional bonds may in like manner be issued to provide the amount of such deficit and unless otherwise provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or in the trust indenture shall be deemed to be of the same issue and shall be entitled to payment from the same fund without preference or priority of the bonds first issued. If the proceeds of the bonds shall exceed the cost of the turnpike the surplus shall be paid into the fund hereinafter provided for the payment of principal and interest of such bonds. Prior to the preparation of definitive bonds the Commission may under like restrictions issue temporary bonds with or without coupons exchangeable for definitive bonds upon the issuance of the latter. The Commission may also provide for the replacement of any bond which shall become mutilated or be destroyed or lost. Such turnpike revenue bonds may be issued without any other proceedings or the happening of any other conditions or things than those proceedings conditions and things which are specified and required by this act.

Such bonds are hereby made securities in which all

Section 16 The Commission is hereby authorized to provide by resolution for the issuance of turnpike revenue refunding bonds of the Commonwealth for the purpose of refunding turnpike revenue bonds notes or other obligations issued under the provisions of this act and then outstanding The issuance of such turnpike revenue refunding bonds the maturities and other details thereof the rights of the holders thereof and the duties of the Commonwealth and of the Commission in respect to the same shall be governed by the foregoing provisions of this act in so far as the same may be applicable

Section 17 Any holder of bonds notes or other obligations issued under the provisions of this act or any of the coupons attached thereto and the trustee under the trust indenture if any except to the extent the rights herein given may be restricted by resolution passed before the issuance of the bonds notes or other obligations or by the trust indenture may either at law or in equity by suit action mandamus or other proceedings protect and enforce any and all rights granted hereunder or under such resolution or trust indenture and may enforce and compel performance of all duties required by this act or by such resolution or trust indenture to be performed by the commission or any officer thereof including the fixing charging and collecting of tolls for the use of the turnpike

Section 18 When all bonds notes or other obligations and the interest thereon shall have been paid or sufficient amount for the payment of all bonds notes or other obligations and the interest to maturity thereon shall have been set aside in trust for the benefit of the holders of such bonds notes or other obligations and shall continue to be held for that purpose the turnpike and the connecting roads tunnels and bridges shall become a part of the system of State highways and shall be maintained by the Department of Highways free of tolls and thereupon the Commission shall be dissolved and all funds of the Commission not required for the payment of the bonds notes or other obligations and all machinery equipment and other property belonging to the Commission shall be vested in the Department of Highways

Section 19 The foregoing sections of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing Such sections being necessary for the welfare of the Commonwealth and its inhabitants shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes thereof

Section 20 The provisions of this act are severable and if any of its provisions shall be held unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction the decision of such court shall not effect or impair any of the remaining provisions It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included therein

Section 21 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

Section 22 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I regret that I do not have the eloquence which my colleague from York has, but I trust that my arguments will be more convincing today than apparently his were yesterday. I also regret that I must disagree with my good friend, another apple grower, from Adams County.

At the risk of being accused of retarding the wheels of progress I want to take just a few minutes time to explain to the Members of this House why I am opposed to this particular piece of legislation. I think it is time we got our heads out of the clouds and become realists.

From the best information available to me, this bill is definitely a so-called "outside bill." It has not been sponsored by any organizations on the Hill or any organizations connected with the Hill. I admire anyone who has ambition, and I should like to suggest that we apply our energies to projects that can be justified from an economical standpoint.

First of all I would like to say I do not want anyone to get up and tell me that any money used in this project would not come from state funds. I realize that, but in the end it come from the pockets of the taxpayers, and I think we have gotten our hands too deeply into their pockets already.

Here are a few reasons why I do not think this project should be authorized by this group:

In the first place, this proposed new highway should practically parallel a highway now under construction, part of which has been completed and is now open to the general public. The balance is under contract and more will be placed under contract in the very near future. I should like to point out what the highway about which I am now speaking is costing our own Pennsylvania Department of Highways.

This highway that I speak of is a highway planned in conjunction with the Maryland Highway Commission and they have already agreed where these highways will meet when completed.

As I stated, part of it is under construction; other plans are completed and contracts will be let in the very near future. When completed this highway from Harrisburg to the Maryland line will cost the Pennsylvania Department of Highways over $18,000,000.

As I stated this road will parallel a toll road to be built that is proposed in this bill. I do not know the exact mileage of the new proposal, but I can say this: it is a very, very short mileage to be thinking of building or constructing a toll road.

I am absolutely certain, and I have not checked these figures, but knowing the country as I do, I do not believe the mileage would be over 20. It is my opinion you cannot justify a 20 or a 25 mile toll road.

I have in my hand a newspaper release from which I would like to read a few paragraphs, not a few paragraphs but a few sentences. It is marked

"By-Pass 'Round Baltimore."

Surveys and plans for the first five mile segment from Falls Road to the Dulany Valley Road are to start immediately.

Russell H. McCain, Commission Chairman, said Gov. McKeldin regards early completion of the road "of the utmost importance."

That will eliminate a lot of the objections that now exist to our present road or our present proposed road if the "By-Pass 'Round Baltimore" were constructed. That would seem to indicate that that is well on the way.

I realize that most of you have heard very little that I have said up to this time, but if you will give me just about one or two minutes more, and listen I would like to read a letter which in my opinion is the thing that should convince you.

I think this letter will prove conclusively to you that we cannot in any manner justify the proposed road in this bill.

The letter is addressed to me and is as follows:

You wrote this office under date of September 27th in regard to Maryland's position pertaining to toll roads.

In 1947 the General Assembly gave the State Roads Commission the authority to construct toll roads as revenue bond projects. Under the bill the traffic over any such roads must be sufficient to amortize the investment and the State's credit is not pledged against bonds issued for that purpose.

Following the granting of this authority by the General Assembly the State Roads Commission employed outside experts to make a study of routes that might be favorable for toll road construction. In the report submitted Route 15 from the Pennsylvania Line down through Frederick was not included since it was found that the traffic over this highway was not sufficient to satisfy the financial houses who would handle the sale of revenue bonds.

Maryland has started the construction of a 4-lane divided limited access highway from Frederick toward Washington and in the long range program for Maryland the construction of a new 4-lane highway from Frederick north to the Pennsylvania line in the vicinity of Emmitsburg should certainly receive careful consideration as the volume of traffic now using this highway, while not sufficient to support a revenue bond toll project, is sufficient to warrant a highway of dual type construction.

The writer hopes that this letter will answer the questions raised in your letter of September the 27th.

Signed Russell H. McCain

Chairman, State Roads Commission of Maryland

I submit to the Members of this House that we would look rather ridiculous if we were to authorize and have a toll road constructed to the Maryland State Line and then have the Maryland Roads Commission build a free road to the Pennsylvania State Line. The reason that I say this, some of which I hope you have heard, I trust that the membership of this House will see fit to oppose this bill.

Mr. PITZER. Mr. Speaker, this bill 816 is a "may bill," and turnpikes are built through a bond issue. We did build a turnpike across Pennsylvania into a cornfield in Ohio which they are meeting and east to the King of Prussia which is being met. We in Pennsylvania are not followers, we are leaders. Therefore, I ask the Members of this House to vote in favor of Senate Bill 816.

Mr. STONER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to call to the attention to the Members of this House that there is nothing in the bill which says that it will run parallel to the road mentioned by my good friend from York. We must remember that is a "may bill," it may run in York County or it may run in Adams County.

It would be a direct road south. We have the Naval Supply Depot at Mechanicsburg which would make it a direct route to the Eastern Shore, and to our naval bases there. I think this is a good bill and I would like to see the Members of this House vote in favor of it.

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I just want to make one reply to the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Pitzer. I believe he said that our western extension ends in a cornfield in Ohio or somewhere near the Ohio State Line and some place in the east which I did not hear.

I want to remind him and the membership of this House that I believe I am correct in stating that we do have a working agreement with the Roads Commission in Ohio and in New Jersey also, and they are planning to connect with our east-west Super Highway, so-called.

As I read in the letter, we positively do not have a working agreement with the State of Maryland so far as toll roads are concerned. I want to repeat to the membership of this House, whether this is a "may bill" or not, if the Turnpike Commission in Pennsylvania should have permission and see fit to build a toll road to the Maryland State Line, we would look perfectly ridiculous having a toll road up to the Maryland State Line and get off the Pennsylvania road and ride free in Maryland.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. Speaker, in appearing in favor of this bill I am, of course, appearing in disagreement with my colleague from York, a position in which I regret to be. But I would like to answer some of the statements which the gentleman has made.

In the first place, he seems to find fault with this bill because this has been sponsored by no organizations or pressure group. This is far from seeming to me a detriment to the bill. It should be counted a point in its favor because this has been the result of constructive thinking on the part of the individuals whose constituents in the area affected are interested in this road.

The argument that this would be parallel to a highway now being constructed seems to me a rather ineffective one because on the same line of reasoning, we should have said that we should build no turnpike in the first place running east and west because, as everyone knows, it runs parallel to the Lincoln Highway, and the distances are just about the same.

Then the letter from Maryland which the gentleman offered as exhibit "A" in his argument, seems to me to have some interesting points of view. Maryland has designed apparently, after careful study, that a road should be built, a dual type road, according to the letter, should be built in this area. If that is true you have two ways to build it. You can either build it out of state funds or you can build it on the turnpike plan. If the gentleman believes the material contained in that letter, it seems to me he is in the position of saying if we find we want this road we should eventually build a road which would be paid out of state funds. To my mind the method of building roads employing the turnpike plan has proved very successful. The management of that road has been successful, therefore, I think this bill which as has been said is a "may bill" would not be built until the Turnpike Commission deems it advisable. It is a very good bill and I would ask the Members to support it.

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I assure you that this is the last time I will stand before the microphone on this particular bill. I just want to call the attention of my colleague from York to two remarks he make.

In the first place, I believe he said this was not introduced by any pressure groups. From the best available information I have it was introduced by a pressure group and that is one reason I object to it. It was not thought up by any of the sponsors of this bill and I have the word of one of the sponsors that that is correct.

Another thing, apparently he did not get the full meaning of that letter. The letter written by the Chairman of the Maryland State Roads Commission stated specifically that a survey was made and under the law they cannot justify the construction of a toll road to meet the Pennsylvania-Maryland State Line. I believe he probably did not get that and it stated specifically that and under their Act of 1947, I believe, they are not authorized to build a toll road that cannot amortize itself, and after their survey they found this road would come under that classification.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

in the affirmative; the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 552, entitled as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the several fire companies of the City of Harrisburg Pennsylvania

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The sum of five thousand dollars ($5000) or as much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated for the several fire companies of the City of Harrisburg Pennsylvania as compensation for protection from and extinguishment of any fire or fires that may occur in or on the Capitol buildings or grounds for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred fifty-one Said sum to be distributed among said companies in equal amounts

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, fourteen years ago I was a Member of this House and Mr. Lovett of Westmoreland County at that time used the same remark we have heard him make in this session several times, "Let's be fair." I do not believe there is a more appropriate occasion to use that expression of "Let's be fair" than on this particular bill.

If you recall last night I made a little talk on the volunteer fire company appropriation bill which was submitted to this House by myself and my colleagues from Cambria County. I understand also there has been a bill submitted for an appropriation to the Muncy Volunteer Fire Company for a paltry amount of about $200 a year.

In speaking to the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee of this House, he told me in respect to my bill, and I presume the same holds true with the respect to the bill introduced by the Muncy institution, it was not the policy of the Commonwealth to make contributions to volunteer fire companies, and it would not be a good thing to continue.

I said, "Mr. Wood, would you agree that these institutions need fire protection?"

"Yes," he agreed they do need the fire protection.

Incidentally the Superintendent of the institutions and I think the head of the Department of Health agrees these institutions do need fire protection.

I said, "well now then if you agree that they need fire protection, why does not the Commonwealth agree to help pay for that protection?"

He said to me that the community of Cresson and these other communities profit by the fact that these institutions are located near or in their community, and therefore they should be willing to support the fire company and maintain the fire fighting apparatus.

I ask you, Members of this House, in all fairness what community in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania profits more from having Commonwealth property within its boundaries than the City of Harrisburg? In all fairness what community profits from the fact that you 208 members are in this fair city, time after time spending your money?

If it is fair for the Cresson Volunteer Fire Company, if it is fair for the residents of Cresson to bear the burden of fire protection for the sanitorium at Cresson, then it certainly becomes fair that the residents of the fair city of Harrisburg also maintain their volunteer fire departments.

I am only asking here for a vote on a subject which I consider fair and equitable and in view of the position taken by the Appropriations Committee. If that is the position taken by this administration then this bill has no legitimate place on our calendar and should be voted down.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. LOPRESTI. I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. LOPRESTI. What majority is necessary for the passage of an appropriation bill in the House of this type?

The SPEAKER. A constitutional majority consisting of 105 members-elect.

Mr. LOPRESTI. In what type of appropriation bills does the two-thirds majority come into effect?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that the gentleman refers to appropriations to charitable and state-aided institutions.

For the information of the gentleman the Chair will read Section 17, Article III of the Constitution:

Appropriations To Charitable and Education Institutions.

No appropriation shall be made to any charitable or educational institution not under the absolute control of the Commonwealth, other than normal schools established by law for the professional training of teachers for the public schools of the state, except by a vote of two-thirds of all the Members elected to each House.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, would not a volunteer fire company constitute a charitable institution not within the control of the Commonwealth?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that a volunteer fire company would not be classified as a charitable or an educational institution, such as would come within the purview of Section 17, of Article III of the Constitution.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I express regret that this issue has arisen in this form at this time. Would it be possible to suspend consideration of this bill and take a thirty or forty minute recess until this and other matters have been disposed of?

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will declare a recess for forty minutes. The Chair hears none, and a recess is declared.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, the question of the vote needed to pass the bill has been ruled upon by the Chair. I have no desire to appeal from the ruling of the Chair and I am willing to abide by the decision handed down.

In addition to that I want to make this further statement, Mr. Speaker.

Meditation they say is good for the soul. This brief recess we have had has given me a chance to meditate. I bear no personal animosity against the Harrisburg Volunteer Fire Companies. I want that distinctly understood. I merely attacked this bill and will vote against it, not asking other Members to do so, unless they feel in good conscience they must vote against it; —not asking anyone to vote as I do; but merely to protest. I shall vote against it. I merely wanted to prove a point that what is good for goose in this Legislature should also be good for the gander.

Mr. ERB. Mr. Speaker, on March 14, 1951, I introduced a bill as I have in all previous five sessions which I attended here, for a contribution in the sum of $500 to be divided equally between the Duncansville Volunteer Fire Company and my own Hollidaysburg Fire Company. I have been denied at each and every session any contribution whatsoever.

Four years ago there was a bad fire at the state hospital which our fire companies protect, the State Medical Hospital at Hollidaysburg, the maintenance and the main district highway building in Hollidaysburg and the State Police Barracks at Hollidaysburg. One man was badly burned three years ago. He was off duty for three months. Through the firemen's relief he was healed back to strength and health.

I am like the gentleman from Cambria, if we do not recognize volunteer fire companies in the counties where we are protecting state properties, why should we go along with other volunteer fire companies and give them money? I feel too that the honest, fair thing right now, if we are going to give one, give all. On the other hand not that we are financially embarrassed, no, but to buy boots, clothes, when they get torn to pieces and burned in fires, that would be a nice thing to give and besides it would be deeply appreciated by these volunteer fire companies.

I too am voting against this appropriation unless we all get it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I sincerely hope that the protest against this bill is limited to the gestures made by the gentleman from Cambria and by the gentleman from Blair. Two wrongs don't make a right, and three wrongs don't make a right. If any volunteer fire company in the state should be assisted it is the Harrisburg Fire Company, which has fire traps all over the city that it is called upon to protect. So I hope that all of the Members with the exception of the gentleman from Cambria and the gentleman from Blair will support this measure.

Mr. GLEASON. Mr. Speaker, I want to express my thought on this bill. I am not up here to protest against the Harrisburg Fire Department in any way. I have a volunteer company back home, as probably everybody else does, protecting state property. I feel that if one should get a little contribution they all should. When I put the bill in this year, I was told that it would not come out of Committee because they did not give the appropriation anymore. So that is why I am up here and stating that I will not vote for this bill.

I think it's time, as Mr. Andrews said, when two wrongs don't make a right, but it seems that some people can get bills out of Committee and others cannot, and they are all on the same basis. So it is time we start correcting some of these things. That is why I am going to vote against this bill and I will vote against any bill in the future under the same conditions, where one bill comes out and the other one does not when a Member puts it in.

I would like to see this bill defeated.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, I regret that I have to take the time of the House but I feel compelled to make a few brief remarks.

In the first place, in the City of Harrisburg, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania owns buildings worth many, many millions of dollars.

In the next place as you know, the Commonwealth is self insured for any amount that we may lose, less than $500,000; or in other words up to $500,000 the state pays for the loss.

In addition to that on Front Street in Harrisburg, and particularly on Cameron or Eleventh Street in Harrisburg, there are many buildings which the Commonwealth occupies, there are records, lots of vehicles and lots of valuable equipment.

I endeavored to check during the recess to find out how long the appropriation was being received in the City of Harrisburg. To the best of my knowledge it has been for a period of upwards of thirty years.

The sum of $500,000 or $2500 annually. In view of the fact that this very valuable property is located here, I think the sum is very, very nominal.

I am in sympathy with the gentleman who requested appropriation for other state-owned institutions so that their fire companies may have some kind of subsidy, but I feel that he is taking the wrong approach when he votes down this bill as a protest.

I, and I think everyone else would be willing to lend some assistance to see that he gets some appropriation commensurate with the amount of property which is held in the area that he represents.

I ask all of the people here to vote for this bill. Because it has been said that two rights will not make a wrong and I call your attention to the very disastrous fire here of 1898 and during the late '30's. The Education Building, right across the way when it was nearing completion was gutted by fire with a loss of more than a million dollars. I do not think we are looking at this very wisely, if purely out of retaliation or protest, we vote down this appropriation bill.

I ask all you Members to vote for the bill.

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, a number of times I put bills in for the State Teachers College in Indiana and the Torrance Institution. However, I have not put any bills in for those two institutions lately, and I am going to vote for this bill because I sleep at the Penn Harris and if the fire company heard that I voted against this bill they might not come and put the fire out if there should be one.

Mr. BANKER. Mr. Speaker, I too had a bill in at the request of my own fire company at home, but I think this is a different situation. I am quite sure that our boys would not object to our going along with the Harrisburg Fire Department. I think we should vote for it.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NOT VOTING—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Mr. SCANLON asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up out of order Senate Bill No. 897 on page 18 of today's Calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 897, as follows:

An Act to implement Article fourteen section eight of the Constitution of Pennsylvania providing for the election or appointment compensation terms and disposition of the duties of certain of the former County officers and employes in the City of Philadelphia by amendments or supplement to the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 (a) The primary purpose of this act is as far as practicable to provide for the integration with the provisions of the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter adopted on the seventeenth day of April one thousand nine hundred fifty-one of the work of certain of the former County officers who were abolished as such by the adoption on the sixth day of November one thousand nine hundred fifty-one of Article XIV section eight of the Constitution of Pennsylvania

(b) As used in this act Mayor and City Solicitor mean the specified officers created by the aforesaid Philadelphia Home Rule Charter

Section 2 (a) Within thirty days after the first Monday of January one thousand nine hundred fifty-two the Governor and the Mayor of Philadelphia shall appoint a bipartisan commission for the purpose of framing a supplement or certain amendments to the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter as hereinafter provided five members to be appointed by the Governor and five by the Mayor Each member shall be a registered elector of the City Any vacancy in the membership of the commission caused by death resignation removal from the city or otherwise shall be filled by the officer who appointed the member whose position is vacant by appointing as a member of the commission a registered elector of the city

(b) The amendments or supplement to be framed by said commission shall be only such as may be necessary to transfer merge or distribute functions and duties heretofore performed by all former county officers in accordance with the purposes and intent of article fourteen Section Eight of the Constitution of Pennsylvania and shall provide for the manner of selection whether appointed or elected and if appointed by whom and for the terms if any of officers designated for the performance of such functions and duties and whether any of such former county officers of Philadelphia, or their offices shall be continued or abolished Provided however that this shall not apply to the Board of Revision of Taxes and the Registration Commission of Philadelphia

(c) The commission created under the provisions of this section shall organize hold meetings and carry out its functions in the same manner as the Philadelphia Charter Commission appointed under the provisions of the first class City Home Rule Act

(d) The amendments or the supplement when prepared by the commission shall be submitted to the City Council which shall cause said proposals together with the form of the proper question or questions to be printed for distribution and shall provide for the submission of such proposed amendments or supplement to the qualified electors of the city for their approval or disapproval at a special election on a day fixed and designated by ordinance in the same manner as provided for in sections nine and ten of the first class City Home Rule Act

(e) Any of said amendments or any such supplement to the charter which are approved by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon shall become the organic law of the city at such time as may be fixed therein

(f) All officers including those elected at the one thousand nine hundred fifty-one municipal election and replacing former county officers shall continue to perform their duties and be elected appointed compensated and organized in such manner as may be provided by the provisions of the Constitution and the laws of the Commonwealth until the provisions of the Supplement or amendments to the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter authorized hereby become effective

(g) No amendments or changes shall be framed by the commission or submitted to the vote of the electors under the provisions of this section which shall be in conflict or inconsistent with other provisions of this act

Section 3 Former County employes who are transferred to any City department or other agency shall retain all rights to retirement with pension which shall have accrued or would thereafter accrue to them and their services shall be deemed to have been continuous as if the transfer had not been made

Section 4 (a) All petitions hearings and other proceedings pending before any former County officer board or commission and all prosecution legal or other proceedings and investigations begun by any such officer board or commission and all prosecutions legal or other proceedings of any amendments or supplements to the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter adopted pursuant to this act shall continue and remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the adoption of such amendments or supplements and may be completed before or by the officer department board or commission which succeeds to the rights powers duties and obligations of such officer board or commission All questions arising under this section shall be determined by the City Solicitor

(b) All orders rules and regulations made by any former County officer board or commission shall remain in full force and effect until revoked or modified by the officer department board or commission succeeding to the rights powers duties and obligations of such former officer board or commission

(c) All existing contracts and obligations of the former County officers boards and commissions shall remain in full force and effect and shall be performed by the officers departments boards and commissions to which the rights powers duties and obligations of such former officers boards or commissions are transferred

(d) Whenever reports or notices were formerly required or given or papers or documents furnished or served by any person to or upon any former County officer board or commission or deputy assistant agent or other subordinate or employe thereof the same shall be made given furnished or served in the same manner to or upon the office department board or commission upon which are now conferred or imposed by any amendments or supplements to the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter adopted pursuant to this act the rights powers and duties formerly exercised or discharged by such officer board commission or deputy assistant agent or other subordinate or employe thereof and every penalty for failure to do so shall continue in effect

Section 5 All of the provisions of the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter not inconsistent with this act shall be applicable and in full force and effect

Section 6 The Members of the Registration Commission and the Board of Revision of Taxes shall continue to be appointed and compensated as provided by law and they shall receive such compensation as they now receive the Registration Commission and the Board of Revision of Taxes shall continue to appoint such assistants and employes as provided by law

Section 7 It is the intention of the General Assembly that if this act cannot take effect in its entirety because of the judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction holding invalid any part or parts hereof the remaining provisions of this act shall be given full force and effect as if the part or parts held invalid had not been included herein

Section 8 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment except that all former County officers now in office shall be permitted to complete their terms and that any provisions hereof which cannot become effective until the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter becomes effective shall take effect on the first Monday of January one thousand nine hundred fifty-two The County officers elected at the 1951 municipal election shall assume office as officers of the City pursuant to the provisions of this act

Section 9 All acts and parts of act general local and special inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Labor and Industry for the payment of certain moral claims providing for the hearing adjustment and payment of moral claims to members of the Workmen's Compensation Board and referees suffered as a result of delay in confirmation of appointments made by Governor to such offices

Section 1 The sum of eight thousand seven hundred twenty dollars ($8,720) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of Labor and Industry of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the payment of moral claims against the Commonwealth and that Department arising out of the loss of salaries suffered by certain members of the Workmen's Compensation Board and referees as a result of delay in the confirmation of appointments made by the Governor to such offices during the present session

Section 2 All persons heretofore or hereafter suffering such losses as provided in section one of this act may present a claim for compensation to the Board of Finance and Revenue for the purpose of hearing and adjusting such claims The Secretary of Labor and Industry shall become a member of said board with full power of a member of said board with full power of a member in any such claim

Section 3 The Board of Finance and Revenue shall hear and determine such claims and if the board determines that a moral claim exists against the Commonwealth and the Department of Labor and Industry in such cases and that such claim or claims are not adjustable or recoverable against the Commonwealth under existing law it shall make a finding to that effect and shall fix the sum which in its opinion will compensate the claimant for the loss suffered

Any amount so fixed by the Board of Finance and Revenue shall be payable from the appropriation hereinbefore made by requisition of the Secretary of Labor and Industry in the manner provided by law and to each such requisition shall be attached the findings of the board

Section 4 The action of the Board of Finance and Revenue in allowing or disapproving a claim in full or in part shall be final and there shall be no appeal therefrom but the board in its discretion may grant rehearing on any claim and make new findings as hereinbefore provided

Section 5 The provisions of this act shall become effective on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred fifty-one

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 732, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Military Affairs for the payment of certain moral claims providing for the hearing adjustment and paying of moral claims growing out of property damages to certain persons as a result of accidents occurring through negligence in the operation of airplanes of or under the control of the Pennsylvania National Guard

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The sum of four thousand ($4000) dollars is hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of Military Affairs for the purpose of compensating any person for property damages and miscellaneous expenses where any property was damaged in accidents occurring through negligence in the operation of airplanes of or under the control of the Pennsylvania National Guard and where no insurance was carried by the Commonwealth on such airplanes and where such persons are otherwise barred by law from recovery against the Commonwealth

Section 2 Any such person who is in charge control custody or owner of such property that has been damaged as a result of accidents as provided in Section one of this act may present a claim for compensation to the Board of Finance and Revenue and for the purpose of hearing and adjusting such claims The Adjutant General of the Commonwealth shall become a member of said board with full powers of a member thereof

Section 3 The Board of Finance and Revenue shall hear and determine all such claims and if in any case the board determines that such property damage was caused as a result of an accident occurring through negligence of the operator of the airplane of the Pennsylvania National Guard that no insurance was carried on such airplane by the Commonwealth that a moral claim exists against the Commonwealth for such damages and that such claim or claims are not adjustable or recoverable under existing law against the Commonwealth it shall make a finding to that effect and shall fix the sum which in its opinion will compensate any such person for such property loss and shall certify such findings to the Adjutant General

An amount so fixed by the Board of Finance and Revenue shall be payable from the appropriation hereinbefore made by requisition of the Adjutant General in the manner provided by law and to each such requisition shall be attached the findings of the Board of Finance and Revenue

Section 4 The action of the Board of Finance and Revenue in allowing or disapproving a claim shall be final and there shall be no appeal therefrom but the board in its discretion may grant rehearings on any claim and make new findings in accordance with this act

Section 5 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 754, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the trustees of Pennsylvania State College for the establishment and maintenance of a research laboratory for the study of animal and poultry disease of economic concern to the poultry and livestock raisers of the Commonwealth

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The sum of one hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred dollars ($137,500) or as much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the trustees of Pennsylvania State College for the establishment and maintenance of a research laboratory in its School of Agriculture for the study of animal and poultry diseases of economic concern to the poultry and livestock raisers of the Commonwealth thirty-seven thousand five hundred dollars ($37,500) of the moneys appropriated hereby shall be available and expended only to the extent that a sum equal to the amount to be expended by the Commonwealth is contributed to the Trustees of Pennsylvania State College by members of the poultry industry affidavits evidencing such contributions shall be submitted by the college to the Auditor General

Section 2 The moneys appropriated by this act are to be used for the following purposes

(1) To erect new structures or to alter existing structures at Pennsylvania State College in order to provide laboratory space and research facilities adequate for an exploratory program of research in animal and poultry diseases

(2) To purchase requisite laboratory equipment for the proper conduct of such research

(3) To employ the scientific personnel required for such research

(4) To defray such other expenses as are incident to the establishment and proper operation of such research in animal and poultry diseases

Section 3 The functions of the staff and personnel of the laboratory created by this act shall be as follows

(1) To serve as research consultants to the regional animal and poultry disease diagnostic laboratories maintained in several parts of the Commonwealth by the State Department of Agriculture

(2) To study animals and poultry having obscure symptoms of disease in order to define the ailment and to prescribe treatment therefore

(3) To aid the State Department of Agriculture in the control of epidemic outbreaks of animals and poultry disease within the Commonwealth

(4) To assist in the development and conduct of an educational program designed to help livestock and poultry raisers reduce to a minimum the incidence of disease among their flocks and herds

Section 4 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?
